NANCY MOORE, Correspondent (Held up by Christmas mails)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore received word from their daughter, Mrs. O. E. Baker, of Medford, that they are now grandparents. The baby was born on Tuesday, Dec. 13, and was named Patrick Nolan.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strain and two sons, Leland and Jerry, moved to Campenterville where Mr. Strain is employed as a truck driver.

Novel invitations, announcing "There's a new Storm coming," summoned friends of Mrs. Chas. Storm to a stork shower, given at the home of Mrs. Everett Strain, Friday eve., Dec. 16. The gifts were placed under a decorated Christmas tree. Clever games were planned by the hostess. These included a treasure hunt, won by Mrs. W. C. Boice, and a scrambled word game, won by Mrs. C. C. Doane. The gifts were then opened by the honored guest, who received many dainty and useful things. Refreshments, consisting of salad and a cake decorated with pink and blue booties, were then enjoyed. Those present, besides the honored guest and the hostess, were Mesdames Frank Strain, William Storm, Lute Henry, W. C. Boice, C. C. Doane, Wilbur Sypher, Paul Smith and Ted Bierman. Several gifts were received from invited guests who could not come due to unfavorable weather.

Kenneth Thompson put a new aluminum roof on Jake White's house last week.

Mrs. Floyd Hale and new son, Terry Lee, were discharged from the Keiser hospital at Coos Bay, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robison, of Denmark, returned home Dec. 16 from a three-months trip to Eastern Oregon and eastern Washington. While in eastern Oregon, Mr. Robison shot an elk. He later went moose hunting in British Columbia, with no luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Alger, after visiting in this area for several weeks, returned to their home at Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shields of Gold Beach were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Sunday afternoon.

SCHOOL NOTES—

A large crowd enjoyed the pre-Christmas dance given by the student body Saturday night. The gym was decorated with a huge Christmas tree in the center of the floor, with two small ones on either side of the stage. The Langlois Panthers lost to Powers at Powers, 38 to 24.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. R. C. Baughn told the Pilot Sunday that her Christmas cheer was complete, when Mr. Baughn, who had been in a Portland hospital, was able to return home. Other visitors at the home at the same time were her sister from Grants Pass and a friend, both home demonstration agents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Titus, former residents of Harbor, but recently of Otter Rock, near Newport, have sold their property there and have moved to Brookings. Temporarily they are residing in the Chetco Inn until they can gain possession of their former Harbor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gilmore of Eureka, spent a few hours last Saturday with his father, Dave Sr., before going to Smith River to spend Christmas with friends. Dave Jr. is working for a construction company at Eureka at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yokum had as guests for Christmas, their son-in-law and daughter, of near Grants Pass, and their grandson and granddaughter, thus a complete family re-union for the occasion.

Christmas guests at the Henry Kerr home included two young ladies, students at a missionary school, whom the Kerrs are financing the education. One of them was from New Jersey and the other from Jamaica.

Vernon Goldizen, student at University of New Mexico, who had visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Goldizen, over the holidays, leaves Friday for Albuquerque, N. M., to resume studies at that school. He was accompanied here by his sister, Betti, who will enter junior college in California this quarter.

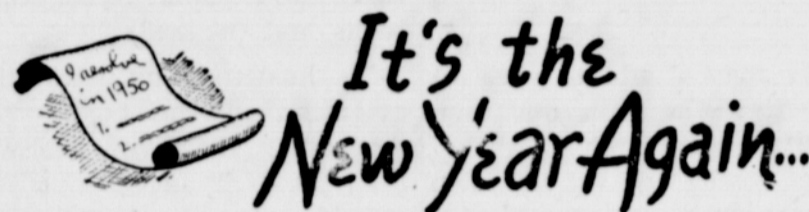

Mrs. Martha Steen is visiting her son and daughter-in-law at Palo Alto, Calif. during the holidays. The duties of the bus depot are being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Howsley, former agents of the local depot.

Crowd Swells Coffers of Volunteer Firemen, Mon.

At the Volunteer Firemen's annual dance, Monday evening, at the Grange hall, an enormous crowd swelled the coffers of that group to almost $200, it was announced Tuesday.

This dance is staged annually to raise funds for the Christmas tree festivities each year, and to buy much-needed equipment for the firemen.
