

SMITH RIVER

The following were elected officers of Pomona Grange, at a recent special meeting held at Lake Earl Grange hall:

- Master—Leo Kloske (re-elect)
- Overseer—Tom Ewing.
- Lecturer—Florence Ewing.
- Steward—E. Lewman.
- Chaplain—Marie Robson.
- Treasurer—Minnie Kloske.
- Secretary—Elizabeth Tomlinson.

- Gate Keeper—Felix Molino.
- Asst. Steward—Tom Jacobs.
- Ceres—Millie Barker.
- Pomona—Maude Pidgeon.
- Flora—Ellen Higgins.
- Asst. Lady Steward—Frankie Lewman.

Executive Committee: Edward Baxter.

Pianist—Sadie Maut.

These, with officers of the three subordinate Granges of county were installed at a special meeting held at Crescent Redwood Grange, Monday, Dec. 19. Installing officer was state Grange deputy, George Laumann. He was accompanied by state home economics club chairman, Mrs. Mabel Glenn, and state juvenile superintendent, Mrs. Lydia Joiner. Following installation, Dep. Lawmann gave an interesting talk to Grangers, pertaining to the Grange work for the coming year. A pot luck supper was served at the banquet room after the ceremonies.

The home of Mrs. Palmer Westbrook was the scene of a jolly Childrens party, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18, in honor of her daughter, Julie, who celebrated her seventh birthday. The little guests enjoyed a lively time at games. Refreshments, including a birthday cake, aglow with seven candles. Guests present were Kay, Joan and Jane Westbrook, Susan and Mary Lou Engdahl, Barbara and Judie Samuelson, Frances and Marie Bettencourt, Pamela Barnum, Doris Wells, Jan. Hight, Diane Frossini, Sharon Clemens, Jennie Westbrook and Julie.

Many homes in the valley entered into the Christmas holiday spirit with family re-unions and gift exchanges, followed by dinners. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ulrich were his sister, Mrs. Cecelia Chapman of San Anselmo and Miss Ethel Murray of Contra Costa Co.; others were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich and son, Carl and Jackie. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hight had as guests their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Hight and children, Miss Myrtle Hight and Fred Hight.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis and three children of Eureka were guests at the home of Mrs. Davis' father, and brother, Hilmer Nilsen and Andrew.

The annual New Years ball, sponsored by the Community club will be held Saturday night at the community hall. This affair is looked forward to each year, where many come to dance the old year out and welcome the new year. Supper will be served at the hall by the ladies auxiliary.

Mrs. Fred Wheatley has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hight, following her release from the Seaside hospital where she will be joined by Mr. Wheatley who will come from North Bend to spend the holidays. They will leave their little daughter, Rebecca Louise, Born Dec. 14, at the hospital a few days longer.

Not By Bread Alone

"And he spoke a parable to them to this end: That men ought always to pray and not lose heart. Luke 18:1.

"I say unto thee: Love your enemies, do good to them who hate you and pray for them who spitefully use you and persecute you." Matt. 5:44.

"Lord, teach us to pray."—Luke 11:1.

"Be anxious for nothing: but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." Phil. 4:6.

"Confess your faults one to another, and pray for one another that ye may be healed (in body). The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16.

God assures us that if we pray as we should we will enjoy more the things we have in this life; and will have more to enjoy in the life to come.—Jos. M. Johnson, Gold Beach.

Local News Items

Mrs. Kathryn Sandstrom enjoyed Christmas with relatives at Forks of the Salmon, Calif.

Mrs. B. E. Kerns Sr. is spending the holidays in Klamath Co. with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barton and two children of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mrs. Barton's father, E. H. Reekman, of San Francisco, arrived early on Monday to spend three days here visiting relatives. Mr. Reekman remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. E. Jacqueline Wood, a schoolteacher at Loomis, Calif., is taking advantage of the holidays to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bobbie VanDolson, in Harbor.

Mrs. Stanley Patterson and her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Christensen, left by car, Monday for Paradise, Calif., to visit their mother.

Local News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Turley entertained a group, Tuesday evening at their Winchuck home in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Owen Turley of Berkeley, Calif. Pictures of "The Nativity of Christ," accompanied by a wire-recording made up part of the entertainment. Rev. and Mrs. Turley expect to leave Friday.

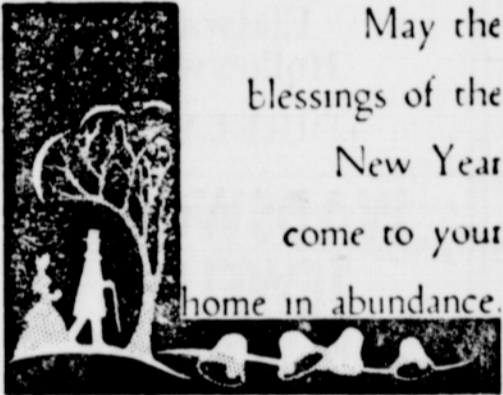

May the New Year bring you and yours the brightest treasure of your dreams.

MOORE'S VARIETY & APPAREL SHOP

C. O. LEONARD L. L. LEONARD

Brokers

Complete Real Estate Service
NOTARY PUBLIC
Box 411 South end of town
Brookings, Oregon

May the blessings of the New Year come to your home in abundance.

Sixteen acres in a secluded region within walking distance of town and snug 3-rm. cottage, and garage. Marvelous view. Over-abundant supply of water from a huge spring. Very reasonably priced. Many wonderful building sites. It costs nothing to look!

For $5,000 you can obtain five acres with unfinished house in fine location. Berries, bulbs, and fine well. A bargain.

We have excellent buys on home-sites no a hill or on the ocean, ranging from small lots to several acres. Look over all of them before choosing.

Don't forget to look over our listings on completely new houses before you go to the trouble of building one yourself. We do have some lovely ones.

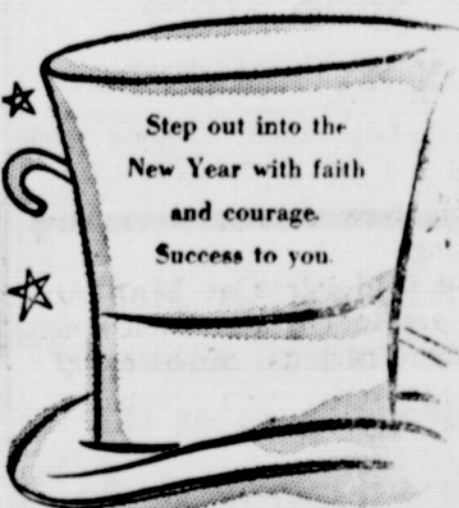

In the past few weeks a number of pieces of property have changed hands through our office. Therefore some types of listings have been cancelled and marked sold on our records. We have a list of persons looking for properties in our community, so regardless of how small or how large your lots, acreage, or the houses, come in and list with us. We'll do our best for you.

We Work With SPEED to Fill Your NEED!.....

Cur-Del Cleaners

for 1950~

Happy Days

The New Year rising from the ashes of the old, is a time for true rejoicing. Happy 1950 to you

CURRY COUNTY LUMBER CO.

HERE'S HOPING YOUR NEW YEAR HOLDS REAL JOY AS EACH NEW HOUR UNFOLDS

Pete J. Lesmeister Agency