

Girl Scout Notes

Brownie Scouts, under direction of Mrs. John Ginther, were busy before the holidays, earning funds for their troop activities by selling Christmas cards to their friends and neighbors. The cards were sold everywhere in the nation as an officially-approved means of making money to carry on scout work.

Each ten boxes ordered for sale earned a one-year subscription to "American Girl," official Girl Scout magazine. Eight subscriptions were ordered by the Brookings Troop, No. 3.

Four top sales were made by:
Sandra Simons.....13 boxes
Sharon Carr10 boxes
Anna Jean Gardner10 boxes
Lillian Fielder11 boxes

Others getting subscriptions are the next four highest in sales: Marjorie Darger, Jerrie Lee Cagley, Anna Lee Ettinger and Diane Ginther.

Other Brownies selling cards were Marilyn Brown, Judith Carter, Diane LaBrook, Arlene Bolen and Alice Smith.

Before Christmas each girl made leather articles during the troop meetings. Most of these were coin holders, some key cases and billfolds.

Mrs. Ginther will not be able to continue leadership of the Brownies after the first of the year. The committee is anxious to contact any and all adults interested in girls of Brownie age, 7 to 10 years. If you know of anyone who could give of her time for this worthwhile project, please give her name to the chairman, Mrs. Warren Smith, or any on the committee.

Scouts meet one hour a week in the afternoon. They have been meeting at the grade school, but now that the VFW building is ready for use, that place is also available. The VFW Auxiliary is sponsoring organization for the Girl Scouts in the area. If some one could not take leadership, perhaps she or he could assist or even give some help on special projects. To date few have expressed an interest in this age group, but none have signed on the dotted line.

Gold Beach Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCadden of Powers are visiting at the homes of their daughters, Mrs. Ray Keen and Mrs. George Christian.
