Charles Henson and brother, Robert LaBar of Dallas purchased Les Tythcott's Chevron station last week and are already operating it. Both men are veterans, LaBar having been in the navy and Henson in the Seabees.

LaBar, who is at present living with the Hensons at their recently built new home on the hill, plans to move his family here from Dallas into the Tythcott house as soon as the Tythcotts find a new location.

Henson has been logging locally for some time and LaBar has been mining in eastern Oregon the past year. He formerly had another service station in another locality. Both are enthusiastic about their new venture here.

Mrs. Don White and Margaret Philo are visiting at San Francisco for about two weeks, on a combination business and pleasure trip.

Several friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Bernie Laurence at a Stanley party at her home last Friday. Those bidden included Mesdames Joan Calais and daughter, Malter Cram, Carl Leonard, Douglas Johnson, Ed Malloy, Frances Price, Ty Rudebaugh and daughter, Robert Thomas and Manley Watson. Pineapple upside-down cake with whipped cream and coffee were served after the demonstration given by Mrs. Perrick of North Bend.

Mrs. Nick Marsh was hostess to more than 35 guests at a shower at her home for Mrs. Bonnie McKenzie last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson of San Francisco and Salem are visiting the Arris Knapps. The Wilsons are planning to settle in this area for the purpose of growing of blueberries. There has been much interest shown recently by many in this section who are planting blueberries on a commercial scale.

The P.-T. A. Penny Supper last week at the grade school was a great success, in spite of the fact that the speaker cancelled his appearance here at the last minute, giving no reason. Diners were served from 5:45 until 8 p. m. followed by the showing of the movie: "Don't be a Suck-

Budget Discussion

A very important meeting will be held at the Grange Hall, at Harbor, Oregon, on the 10th day of March, 1950, at 8 p. m. for the purpose of discussing the proposed 1950-51 budget for the School District No. 17.

It will be definitely shown at this meeting why your tax bill has grown so large and how it can be substantially reduced.

A movement now on foot which if carried through to its final conclusion, will in all probability, increase your present tax bill about 100 per cent. You cannot afford to allow this to come to pass. Now is the time to act. Speakers from outside the school district will be heard at this meeting.

All taxpayers in School Dist. No. 17 are urged to attend.

The Curry county rural school board have been invited to the meeting.

Congressmen Discuss Wheat Problem With Growers

Both Oregon senators, the house Oregon delegation and Rep. Clifford Hope of Kansts, met with representatives of the proposed National Wheat Growers Association, at a luncheon in Washington D. C., recently to discuss the problems facing the wheat industry. Left to right, Representative Norblad, Republican, Ore., I. H. Peterson, secretary to Sen. Morse, Rep. Harris Ellsworth, Ore., Sen. Guy Condon, Republican, Ore., Rep. Lowell Stockman, Republican, Ore., Lloyd Case, secretary, Colorado Grain Growers Association, Rep.

Homer D. Angell, Republican, Ore., R. H. Taylor of the Oregon Wheat Growers League, Sen. Wayne Morse, Republican, Ore., Ed Sell, administrator, Oregon Wheat Commission, Rep. Clifford R. Hope, Republican, Kans., and H. W. Clutter, Kansas wheat farmer.

was good. M. C. Miller as 'Dick Bustle,' fairly took the house by storm; his conception of the part being exceedingly good.

J. S. Radabaugh did well as 'Tom Chubbs;' Miss Nannie Ransome acquitted herself as 'Kate Ashton' in a becoming manner; as did Misses Anna and Fannie Lehnerr, each of whom displayed dramatic talent quite unusual in young ladies of so little experience.

The performance concluded with 'The Irish Linen Peddler,' E. T. Jennings personating 'Pat O'Doyle.' Miss Lizzie Harris did splendidly as 'Emma Darling,' receiving several bouquets at the conclusion of the last act. In the absence of A. B. Sabin of Port Orford, who was billed for character sketches, Mr. Dietz of Freedom, sang a German song, which was well received. The ball given at the conclusion of the entertainment was in every way satisfactory both to participants and management—Port Orford Post, Sept. 30, 1880.

Not By Bread Alone

"Christ loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their own wives. This is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and his Church." Eph. 5:25-33.

There may be few (very few, some will say) in that group; but it is clear that only those of the church will be presented. Truly saved people get into the church and get to work for others.—Joseph M. Johnson, Gold Beach.

In the report of the March of Dimes collection here last week, Mrs. V. A. Mendenhall Sr. reports she discovered an error, in failing to give Mrs. DeMoss' first grade room credit for having the largest contribution. Mrs. Dotson's room was second and Mrs. Carter's third.

Newspaper Of 1880 Tells Of Dance To Raise Funds For Myrtle Point 'Band'

The entertainment and ball, given at Myrtle Point for benefit of the brass band of that place, last Saturday evening, was a grand affair, being a complete success both financially and artistically. The hall was thrown open at seven o'clock, and filled to its utmost capacity almost immediately.

The band favored the audience with a few excellently rendered selections, when the curtain rose on the first act of the drama, "The Last Leaf," plot of which is unnecessary to give here inasmuch as the play-going public are familiar with its details. Considering that this was the first appearance of a majority of the troupe, they did exceedingly well—not a jar occurring during the entire performance. Capt. Graves, as 'Mark Ashton,' sustained his part with marked success, winning several well-deserved encores, and making a decided hit.

E. Bender's 'Caleb Hanson,' was a character well carried out. A. W. Border's portrayal of 'Harry Hanson,' though quiet, are moving from the living quarters behind the store into their own home on 12th street. Norman Morseing who owns the store will take over. At that time the store will be closed for alterations.

er." with Paul Lukas. Mrs. Evelyn Raasina, president, wishes to thank all of the P.-T. A. members without whose help the affair could not have succeeded.

Mrs. Irene Baker will entertain members of the Sunset Garden club at her home Friday, March 10. Further plans for the flower show to be held in May will be discussed.

The same day the Sixes-Elk Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lucille McKenzie, its president. Election of officers for the coming year will be the order of the day.

Haze Knapp reports that the trip her troupe took to the Roseburg hospital Saturday to entertain the veterans was a happy occasion and the entertainment was well received. Coos Bay Elks sponsored the group, paying expenses of the junket.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jamieson drove to Grants Pass to visit Mr. Jamieson's sister there over the week-end. Mrs. Jamieson, being postmaster, rarely has the opportunity to vacation and the trip was quite a treat for her.

The Marion Wilsons are terminating their lease at the Red & White store next week. They are moving from the living quarters behind the store into their own home on 12th street. Norman Morseing who owns the store will take over. At that time the store will be closed for alterations.

The R. A. Ransdell family of Seattle, has moved into the new home in the Hamlet. He recently took over the lease of the Sixes service station and has spent some of his time refurbishing the house while his family remained in the northern city to conclude their business affairs.

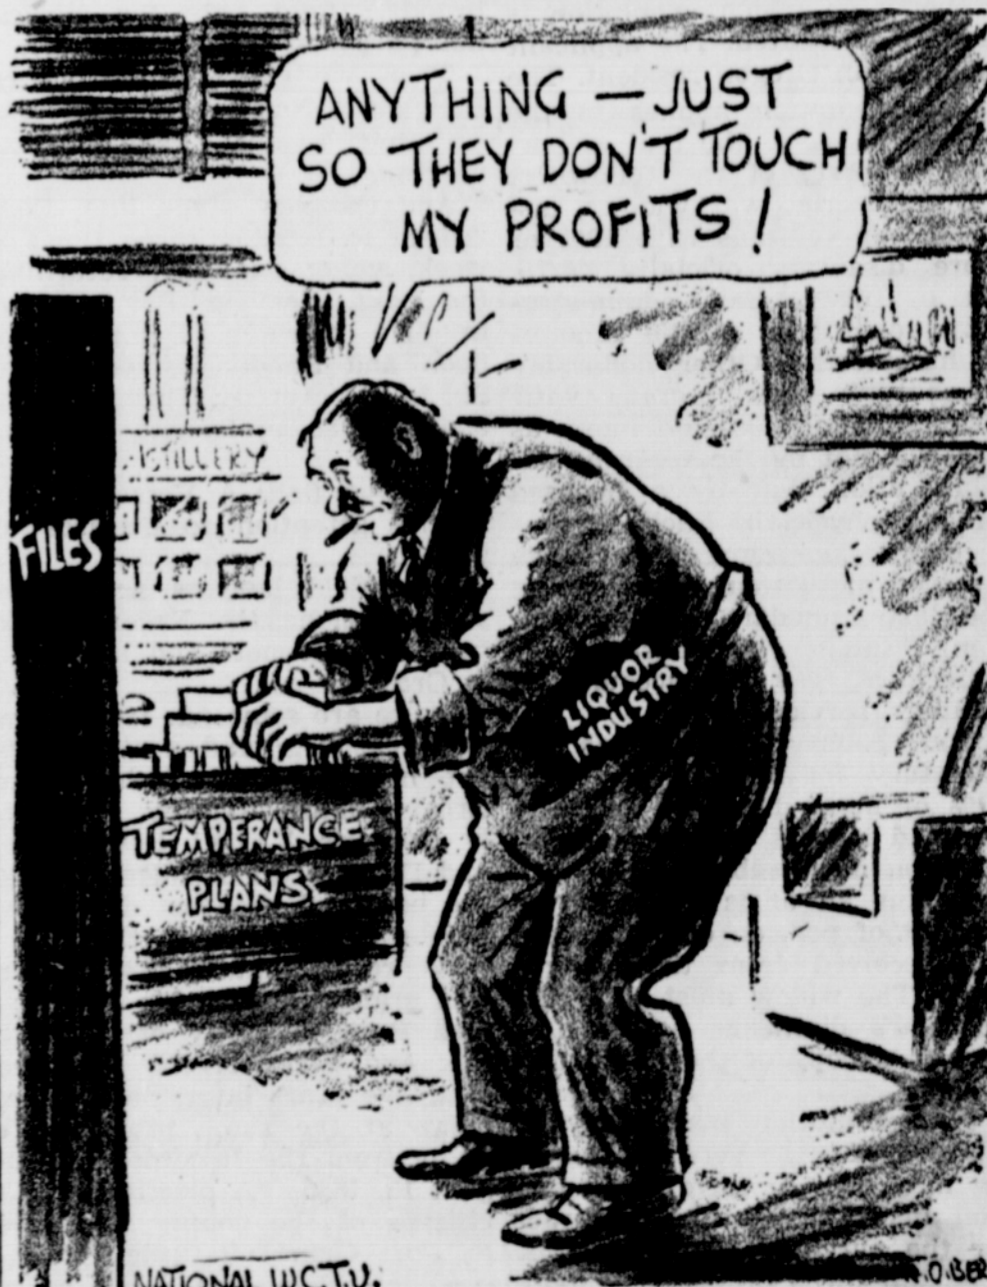

Helpful TELEPHONE HINTS on Spring Cleaning

1. When washing wood-work or mopping floors, be careful not to let the telephone cord get water-soaked.
2. Don't leave your telephone near an open window where careless closing or bad weather may cause damage.
3. Be sure your telephone is resting on a firm place where it cannot be knocked off.
4. When papering or cleaning, cover your telephone with a cloth.
