THIEVERY ART IS MATTER FOR BIG POLICE SEARCH

Police and Sheriffs' Offices Alerted In all Adjoining States

Gangs have been organized to steal cattle, chickens and most all things in a scientific way, it has been shown through the daily press, but this area learned a new one, Monday.

A huge logging donkey, used by loggers, was picked up bodily the first of the week and disappeared as if a magician had gotten hold of a rabbit.

This donkey, belonging to Elmer Clauson, and rented by the Brimm Bros. and Henry Kerr, up the Chetco, was loaded and vanished. The road to it had been re-made after Clauson had dug a ditch with a bulldozer when the gate showed that it had been tampered with.

A donkey, loaded on a truck did not make as much impression with people as an old car would. However, the sheriff's offices of all counties have been alerted, as well as state police of both California and Oregon.

This piece of machinery, which would cause an over-width load, was never given a highway moving permit, on which angle the police is working.

Benefit Dance Set For Injured Logger

A benefit dance, under auspices of the Odd Fellows with Mike Page and Martha Harbin in charge, will be held Saturday night, June 25, at the Odd Fellows hall for Owen Carter, logger, who was seriously injured a few months ago, and for a time little home was held for his life.

The Odd Fellows urge all his logger friends to respond as liberally as possible as it still will several more months before Mr. Carter will be able to be out and around.

C. of C. Bills Business Meeting, Wed., June 29

A brief business meeting, with no dinner being served, will be held Wednesday, June 29 at the Odd Fellows Hall, Charles Grayshel, president, told the Pilot on Tuesday. Time of meeting is set for eight o'clock.

Unanimous Vote Recorded, Monday, At Dist. Election

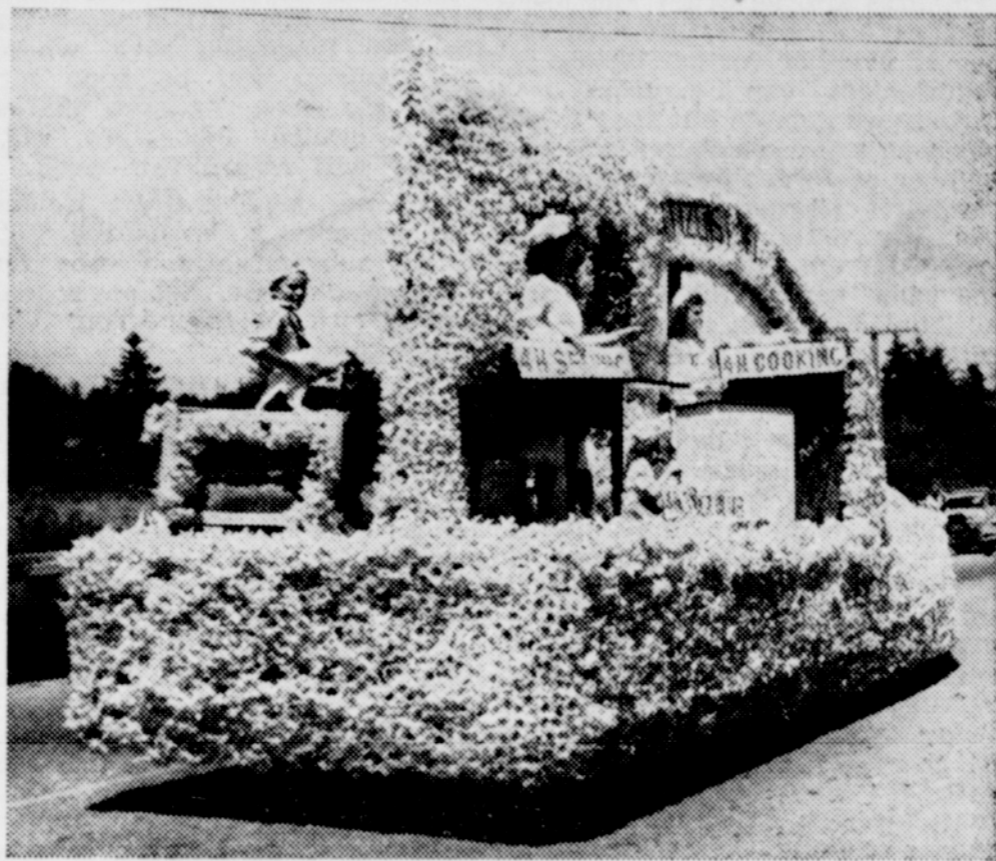

Without one dissenting vote, or a 'white-in,' voters of District No. 17, Monday evening approved the re-election of Mrs. Gladys Kindel for a three-year term and A. P. Hendricks for a one-year term.

During the time after nominations had been called, only the two out-going members were nominated. None others were ever offered. Two ballots, improperly marked, were thrown out, and the results were:

Three-year Terms
Mrs. Gladys Kindel 62
One-Year Term
A. P. Hendricks 62

Following reading of the receipts and expenditures of the district for the past year, no questions were asked by anyone.

4-H Club Float In 1948 Lily Parade

Indicative of what visitors to the 1949 Lily Blossom Time parade this year, is the 4-H float entered last year by the 4-H clubs of the Brookings and Harbor area. This float, last year's winner in the juvenile division, is one of the colorful exhibits which make this parade the attraction that it has always been. Vincent Photo

Brookings Girls Attend Beaver Girls' State On Willamette University Campus

Mary Ann Biddle, and Margaret Byrne, juniors in the Brookings high school, who won their right to represent this area at Beaver Girls' State, at Willamette University Campus, Salem, are absorbing government and politics, through efforts of Unit No. 138, American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors of the two girls.

Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Biddle, owners of Four Biddles Motel, south of Harbor, aspires to become a doctor of medicine, and has been, while in this area, active in school functions. Accompanying Mary Ann Biddle to Salem is Margaret Byrne, another junior in the local high school, who, after her graduation next year, hopes to major in music, at Willamette.

These girls will make several appearances after their return, to tell of their experiences, and of the lessons taught at Beaver Girls' State.

Principally taught at Beaver Girls' State are civics, politics and government, through actual practice.

ASPIRE TO BE DOCTOR

Mary Ann Biddle, junior in the local high school, now at Beaver Girls' State, Salem.

TO STUDY MUSIC

Margaret Byrne, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Byrne, upon entering college, will study music.

Harris Park Road Near Completion

Road from Harris Park driveway, to the beach a few hundred feet below is nearly completed, and ready for the public to enjoy.

Harris park is one of the few spots available to the public to enjoy the beach except on private property, much of which is now closed to tourist trade.

This construction was said to have cost the state about $9000, and was considered foolish after having been offered Mill Beach at no cost last fall.

O. E. S. Members Return From Grand Chapter

Mrs. Hazel Hendry, Worthy Matron and Mrs. Alice Rausch, conductress of Satellite chapter, O. E. S., Brookings, returned on Sunday from Portland where they had attended the 16th annual session of the Grand Chapter, last week.

Leonard 'Advertises' Brookings Water

A new public drinking fountain has been installed by C. O. Leonard, in front of the Leonard real estate office.

The recent publicity given the Brookings water by the Chetco Rod and Gun Club show was one of the reasons Mr. Leonard installed the convenience for tourists and clients, he told the Pilot.

Musical, Sunday, Nets Lily Blossom Time Fund, $35.00

According to Leo VanDolson, pastor of the local Seventh-Day Adventist church, a total of $35 was turned over to the Lily Blossom time committee as the result of the benefit musicale sponsored by the group and presented at the Grange hall, last Sunday night.

Douglas and Effie Jean Potts of Los Angeles were guests artists on the program and their outstanding and varied talents were greatly appreciated by all who attended. A wide variety of numbers and readings was also presented by local talent.

Several who attended expressed their opinion that one of the most outstanding numbers on the program was a piano solo by Effie Jean, using only her left hand to play the entire piece. She and Douglas are children of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Potts, of Peunto, Calif., who are currently visiting friends in this area.

Recent Graduate Became Bride, Fri.

At a lovely home wedding, Friday afternoon, Plyllis Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warnock, and Nolan Lyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chenoweth, of Port Orford, were united in marriage by Rev. Nick Neufeld.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, where a number of relatives had gathered. The living room was lovely with many roses, calla lilies and azaleas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white taffeta faille gown, and carried a large nosegay of gardenias, firsias and sweet peas.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, and the young couple left on a weeks wedding trip which will take them to Crater Lake, Roseburg and other points north. They will be at home in Ophir on their return.

The bride was graduated with the class of 1949 from Brookings high school where she took an active part in many school activities during her four years here.

The groom, graduate of Gold Beach high school, is currently employed by the state highway department.

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Warmoth of Ashland have purchased highway frontage owned by R. J. Stoken half mile north of Brookings.

Mr. Warmoth expects to erect a type of furniture factory that is different than any other to be found on the coast. He also plans a nice home on this same property. The deal was handled thru the C. O. Leonard Real Estate agency.

LILY PARADE TO MAP NEW ROUTE FOR 1949 TRAVEL

Bridge Damage Held As Reason For Deny Highway Parade

Reports that the exceedingly heavy traffic, especially log and lumber trucks, had and is damaging the Chetco River bridge, permission to use Hwy 101 to run the lily parade to Harbor Grange may be denied, state police told the lily blossom time committee Tuesday night. Concrete is reported falling from the piers in big chunks.

A schedule for the parade, if permission is not granted for a number of details concerning the long parade, will be published in the next issue of the Pilot.

The Blossom Time committee met Tuesday, and disposed of a number of details concerning the three-day celebration, July 2, 3 and 4th, when Loeb State Park will be dedicated, and closed with the Fourth of July activities.
