

Services Held For Mrs. Josie Struble

Funeral services for Mrs. Josie Struble were held at Baptist Community church, Friday afternoon with Rev. Nick Neufeld officiating. Interment was at Smith River Cemetery.

Daughter of Sylvester and Mary Garvin, Mrs. Struble was born, Jan. 16, 1885 in Nebraska. She was married to Benton Struble at Boulder, Colo., in 1904. The family came to this area in 1913, where she kept house for Mr. and Mrs. Brookings at the old Ferry ranch, now the Leslie Miller place. After being gone for several years, she returned to Harbor about four years ago to make her home.

Surviving are: a sister, Mrs. Label Cummings, Portland, a brother, Doyle Garvin of Smith River.

OPHIR NEWS

By Marian Miller

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brewer, Jan. 31, at the Seaside Hospital, Crescent City. Mrs. Brewer is the former Doris Bothwell.

Among those shopping at Coquille last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Whittaker.

Dick Nash has returned after spending a few days at Eugene.

Mrs. Mary Pugh, one of the high school faculty, is a grandmother now. Her daughter, Mrs. George Hamlin, gave birth to a daughter, Jan. 30, at Myrtle Creek hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Pugh drove to Corvallis Saturday to attend the Oregon State-Washington basketball game and to visit Satellite chapter, 165, O. E. S. met Tuesday evening. All O. E. S. members are reminded that the first and third Tuesday of each month.

C. O. LEONARD L. L. LEONARD Brokers

Complete Real Estate Service
NOTARY PUBLIC
Box 211 South end of town
Brookings, Oregon

Hundreds have remarked: "Oh how I would love to own that fine white house on the hill!" That's the one just north of Brookings with as fine a view as can be had—this home is the best of construction with lights and city water—five acres of beautiful natural flowering rhododendrons and azaleas. 300 ft. on Hwy 101. Come in and we will gladly tell you about price whether cash or good terms.

38½ acres of excellent deep soil nearly all cultivated, orchard, house, barns, creek, springs, garage, chicken house, and feed house. House is papered inside, with modern bath room. Taxes only $44 per year. Total price $6300. Wonderful view property on Hwy 101, approximately six miles north of Brookings.

We Work With SPEED to Fill Your NEED!

their son, Richard, attending Oregon State. They went by way of Myrtle Creek to get a glimpse of the new granddaughter.

The Ophir volleyball team accomplished the impossible last Wednesday night, Feb. 1, when they defeated the Brookings girls by a close score of 27 to 25. This is the first defeat handed Brookings girls in more than three years. The boys weren't quite as lucky for they lost their basketball game to Brookings.

Ophir high school student body and teachers surprised Mr. Whitaker, one of the teachers, last Thursday afternoon with a party in honor of his birthday. Ice cream, cookies and coke were enjoyed.

Sig Nowlin and Tom Morgan went to Eugene last week on a business trip.

Ophir high basketball and volleyball teams went to Port Orford last Friday and won both games. The girls won 41 to 6, while the boys came out victors by a 33 to 19 score.

Ophir Womens club met at the home of Jackie Taylor Thursday afternoon, Feb. 2.

Ophir independent basketball squad went to Coquille Thursday to win their game.

Jack Stein has purchased a 34 Willys coupe from Cliff Simons.

D. W. Miller made a business trip to Coos county last Friday.

Saturday evening, Feb. 11, the student body is giving its annual St. Valentine Day dance. Chas. Jensen's orchestra will play. All are invited.

Too late for last week

D. W. Miller was a Langlois visitor over the week-end.

Kenny Perry of Myrtle Point was visiting in this area last week. Travis Miller and Dick Nash accompanied him home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mecca and daughter have returned from Manteca, Calif., to their home here. Mrs. Mecca is the former Bonnie Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jackson and children of Coquille and Mr. and Mrs. Clea Sherman and children of Tillamook are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moore of McKenzie Bridge are visiting friends and relatives here.

LANGLOIS NOTES

NANCY MOORE, Correspondent

Next regular business meeting of Sixes Grange will be held Friday, Feb. 10. The meeting night was changed to Friday for this one meeting so that Port Orford school band benefit dance could be given on a Saturday night, Feb. 11.

The youth dance for this month will be held Saturday, Feb. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Berger and Darrell have moved into the Snell house, located on the Flora Lake Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strain and sons, Leland and Jerry, returned to Langlois from Carpenterville, where they were employed for a few weeks. They are now occupying their home, which had been rented to the Clayton Robbins family during the Strains' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kane moved the stock of their apparel store to their new location at Gold Beach, Sunday, Feb. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Haga and small son have moved to California to make their home.

After being delayed several times by bad weather, Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Bates have now moved to Gold Beach. They returned to Langlois Sunday to conduct services at the Community church.

Mrs. Dorothy Brown and three children are now occupying their new home which they recently purchased from the Bates.

Although the stork is hovering over several homes in the Langlois area, the population remains the same.

Langlois Sportsmens club will hold its next meeting Feb. 14. The new officers will assume their duties at this meeting.

Myrtle Point Active club was victors over the Langlois town team in a basketball game played Feb. 2 at Langlois. The final score was 43 to 32. Feb. 6 the town team plays the Ophir team at Ophir. Langlois will play the Coquille Active Club at Coquille Feb. 9.

The Floras-Willow Women's club will meet at Mrs. Carrie Boice's home on Thursday, Feb. 9. It will be an all-day meeting with pot-luck lunch at noon. All members are urged to attend because the election has already been twice postponed due to the small attendance.

Langlois Home Extension unit met at Mrs. Elsie Quinn's last Thursday. Dorothy Newton, the home demonstration agent, presented the topic: "Kitchen Storage." Information was given on the proper placing of basic kitchen equipment and how to store utensils and food conveniently. Following the meeting refreshments consisting of tuna salad, wafers, and coffee were served by Mrs. Quinn. The next meeting will be held at the high school gym when the members will be taught the use of "basic tools" by leaders, Helen Fain and Frances Autrey. It will be an all-day meeting with sack lunch at noon.

In preparation for the Slipper Chair workshop, which will be held in March, there will be a meeting at Sixes Grange. Members of the Langlois, Sixes and Port Orford units are asked to meet there at 1:30 p. m., Feb. 8, for instructions.

SCHOOL NOTES

Friday, Feb. 3, the basketball team lost to Gold Beach by a 50 to 37 score. The score was even all through the first half, and into the third quarter, but then Langlois members began to foul out. By the end of the game only two of the first team were still on the floor. The Langlois volleyball team also lost to the visitors, 30 to 21.

Langlois A team was victors over the Bandon A team when they met, Jan. 31, by a 61 to 35 score. The Langlois B team lost by a 20 to 10 score.

The student body has chosen a three-act play to be given in March. Try-outs for the play, "Million Dollar Cook," will be held when the play books arrive.

Port Orford News

By Dorothy Asdel

District 1C announces that the annual budget meeting will be held at the high school, Monday, Feb. 13, at 8 p. m. Taxpayers interested in seeing how the year's expenditures for schools are formulated and drawn up are welcome to attend. Members of the budget committee, recently appointed by the school board, are Clarence Zumwalt, Sixes, 3-year term; Steve Spoerl, Port Orford, 2-year term and Don White of Port Orford, 1-year term.

Many interesting pointers on kitchen arrangement were given at the home extension meeting held last Friday in the multipurpose room of grade school. It was announced that a special lampshade workshop will be held at the home of Mrs. Josie Forty at 1 p. m. Feb. 17, for those who missed the meeting in November. Those who don't have paper and rings for lampshades may obtain them from Dorothy Newton, HDA, Gold Beach.

Evelyn MacDonald and Echol Nutt volunteered as the project leaders for the Slipper Chair workshop. They received preliminary instructions at Sixes on Feb. 8. Their training will be March 6 and 7 at Gold Beach and the workshop will be March 16 and 17, here, with the place to be announced.

Basic tools is the subject of the next regular meeting, March 3, at 10:30 a. m. in the Parish hall of the Episcopal church. All attending should plan to bring a sack lunch, hammer, saw and one piece of plywood, ½x5x24 inches.

Agate Beach has been purchased from Paul Taylor of Los Angeles, owner, by the E. W. Edstroms, formerly of Long Beach, Calif. The property includes the agate beach houses and cabins and 42 surrounding acres. Mr. Edstrom, formerly a shipbuilder, plans to make a modern trailer park there and to modernize the present cabins on which work has already begun. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Spencer, who managed the property before, will stay on at their home for the present.

Don and Vera White entertained a group at a Canasta party last Friday night, including Pete and Evelyn Raasina, Lyle and Elaine Cross and Ernie and Margot Philo.

The Allan Logan family moved from their small house in the Hamlet into the larger Hanson house in town last week. Cookie McCloud, their son-in-law from Four-Mile, helped them.

Mrs. Bea Cooley is entertaining the Sunset Garden Club at her home Friday afternoon.

Modern Chief Say:

Douse-em Smoke Signals!

Long Distance

Telephone Service:

FASTER!

BETTER!

COST LESS.

West Coast

TELEPHONE COMPANY

We are happy to announce that we have a delivery service from this date, and within a reasonable radius of this store.

We also would like to tell you folks, of a special price on Hay that will be available next week. Come in and inquire.

We are able to furnish several types of fertilizers. If you will drop in and talk it over with us, concerning needs. We have bulb boxes, too. COME IN for your feed needs, where prices are right and service is a pleasure!

BROOKINGS FEED & SEED