

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Farmers and loggers are hoping for some good weather but Ol' Jupe Pluvius seems to vote otherwise.

The regular social meeting of Sixes Grange was held last Saturday. After the meeting, a program and refreshments were enjoyed by members.

Mesdames Ada Campbell, Helen Fain, Florence Thorhaven, Pauline Anderson and Nana Moore visited the Slipper Chair work shop of the Sixth and Port Orford home extension units, held at Sixes Grange Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim White were shopping at Coquille, Monday.

Langlois Community Church members enjoyed Sunday school party Tuesday night, March 21. The party was attended by the winners and losers of a recent contest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson were at Coquille Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox went to Eugene Thursday and returned Saturday. They visited his sister, while there.

Mrs. Frances Brennan, home economist from the Crown Flour Mills at Portland will give a baking demonstration at the Sixes Grange, Tuesday, March 29. She will demonstrate bread baking and mixing and shaping of fancy rolls. Anyone interested in this should attend.

A baby show, honoring Mrs. Dorothy Doane, was given at the grade school gym Saturday. Many beautiful gifts were received by the honored person. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Don Brooks left to visit her son at Portland. Ronnie is still at the Doernbecker hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hagen of Kerby called on friends in this area Saturday. They were en route to Coquille to visit Mrs. Fred Cadman, niece of Mrs. Hagen. Mr. Hagen was formerly the principal of the local schools.

Several locals attended the play, "Where's Grandma," given by Bandon Driftwood Players, Saturday. Mrs. Vera Cadman of Langlois had a part.

Langlois home extension unit will meet at Mrs. Pauline Anderson's Thursday, April 5. The topic, "Fitting Slacks," will be given by Dorothy Newton, home demonstration agent. A sack lunch will be brought.

Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Thetford began their work as teachers in Langlois High. They are replacing Mr. Whitbeck and Miss Ranken, who resigned recently. Mr. Mitchell is boarding at the H. G. Anderson home and Mr. Thetford and family are staying at the Goldenrod cabins.

Roger Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, arrived home from University of Oregon for spring vacation Wednesday. He visited friends at Gold Beach on Friday, then returned to Langlois for the week-end. He left Sunday with another student, Cameron Thom, of Gold Beach, to return to Eugene.

Volunteer labor has been at work on the club house back of Aldropp's Garage every Sunday, except when stopped by rain. In a few more Sundays, the building should be ready for use. It will be used as a meeting place for the Sportsmen's Club, Boy Scouts, and a place to keep the community fire-fighting apparatus stored.

HIGH SCHOOL

Junior-Senior prom was held Saturday at the gym. The gym was attractively decorated in "Stardust" theme. Charlie Jensen's orchestra provided the music for the occasion.

Mrs. Doris Seeber has been teaching the girls in the Home Living class to crochet. She will also teach them to knit and to tat before school is out in May.

Due to an upset in the plans, the three-act play has had to be postponed indefinitely. It will be staged as soon as possible.

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaForge, now of Springfield, have sold their "View Point" Heights property, just northeast of town, to Roy Brimm and George Brimm, his father. It is understood they will eventually subdivide this beautiful home-site tract, comprising almost 24 acres.

James E. Koeller who has a home on the North Bank of the Chetco, has purchased approximately one-third acre from W. King, father-in-law of Blaine Gribble. Mr. Koeller plans to establish a cabinet shop on this newly-acquired property.

Mrs. Collena Mae Mille, of Grand Junction, Colo., has sold her 2½ acres in the Dawson Tracts north of Brookings to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kaiser. The Kaisers who sold their Harbor property some two years ago, and moved to South Dakota, then lived for a time in the Willamette Valley, have not concluded that Brookings is still the best spot on the coast. These three transactions were handled by the Pete Lesmeister Agency.

School Notes

The Brookings schools will observe a spring vacation next week—April 3 to 7, inclusive. Several of the teachers plan to attend the annual state convention of Oregon Education Association, at Portland, Monday and Tuesday. Teachers are not, of course, paid for their vacation since full term of school is taught as provided for in connection with the basic school support fund distribution.

Last week School Dist. No. 17, received a check from the state treasurer in the amount of $12,484.40 in payment of the second half of the fund. During the last two years the following amounts were received.

1948-49	$21,724.05
1949-1950	24,968.80

This amount is paid by the state income tax.

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week Brookings school is administering the metropolitan Achievement tests to Grades 2 through 9. These tests are furnished through Mrs. Fromm's office and are administered to all of the schools in the county.

Last week the high school administered the Kansas State College tests, covering most of the subject matter fields taught in high school. The results of the test are being analyzed in order to encourage better teaching and better study attitudes and habits.

Tuesday the baseball team leveled the school diamond, and put it in good shape for the first baseball game which is to be played with Gold Beach at Brookings on Friday, April 21. Lettermen's club requests that all individuals refrain from driving cars on the field since the ruts ruin the diamond. The president and lettermen members ask that all individuals recognize this and help out. Eugene Simpson, president, Lettermen's Club.

Baseball schedule:
 April 14—Brookings at Port Orford.
 April 21—Gold Beach at Brookings.
 April 28—Brookings at Langlois.
 May 5—Brookings at Gold Beach.

May 12—Langlois at Brookings
 May 19—Port Orford at Brookings.
