

Pelicans Explode With 13 Runs In 5th To Beat Glendale 17 to 8, Sunday, P. M.

Brookings Pelicans maintained first place in Rogue Valley league standings with six runs and one loss, by walloping the Glendale Loggers by a 17 to 8 score in a free-hitting game, Sunday. Played at Glendale, the Pelicans exploded in the fifth with 13 runs, a lead Glendale couldn't overtake.

In the first four innings the game gave every indication of being a tight affair. Brookings pushed over a single tally in the first, two in the second, which was tied in the fourth by Glendale. Then the Pelicans forgot that the fourth was over by setting off the fireworks.

The first ten Pelicans scored in the fifth on three walks, and ten hits before an out was made.

The inning was highlighted by Neil Nelson's long triple, scoring three mates aboard. Don Ackley also cleaned the fully populated sacks with a hard hit to center which eluded Winkelman, Glendale's center fielder.

Lanning, former Spokane W-I league pitcher, relieved Hennebeck in the fifth and stopped the Pelicans except for an unearned run in the eighth.

Hank Westbrook, on the hill for the Pelicans, although wild in early innings, pitched a creditable game, allowing but four earned runs. Eight Pelican errors, due mainly to poor field conditions, aided the Loggers in the balance of their scoring.

Because seven teams make up the league, Brookings draws a bye next Sunday. However, an effort is being made to line up a non-league home game for that date.

Hendricks Names Rotary Committees For Coming Year

At an evening meeting, Monday, instead of Tuesday noon, the newly-elected Rotary president, Archie Hendricks, appointed his committees for the coming year, and revealed plans for the coming year.

Directors having one year to serve, include: Homer Kessler, Luther Tisdale and Nick Neufeld. Two-year directors are Bob Perkins, Warren Smith and Archie Hendricks. Roy Weideman, past president, remains with the board for one year. Lynn Hampton is secretary again.

Heading the four aims and objects committees are: Warren Smith, Club Service; Homer Kessler, Vocational Service; Pete J. Lesmeister, Community Service; Roy Weideman, International Service.

Sub-committees under club service are headed by: Classification—Ed Ackley; Membership—Lloyd Moss and Stanley Patterson; Program—Bob Perkins and Bradley Page; Fellowship—Lloyd Stefani and V. A. Mendenhall Sr.

International Relations — Roy Weideman and Art Stonehouse; Rotary Information — Dewey Akers; Magazine Information — Dr. J. E. Stevenson; Attendance — Gordon Goetz and Otto Turley.

Under Vocational Guidance, and Homer Kessler are: Ben Kerns, together with whom they may be calling upon.

Community Service, with Pete J. Lesmeister as chairman, are: Youth—Virgil Goldsberry and R. Vincent; Traffic Safety—Homer Haggerty; Rural-Urban — Leo Lucas; Student Loan—Nick Neufeld.

Dr. A. O. Smith will help Roy Weideman on international service work, which is somewhat limited in this area.

Will Help Student
Under community service and vocational service, a committee, probably most of the club, will be set up to aid students determine their life work, through a series of conferences. A sympathetic understanding will be extended to all students who wish to set a goal for their lives.

Profits Of Edition Go To Committee

To erase the deficit incurred by the recent Lily Blossom Time parade and celebration, the association which staged the affair has taken over distribution of the special edition of the Pilot telling of the 1949 in pictures.

It is planned, if orders may be obtained, to print several thousand for national distribution to florists, chambers of commerce, and other groups which are interested in tourist travel.

Due to the cost of pictures and cuts, the association will make an effort to get nation-wide circulation on the publication.

Publication will be made within the next three weeks.
