"Cavalcade of Harmony" Will Come, Saturday

Prizes Offered At Hallowe'en Event, In Town, Mon. Eve

In its first attempt to sponsor events of the area, the All-Year Events Association, Monday, will inaugurate a Hallowe'en party, awarding prizes for the best costumes, from the little "tykes" to grandpas and grandmas. This attempt is under direction of the Parent-Teachers Association, and will commence at 7 p. m. Monday.

Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement, giving list of prizes offered for the best costumes. The parade will follow, going through town and up to the school grounds where a bonfire will be the center of attraction. Free cider and doughnuts will be available.

A headless horseman will head the parade, according to the announcement coming to the Pilot.

According to Gordon Goetz, the association president, this event should be given the support of everyone in the community. Upon its success depends much, for in the coming year, this community can do much to advertise itself through a little co-operation, he emphasized.

Leaders Meet With National Girl Scout Executive, Thurs.

Nine Girl Scout leaders and members of the committee attended a meeting at Crescent City last Thursday evening to hear Miss McCaustland, national officer from Palo Alto, who visited there.

Those connected with the Scout work here were glad to have this opportunity to discuss problems first hand with an authority, and to receive her suggestions.

Going from Brookings were: Mrs. Warren Smith, committee chairman; Mrs. Lynn Hampton, Mrs. Harriett Stephenson, Mrs. E. B. Mathews, Mrs. Roy Briram, Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. Jeri Farnari, Mrs. Crump and daughter, Janet, and Mrs. Dewey Akers.

SPECIAL EDITION DUE IN DECEMBER FOR COOS-CURRY ELECTRIC CO-OP

Vern Ayers, once on the editorial desk of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and prominent coast publicity director for several affairs, has started work on a special edition for Coos-Curry Electric Co-operative, to be published early in December. The edition will be printed at the Pilot office, with copy already coming in.

Coos-Curry Electric Co-operative, one of 17 in the state of Oregon, has grown by leaps and bounds in the past decade, since its founding. The occasion warrants a special treatment in way of a special edition, thus the effort to publish this epistle.

Noted 'Hrouse Bros.' Quartet Coming

The House Bros., pictured here, and consisting of Dan House, tenor; Tom House, lead; Bill House, baritone, and Dave House, bass; will favor charter night festivities here Saturday. This quartet is acknowledged as one of the finest in the west and was winner of the F. O. E. lodge national quartet contest.

Nora E. Jones, 72, Grange Honored Dies At Gold Beach Newlyweds, Friday

GOLD BEACH—Miss Nora Elizabeth Jones, 72, died at her home here, Sunday. She had been in failing health for years and last summer fell and broke her hip which kept her bedfast since.

She was born in Missouri on June 19, 1877. She served as secretary in Washington, D. C. and when she retired, moved to Gold Beach where she has been living with her brother, Harry Jones, for the past 15 years.

She was a member of the Eastern Star and Episcopal church. Funeral services were held at the Episcopal church, at 2:30 Wednesday with the Rev. Levers officiating. Interment was in the Gold Beach cemetery.

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kruger who recently purchased the Becker building in Brookings, have leased their large ranch, north of town to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blunt. The transaction was handled by the Leonard Real Estate agency.

The members of Chetco Grange honored two of their members, Will and Mary Tolman, who recently were married, by holding a pot luck dinner before the Grange meeting, and having a social hour afterwards. A present from the Grange was presented by A. C. Thompson. Colored slides of the Lily Blossom parade and the coast line north of Brookings were shown by Ben Jones.

Visitors for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Bates of Talent Grange, former Harbor residents, Mrs. William Burrell of Westmost Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Hyland of Willakenzie Grange.

Election of officers will be held at the first meeting in November.

Tiny Greenhouses

Tiny greenhouses that enable the gardener to set out plants much earlier in the spring can be made by cutting the bottoms off glass jars. Jug stoppers should be removed to allow circulation of air around the plants.

New Outlet Guard

A new electric outlet plug is on the market or soon will be, which will prevent curious children from shocks as result of poking wires into the outlets. The new outlet is not energized until both prongs of a plug are inserted. Insulated rollers in the socket complete the circuit when forced aside by the prongs.

Quartets and Choruses Will Sing At Pine Cone Theatre, Saturday Evening, At Charter Presentation Festivities

A treat, seldom seen anywhere and rarely heard, will be in store at 8:00 p. m. this Saturday, at Pine Cone Theatre, for those lucky enough to have tickets, when Brookings Chapter, No. 675, Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, will be welcomed into the national family of song lovers.

Pictured on this page is the House Bros. quartet of Klamath Falls, reputed to be one of the best in the west, and on page 12, where the Klamath Falls chorus is shown. This is but a sample of what is coming to this area for this event.

A partial list of other quartets participating are: "The Four-Tune-Four," "The Pick-up Four," "The What Four," "The Eagle Four," "The Oregon Coasters" and "The Lease Breakers."

These quartets, in addition to the Brookings chapter chorus of 24 voices and the Klamath Falls chapter chorus, under the personal direction of John Houston, will bring to Southern Curry a never-to-be-forgotten Cavalcade of Harmony.

Extra seats are being placed in the theatre to provide accommodations for those who were unable to obtain tickets since the limited number of seats made available to local theatre-goers were sold. Tickets for these seats are available at Grayshel's Coffee

"Mother Singers" Meet On Thursday

P.-T. A. "Mother Singers" are meeting Thursday, after school, instead of Tuesday as was first announced.

"About a dozen mothers were out last Thursday," said Mrs. Morris, who directs the group.

Any ladies of the community who are interested, are invited. The only requirement is that they must be P.-T. A. members.

Croft Lily Bulbs To Be Favors Saturday

In addition to the other courtesies to be extended visitors in Brookings, Saturday, to the charter presentation of Chapter 675, Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Singing in America, Croft lily bulbs will be given to each out-of-town visitor from inland or away from the lily-growing section.

Noted for its Croft lilies, members of the local unit want their visitors to remember the area in the right way. These bulbs are being presented in cellophane bags with a label attached, as memento of the area.

Barbershop means more than a haircut and shave.

Mill and it is hoped that those who were previously disappointed will be more fortunate this time.

Born, originally as a release from pressure of modern life, S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A. now does a man-size job in "Keeping America singing." It has grown to include 675 chapters, of which Brookings is the 675th, and to include over 30,000 members.

Without question it is one of most democratic organizations in the world today. The society has chapter throughout the United States and Canada, and even in Alaska, Hawaii and Guam.

Every week new chapters come into being. It has attained respect and affection by its musical contributions to worthwhile causes and events and through singing for those who need entertainment most.

Already the local group has endeared itself to the people of the area by its show at a recent Parent-Teachers Association meeting.

Association Will Hold Band Meet On Wed., Nov. 2

According to Gordon Goetz, president of All-Year Events Association, Monday, just a few interested persons turned out to the first band organization meeting. However, he stated, a list of musicians had been acquired and a personal letter would be written to each, inviting him out to the second meeting, set for Wednesday, Nov. 2, at the high school, with time set for 8 p. m.

Anyone who plays any band instrument, or anyone interested in learning to play, is invited to come out. Mr. Humphreys of Gold Beach, through W. B. Sibley, has expressed a willingness to aid the local band in getting started. He will, if the band is formed, arrange to meet once-a-week to give instruction.

Mr. Humphreys was once with Phillip Sousa's band, and has had considerable arranging experience in the past.
