Mr. Deets has finished barber college at Portland. He will now be employed at Port Orford.

Mrs. Pauline Anderson and Mrs. Jean Strain spent March 6 and 7 at Gold Beach where they received training as project leaders for the slipper chair work shop. The training was given by Mrs. Myrtle Carter from the extension service, OSC. The Langlois home extension unit will hold its workshop at Mrs. Ada Campbell's March 14 and 15, beginning at 9:30 a. m. each day.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The dance, given by the senior class Saturday night at the gym was attended by a large crowd. The gym was decorated in the spring theme, with cedar boughs and a large quantity of daffodils. Charlie Jensen's orchestra provided the music.

Proofs of all the annual pictures have been received. After looking at them several times, the students have decided that they are quite good pictures, but the groaning at first sight of them was very loud.

SMITH RIVER

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Jack VanZee telling of the sudden death of little Ann Jeter, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jeter of Hornbrook, Calif., of cerebral hemorrhage, as result from a fall from her bicycle. She was hurt Saturday afternoon and was rushed to the hospital where she died Sunday evening. Funeral services were held at Hornbrook. Besides her parents, Ann leaves a sister, Sally and a brother, Billy and her grandparents.

The Jeters are former residents of Smith River, while Mr. Jeter was with the quarantine station at the state line. He was transferred to Hornbrook several years ago.

Ladies Society of the church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Layman Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Ed Lessard as co-hostess. Devotions were in charge of Ethel Goodlin. Presiding at the business session was Mrs. Idaho Hall, the president. Several matters pertaining to church work were taken care of. Plans are being made by the society to hold an Antique Tea in May. Committees were appointed to take charge of this affair. Bertha Morrison chairman of the cook book, reports the recipes are all in and plans are being made for the printing. The ladies of the society wish to extend their appreciation to the business houses for their advertisements, which help defray expenses of printing. Plans are being made by the president for those who wish to attend the sub-district meeting to be held at Fortuna on March 28. Anyone wishing to go please notify Mrs. Hall. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served with silver offering.

Smith River 4-H club held its regular meeting Monday evening at the hall with President Allen Naill in charge, assisted by the club leader, Irvin Sarina. Plans were made for a dance to be held in April, proceeds to go toward club activities. Several new members joined the club for the first time. Enrollment cards are out and must be filled and sent in by April 1, when the club projects will start. Games and a social time were enjoyed with sandwiches, cookies and ice cream served.

Port Orford News*By Dorothy Asdel*

Mrs. Ethel Montgomery was appointed chairman of the flower show to be given by the Sunset garden club in May when the group met last Friday at the home of Irene Baker. Mrs. Noma Thomas, who had formerly been chairman, found it necessary to resign at this time. Other appointments were Mrs. Edith Jenkins, publicity and posters; Mrs. Bea Cooley, club program chairman.

Members attending the meeting were Mary Lee Anderson, Josie Forty, Irene Fristrom, Estelle Hansen, Leta Hoggatt, Bernie Laurence, Evelyn MacDonald, Adaline Niemann, Martha O'Hara, Fern Townley and one guest, Mrs. Allan Logan. The next meeting will be held at the Bernie Laurence home. Mrs. Baker served refreshments in the St. Patrick's day theme.

Saturday, March 18, is the date set for the Grange Youth dance. There has been some talk among Grange members about having two dance nights, one for the adults and one for the youth as there is usually such a crowd at the monthly youth dance that the hall overflows.

Last Monday and Tuesday saw Evelyn MacDonald and Echol Nutt making slipper chairs at the workshop training class at Gold Beach. Both agreed that the two days were hardly sufficient time in which to complete the chair, so are putting the finishing touches on at home.

Bea Zumwalt had high score at the Thursday Bridge club party last week at the home of Mrs. Elsie Anderson on Cape Blanco. Mary Hughes won second and Katherine Marsh low.

Friday morning one of Martha O'Hara's black Ostorlorp hens became crop-bound, having eaten too much grass. At a loss as to what to do she called her neighbor, Rose Wheeling. Mrs. Wheeling sized up the situation and decided that it would be so foolish to kill the bird if by operating on its crop it could be saved. Grass in a solid lump the size of a man's fish was taken out before the crop and outside skin could be sew together. The chick was happy as a lark after the surgery and although a little pale and not quite so full of vigor as usual for the first day of two, seems as well as ever now.

The new Plymouth sedan in which Richard and Thomas Nash had been traveling, was towed into town Sunday morning with the body looking like a total loss. Allegedly being driven at high speed, the car failed to negotiate a curve and turned over, skidding along the top before going over a bank south of Humbug State Park, near the Fromm ranch. Fortunately, neither boy (both of who attend high school) was hurt seriously. Later on in the afternoon one of them came to Port Orford Motors where the car was and drove it home, apparently a miracle, considering its smashed condition.
