Name Contest Will Arouse Attention

The $25 prize offered for the best and most catchy name for the proposed association which is planned to carry on all events for this area, has aroused considerable attention among local citizens, the Pilot has been informed.

First of all, the community is expressing gratification that one group will be formed to carry on the events, and second, the people see in this move a step toward a unity not heretofore experienced in the community.

Since the last issue of the Pilot reached the mails, several people have asked the Pilot for more details concerning what was desired in a name. These have been told that the name must be catchy and must identify this community beyond any doubt.

Portland calls her organization the "Rosarians." Salem has the catchy name of "Cherrians." A name for the local group, somewhat parallel would be a winner, the Pilot feels sure.

This name, however, must include the names of Brookings and Harbor for identity's sake. Since it will stage all future events, including the Azalea Festival and Lily Blossom Time, as well as a regatta, the name should be inclusive, or a name which will denote an entertainment group.

Several Hurt, Sun., In Auto Collision

Lyle Redfield, Sr., in his attempt to stop behind a string of cars, Sunday afternoon, near entrance to the L. G. Stafford place, ran, head-on, in to an on-coming Nebraska car, and the collision put all the occupants of the two cars in the hospital suffering from severe cuts and bruises.

According to witnesses, this string of cars was being momentarily halted when a pick-up, of the new cannery was about to turn in to that place of business. In a slight "draw" vision to the front was hindered.

A lumber truck and trailer, on Saturday, nearly knocked C. N. Goldizen from the road on the south Harbor hill. The driver evidently put on his brakes, causing the trailer to 'jackknife,' and swing toward Goldizen as he was going up the hill. Luckily, there was sufficient clearance by time the truck passed the car to keep from hitting the Goldizen car. The truck never stopped to see if he had caused any trouble to the car.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Tygart had as guest over the week-end, their son, who is a member of the Butte Falls baseball team. He is employed at a fish hatchery near there.

COMMITTEES WILL ARRANGE DATA FOR CHETCO COVE HEARING TO BE HELD HERE ABOUT SEPTEMBER 15

Meeting Set For Grange Hall; Entire Local Support Sought To Revise Data Previously Submitted To Corps Of Engineers

An open meeting, scheduled for Wednesday evening at Chetco Grange hall, brought together over 100 business men and residents of the Brookings and Harbor vicinities for purpose of naming all committees necessary to furnish briefs to army engineers at a meeting tentatively set for about the middle of September.

Prompting this action was a letter received from the army engineers, to the local chamber of commerce:

Gentlemen: A resolution was adopted by the Committee on Public Works of the House of Representatives on February 17, 1949, which reads as follows:

"Resolution by the Committee on Public Works of the House of Representatives, United States, That the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors be, and is hereby, requested to review the reports heretofore submitted on Chetco Cove, Oregon, with a view to determining whether modification of the recommendations contained therein is warranted at the present time."

It is customary to hold a public hearing in connection with such authorizations in order to obtain information from local interests as to the type of improvement desired, savings that would be derived, and local co-operation which may be expected. Previous reports submitted on Chetco Cove were of preliminary examination scope, and the purpose of the recently authorized review would be to determine whether or not a survey and detailed report is warranted in view of any changes that have occurred.

It is requested that information be furnished this office as to a tentative date for the public hearing, and location of a suitable building or hall available in the vicinity. A competent person should be appointed to act as a leader at the hearing to introduce the witnesses, etc. It is suggested that September 13, 14, or 15, 1949, would be a suitable date for the hearing so far as this office is concerned. Public notices are issued 30 days in advance of the hearing so the information requested should be furnished this office early in August. Very truly yours, D. A. Elliget, Lt. Col., Corps of Engineers, Acting District Engineer, Portland, Oregon.

Extension Units Met At Gold Beach To Outline Schedules

The home extension committee for Curry county met at Gold Beach last Wednesday with Miss Dorothy Newton, new home demonstration agent.

Plans were made to have a booth at the county fair. This booth will serve two purposes: one to "sell" extension by a display of some of the projects taken up by the seven units during the past year; and the other to sell jams, jellies, pickles and relishes, donated by unit members. The proceeds will go toward Azalea House building fund.

Azalea House is to be a co-operative house to be built on Oregon State College campus. Money for the building is being raised by home extension units throughout the state.

All those wishing to donate to this sale at the fair are asked to bring their donations to the home of Mrs. Grace Yelton, on or before Sept. 1.
