

With The Churches

Christian Science Society

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m. at the I. O. O. F. Hall. The public is invited.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all the Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 8.

The Golden Text is "The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord. . . Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established" (Prov. 16:1-3).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus said unto him, . . . There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or parents, for the kingdom of God's sake, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting" (Luke 18:19, 29, 30), together with the following correlative passage in the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spiritual devoutness is the soul of Christianity" (p. 140).

Episcopal Church

Sunday morning service at 1 a. m. All are welcome.

Smith River Methodist

Sunday School at 10 a. m. Mrs. Grace VanZee, supt.

Morning Worship at 11 a. m. Rev. E. C. Hicks will deliver the sermon.

Star of the Sea Catholic Church

Rev. Fr. Donald Denman
First Sunday of month at 12 noon.

All other Sundays at 8 a. m.

Seventh Day Adventist

Sabbath School—Saturday at 9:30 a. m.

Church Services—Saturday at 11:00 a. m.

Young People — Saturday at 3:45 p. m.

Prayer Meeting — Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. in Harbor.

All Saturday services are being held at the Grange Hall in Harbor. The morning service this Sabbath will be conducted by the pastor.

Saturday afternoon the Young People's hour, J. H. Apigian, district pastor of the Grants Pass district of Seventh-Day Adventists will tell of his thrilling experience among the Arabs and in Turkey at the time of the persecution of Christians. He also will speak at the 7:30 Saturday night meeting at the Grange hall.

Prayer meetings are continuing on Wednesday nights at the pastor's home in Harbor and on Thursday nights at the Overman home in the Chetco Heights area. Current studies are on the "Patriarch and Prophets."

Baptist Community

Rev. Nick N. Neufeld, Pastor
Jeanette Pierce, Sunday school Supt.

Mrs. Stanley Patterson, music director.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship at 11 a. m.

Evening service at 7:30 p. m.

We are sure that many of you have made New Years resolutions. One that I hope you have made is: first, to take your children to some religious instruction on the Lord's Day, and that you, as a parent, will be found in your respective place of worship on the Lord's day.

The pastor will speak on a most important subject Sunday morning, Jan. 8: "One Gospel." This is only one gospel. What is that Gospel? The basis for the message will be the first chapter of St. Paul's letter to the Galatians.

The evening service will be a time of singing of old-time hymns of the church and a brief message by the pastor.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the parsonage next Wednesday, Jan. 11.

Along Azalea Row

Bring laughter with you, ladies, to the next meeting of the Azalea Garden Club, on Thursday, Jan. 12, for Mrs. Chester Maris is our speaker. To a thorough knowledge of her subject, she adds practical application and spices well with wit and sparkle. I always settle back in my chair when Mabel Maris speaks, anticipating an instructive and enjoyable half hour.

Mrs. Eunice Wollam, horticulture chairman, will give a timely talk on the latest insecticides, and our guest speaker for the day will discuss African violets, a house-plant which is very popular. There is a fine book on African violets in the Chetco Community library which you may wish to read after hearing our speaker.

This meeting is the club birthday party as well, and honors all charter members. Hostesses for the day will be announced later, Mrs. Harbin has something special planned for us.

What is a "tussy mussy" for goodness sake? Such a name — "tussy mussies"—rather quaint and old-fashioned! Mrs. Martha Grayshel, flower practice chairman, will tell us all about them, so come early and learn.

A post card will bring the garden catalog to your door. Nowhere will you get more for a penny. January is the month for garden planning, but don't forget to feed our feathered friends. Some birds are especially fond of pie, crust crumbs, and the birds here at Weedy Acres like corn meal moistened slightly. The snowstorm was beautiful, but so hard on birds. — B. Miller.

Brookings Schools

Brookings Bruins resume their athletic schedule after the holidays by playing Reedsport on the local floor, Friday evening at 8 p. m. Reedsport is one of the stronger of the smaller high schools on the coast, and the game promises to be interesting to local fans. Coach Guthrie is promising that the Bruins won't get "took" quite as bad on the home floor as they did at Reedsport.

Next Tuesday, Jan. 10, the Bruins play Langlois on the local floor.

Local News Items

Curry County Indian Heir Association will meet at the Chetco Grange this Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The first of the week it was announced that the court of claims had allowed the four coast tribes, the Tillamooks, Coquilles, Too-too-toneys and the Chetco' claims, setting a price of $1.20 an acre on the lands taken from the Indians in 1855, with interests at 5% and 4% on the amount allowed. This information was heard on a broadcast Tuesday evening, and fuller details will appear in the daily papers this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne and Mrs. Kathryn Reekman attended Pomona Grange meeting at Sixes, New Years day.
