"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 16.

The Golden Text is "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation." (2 Cor. 5:18).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "They that are in the flesh cannot please God" (Rom. 8:8), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All nature teaches God's love to man, but man cannot love God supremely and set his whole affections on spiritual things, while loving the material or trusting in it more than in the spiritual" (page 326).

Gold Beach P.-T. A. Honors Teachers

GOLD BEACH—Gold Beach P.-T. A. held its annual reception in honor of the teachers of grade and high school, Monday evening at the high school with record attendance.

Mrs. Ellen Clausen, president, opened the meeting and after flag salute, Rev. Johnson led the meeting in a short prayer. Wayne Thomas, boy scout executive, of Port Orford, gave a talk during the business meeting on the duties and responsibilities of P.-T. A. in sponsoring a Cub pack, for which they have agreed to act as sponsor.

A number of parents are anxious to start this program and Adrian Schroeder and Mrs. Ralph Kessler were appointed as a committee to obtain men interested in representing the P.-T. A. at scout executive meetings and organize the pack.

Mrs. Clausen also asked any mothers interested in a singing group to get in touch with her. The music chairman of the State P.-T. A., Mrs. Lloyd Morris, of Brookings, is especially interested in seeing music stressed in all the P.-T. A. programs. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baxter were appointed co-chairmen of the committee for planning for the P.-T. A. follies.

The November meeting will be a pot luck dinner and the room mothers for the fifth and sixth grades will have charge.

Mrs. Hazel Stansell's room won the room count by having the largest number of parents and friends present. The teachers were presented by Mrs. Georgia Fromm each receiving a lovely corsage made by Mrs. Oda Sabin. As each was introduced, Mrs. Fromm gave a short resume of the education and teaching history, with many complimentary comments on their ability and affectionate place in the hearts of the community. She told how fortunate people in Gold Beach are to have such a fine teaching staff. Mrs. Gladys Schueffler and Mrs. Hazel Leith, accompanied by Mrs. Vesper Bailor, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Mrs. Nell Sands gave one of her inimitable readings of Kipling's "Just So Stories." The hostesses were Mrs. Adrian Schroeder, Mrs. Caroline Oliphant, and Mrs. Betty Thomas. Refreshments were served after the program and Mrs. LeRoy played selections on the piano.

Gold Beach Notes

Having trouble getting a telephone or other complaints along that line? Just drop a line to city recorder B. I. Mather, who is gathering data for the council consideration. "There seems to be no question about the local service which is much better than could be expected from equipment available," said Mather.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Howard of Portland spent several days with Mr. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard at their summer place on the Rogue. They went fishing Sunday in the rain and James' mother was the only one catching a fish, as she landed a 24-lb. chinook. They left Monday for Medford where James has a 2-months construction job with the telephone company.

The state police arrested Wm. Baker and Calvin Couch in Gold Beach Oct. 5. The pair had held up a taxi driver and robbed him at Arcata, Calif., taking the taxi to Brookings where it was abandoned. They took the stage to Gold Beach and were at the Breakers Hotel when arrested. They waived extradition and were turned over to California authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Woods of Alhamba, Calif., brother of Paul Woods, and their mother, Mrs. R. M. Newport, of Kernville, Calif., are spending two weeks visiting at Roguewoods. They will go on to Portland to visit friends. This is the first visit to Oregon for Paul's brother and he rather likes the rain for a change.

D. O. Scott and Tom Reny are installing a water system at the L. M. Rowe home, located north of Mack Arch at Pistol River. A tower, holding a 1200-gallon tank was constructed also. A concrete reservoir for holding additional water of 2500-gallon capacity was built in a ravine, fed by springs. This is pumped into the tower. With this water supply the garden and lawns will have plenty of moisture during the dry summer months.

Ralph Wallace of Harbor, who was charged with possession of illegal game, requested a jury trial. This was held Tuesday afternoon in Judge Paul Connet's justice court. "Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury.

Gold Beach Mineral Society held an interesting meeting Monday evening with Bill Wells presiding. The society plans a field trip up Seven Devils above Bandon, Sunday, Nov. 13.
