

Band Will Benefit From Dance Funds

PORT ORFORD—In order to help raise money for some of the larger instruments which individual members of the school band cannot afford to own, a benefit dance will be given Feb. 25, in the high school gym.

Charlie Jensen's orchestra will furnish the music, Jensen donating his own services. Lunch will be served during the evening and other entertainment is scheduled. Tickets will be sold in advance.

Now consisting of 45 members the band is a new innovation in this school district. With the full approval of the school board it was formed in October last year, with Mr. Jensen directing. Many beginning instrumentalists are members, pupils from the fifth through the 12th grades.

The band gave its first public performance at the Community program, playing three numbers and now is planning for a music week program.

That the new band has made such rapid progress, it is felt, is due in a large measure to Jensen's ability in organizing and directing, as well as his patience and gentleness with the youngsters.

LANGLOIS NOTES

NANCY MOORE, Correspondent

Sixes Grange held its regular business meeting, Saturday. It was followed by a program and pot luck refreshments. Youth Dance will be held Saturday, Feb. 18, at the hall.

Mrs. Ruth Murphy, teacher in the grade school, spent several days at Portland last week. Mrs. Jean Strain substituted for her. Ronnie Brooks, who has been ill with rheumatic fever, is now showing some improvement.

Floras-Willow Women's club met Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Carrie Boice. Mrs. Ollie Burgess was re-elected president. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. It was decided that hereafter the meetings would be held in the afternoon, with exception of quarterly all-day meetings and dinners to celebrate the birthdays of members.

The Floras-Willows club is sponsoring its annual talent hour on Feb. 24 at 8 p. m. at the high school gym. There will be two divisions: adults and children. Cash prizes will be given in both divisions in the following manner: Adults—first, $10; second, $5; third $3. Children: first, $5; second $3; third, $1. If you wish to enter the contest, contact Kenneth Thompson, Langlois. Admission to the program will be 50c for adults and 25c for children.

Mr. and Mrs. Alger and grandson of Lakeview are spending several months at their home in Langlois.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hale and sons, Roddy and Terry, have returned to their home here after a stay of several weeks near Florence. Mr. Hale is employed at Langlois Cheese factory.

Fred, "Buster," Boice is reported to be ill at his home.

Mrs. Helen Fain, Mrs. Nana Moore, Mrs. Pauline Anderson, and Mrs. Frances Autrey, Langlois extension unit members, attended a meeting at the Sixes Grange hall, Feb. 8, where they received preliminary instructions for the Slipper Chair workshop, which will be held next month. This meeting was also attended by extension club members from Sixes and Port Orford. Instructions were given by Dorothy Newton, home demonstration agent. Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served by the Sixes unit.

Word has been received from Billie Lee Woodruff that she has begun her studies at Northwestern School of Commerce, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox returned Feb. 10, from Eugene, where Mr. Cox had gone for medical attention. Joan stayed with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim White, during her parents' absence.

Langlois town team won its basketball game against Riverton VFW team by one point on Feb. 7. Riverton lead until the close of the game. Final score was Langlois 55, Riverton 54. Lloyd Kruetzer was high-point man.

Langlois town team lost to the Coquille Active club at Coquille on Feb. 9, by a 42 to 39 score. Lloyd Kruetzer did some spectacular playing, making 13 points in the last half.

Scout Week Theme Of Dinner Meeting

PORT ORFORD—More than 40 scouts, cubs and parents enjoyed the Scout week dinner and program last Friday night in the multi-purpose room of the grade school.

Scoutmaster Wayne P. Thomas and committee chairman, Fred Steck, planned the pot luck dinner which was served by the mothers. Cub den mothers, Kathryn Rickman and Anne White, furnished and served coffee.

While the boys played games following dinner, the parents held a business meeting to elect a Cub master, and Cub scout committee. After considerable discussion of the duties involved, George Baker was elected Cub master with Ed Conley committee chairman. Monroe Pratt, Larry Rickman and Harold Ringheimer were appointed committee members.

Cubs, in costumes of Roundtable Knights, which they had fashioned by themselves, pledged their efforts anew to support the Scout Crusade for the coming year.

Remarkably authentic Indian costumes were worn by Richard Thomas, Clyde Olson, Billie and Lonny Grace and Larry Quikley as they did a war dance around the glowing embers of a make-believe camp fire, to the accompaniment of a tom-tom.

Because of the interest boys have shown in Indian lore, it was decided to take that subject for the Cubs for March, instead of photography as many of the parents felt that their boys were too young to be much interested in camera-craft.
