Christian Science Society

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m. at the I. O. O. F. Hall. The public is invited.

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 13.

The Golden Text is "They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God" (Rom. 9:8).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God" (Rom. 8:16), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "CHILDREN. The spiritual thought an drepresentatives of Life, Truth, and Love" (p. 582).

Baptist Community

Rev. Nick N. Neufeld, Pastor
Jeanette Pierce, Sunday School Supt.

Mrs. Stanley Patterson, music director.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship at 11 a. m.
Evening service at 7:30 p. m.
Young people at 6:30 p. m.

Next Sunday, Nov. 13, is Mens and Mission Sunday. Special music will be given by a male quartet and also the laymen of the church will sing. The subject of Sunday morning message will be: "Why Have Missions?" The world is the mission field and we are the laborers, those who call themselves Christians. We all bear the responsibility of missions.

The young people are planning an interesting program. Each young person is to bring a question and then we will discuss them during the Young People's hour. Subject for Sunday night is based on the 6th chapter of Hebrews. The theme: "The Danger of Apostasy." The writer points out a few things of which we must be careful and heed the warning because these things are coming to pass in our churches of the world.

Seventh Day Adventist

Sabbath School—Saturday at 9:30 a. m.
Church Services—Saturday at 11:00 a. m.
Young People — Saturday at 3:45 p. m.
Prayer Meeting — Wednesday

at 7:45 p. m. in Harobr.

All Saturday services are being conducted at the Grange hall. Dr. Konzelman, optometrist of Crescent City, will be the guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service this coming Sabbath. He will present his concluding story on the Prophetic Gift in Modern Christendom.

Seventh Day Adventists all over the world are observing the week from Nov. 12 to 19 as their annual week of prayer. Theme of this coming week of prayer is Personal Righteousness as is demonstrated by the first study which will be given at the young people's hour next Saturday afternoon. The topic of that study will be "How Shall We Draw Near to God?"

The week night meetings will be held at the pastor's home in Harbor for the convenience of those in the Brookings and Harbor area and also at the Overman home on Chetco Heights for those living in that vicinity. The only break in this program during the week will be on Monday night when the usual Bible Training class will be conducted at the school on Easy Street.

Topics for the week night meetings of Week of Prayer will be:

Sunday — "Righteousness by Faith in Christ."

Tuesday—"The Life That I Now Live."

Wednesday: "The Unfinished Task".

Thursday—"Counting the Cost"

Friday—"A Faith Worth Sharing."

Saturday morning—"The Second Coming of Christ."
