

Gold Beach Notes

Mrs. Cleo Florence, daughter of Mrs. Jos. M. Johnson, has returned from Tacoma, Wash. and is employed in the Rogue River Cafe. She and her little son will occupy the Johnson cabin. Barbara Owen came from Tacoma at the same time and is also employed at the Rogue River Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rader received a call from the Scotia hospital late Tuesday evening that their daughter, Jerry Bishop received two broken legs in an automobile accident while returning from a visit to the Bay area. No more details are available. The Raders left by car immediately for Scotia.

Elmer Costelloe and Dan Mercer left by plane on a business trip to Coos Bay, Wednesday, returning the same day.

The Gold Beach Taxi has a stand in front of the theatre, with headquarters at Gold Beach hotel. The new phone numbers are 531 or 715.

Mrs. Caroline Oliphant and daughters and Fanny Hamber were Coos Bay visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Olney and daughter, Nancy were business visitors at Astoria last week.

Miss Elizabeth Baldwin and Miss Thompson of the state public welfare office, Portland, visited the Curry county office at Gold Beach, Monday.

Mrs. Jessie Fromm of Port Orford is visiting the D. M. Moore home.

A series of accidents resulted in three broken arms the past week. Last Thursday, George Christian fell from a ladder at the meat market and broke one arm above the wrist and sprained the other. Dorothy Harvey fell from a ladder at the Sunset Inn and broke her arm. On Monday Mrs. D. M. Moore slipped and fell at the People's Co. All casualties are reported doing nicely.

Mrs. J. B. Sargenti was released from the Gold Beach hospital and returned to her home at Port Orford Monday. Her tiny, 2-lb. 9-oz. baby girl, however, was kept at the hospital for further care and arrangements were made through the Red Cross to have the baby flown to Doernbecker hospital, Portland, Wednesday for several weeks of hospitalization.

Due to weather conditions the plane was unable to go until Saturday. Roy Rader, manager of Leith Air Service, flew the plane. The tiny youngster was placed aboard in an oxygen tent with Nina Pinson in charge.

Mrs. William Ackerman and her two daughters, Cheri and Jackie, of Forks of Salmon, Cal., spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Ackerman's sister, Mrs. Katherine Sandstrom.

OPHIR NEWS

By Marian Miller

Among those home from college for spring vacation are Dav. Thompson of the U. of O. Extension at Portland and Dick Whittaker of the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hawkins were week-end guests of the Auggie Molthu's at Coquille.

A household shower was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Coy, for Iris Snyder. Many useful and lovely gifts were presented.

A large group of Ophir young people held a beach party last Wednesday evening about a mile south of Ophir. The evening was spent roasting weiners and lots of marshmallows, served with pop.

Frank Moore was honored by a party last Saturday evening at the old Grange hall. The affair was in honor of his 76th birthday. A large group of relatives and friends spent the evening dancing to tunes old and new, payed by "Euchre Creek Jive Five."

Betty and Bob Whittaker made a business trip to Bandon last Friday.

Tom Morgan who is attending O. T. I. at Klamath Falls, was visiting friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Moore and son of Gold Beach were visiting the J. W. "Doc" Moore home last Saturday.

William Taylor has been ill at his home for several days.

Ophir Grange held its regular meeting last Friday at the hall. New members initiated were Ray Stevens and daughter, Anita.

M. L. Whittaker is in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitworth and four children of Douglas Co. have moved into one of Bill Shepard's new cabins.

Bill Lever represented Ophir high at the speech tournament held at Marshfield senior high last Friday and talked himself into the finals of the state speech tournament to be held Friday, March 31, and all-day Saturday, April 1. Bill's oratory on Lincoln, a Timbeline American, was good enough to rate second in the meeting and another chance at the state crow. He has been doing most of his practice work selling Monarch matches. All of us down in Ophir wish Bill lots of success at Eugene.

Ophir high yearbook, edited by Gloria Stevens, rapidly is taking shape. Most of the art work is in at this time, articles are being turned in by the English classes—so it won't be long until the project is complete. Soon as the weather breaks, we will finish up with our pictures. All we need is a break in the weather. Shush, it'll start raining?

'Lil Ol' Ophir is back. A few months ago someone swiped our sign from in front of the school gym. To say we were a bit put out is saying it mildly, but anyway time has healed the scars and we again have a sign to replace our loss. The sign was first put up as an answer to the question 'Where is Ophir?' We would kinda like to see this sign stay. How about it?

A demonstration on baking technique was given by Mrs. Frances Brennan Monday at the Ophir schools.

Bob Whittaker has accepted invitations to the 'Duck Preview' and the 'Beaver' open house for high school seniors, April 14 to 16th.

Dick Whittaker was home last week-end after completing his term at U. of O. He graduated from Ophir High last year—you remember him, the guy with the black curly hair and the big warwhoop. Dick, by the way, is doing better than average work at the University. Nice Going!

A blustery week-end and the sun finally popped out for a time Monday morning and boy, Old Sol was a welcome sight.

Sunday, April 2, is Palm Sunday. This marks the eventful and triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. On this day the people proclaimed Him king. Yet only a few days later the same people had Him crucified. The pastor's sermon will be based on the events of that great day.

Following the morning service, a children's dedication service will be conducted. Parents who want their children dedicated, please contact the pastor before Sunday morning. A cordial invitation is given to the parents of this community to this service.

Then, too, the first Sunday of each month we observe the Lord's Supper. No day could be more suitable than Palm Sunday for the Christian people to gather themselves together to remember the Lord and His suffering. There will be special music during this service.

The pastor's evening sermon topic is "Man who was a success and then failed." Please come prayerfully to these services.

There will be a unique service on Good Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the church Special Easter services will be conducted on Easter Sunday, April 9.

Seventh-Day Adventist

Sabbath School—Saturday at 9:30 a. m.

Church Services—Saturday at 11:00 a. m.

Young People — Saturday at 3:45 p. m.

Prayer Meeting — Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. in Harbor.

Elder J. H. Apigian, formerly of Constantinople, Turkey, and at present district pastor of the Grants Pass district of the Seventh-Day Adventists, will be the guest speaker at the MV hour this coming Saturday afternoon and will also speak at an evening service to be held at the Baptist Community church, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Apigian, who underwent severe persecution at the hands of the Turks during World War I, because of being a Christian, will tell of his experiences which also include some incidents of his life among the Arabs after eluding his Turkish persecutors.

The morning service this week will be presented by the pastor. A brief sermon entitled "Greater Love Hath No Man" will be followed by the quarterly communion service.

Prayer meetings are continuing at the pastor's home on Wednesday evenings. Weekly studies on the "Patriarchs and Prophets" are currently being conducted.
