

Gold Beach H. S.

The seniors took last Friday for their annual sneak day. Eight of the fourteen students left Thursday after school for Eureka and from all reports, they had a good time doing a number of things. The rest of the classes scattered about in many directions but all had a swell time.

Herb "Shadow" Schneideau had a little accident Sunday as he was returning home from the sneak day. His pick-up ran off the road and down the bank just north of Gold Beach. We're all hoping his injuries are not serious.

Wayne Hess, of Oakand, is a recent newcomer to the freshman class. He was given a part in the three-act play, "We Shook the Family Tree," as Jimmy, the younger brother.

The girls had their first softball game last week with the senior league vs the rest of the girls. The boys are having some good baseball workouts now that the weather has been so warm and nice.

This Saturday night is the time for the Junior-Senior prom. Chas Jensen and his orchestra will furnish the music along the "Stairway to the Stars." Donna Hyde, chairman, is promising everyone a good time. Admission is $1 per person. The time is from 8:30 until midnight.

Ed Rath went to Eugene over the week-end and Margie LeClaire and Leora Andrews were Brookings visitors Friday. Penny Lever and Donna Hyde spent last Saturday at Eureka.

Thursday and Friday of this week are holidays—time to get those fish caught, or, for someone who hasn't the highly contagious spring fever, study for six-weeks tests which start Monday.

Nevt Tuesday afternoon the high school band and chorus will go to Port Orford high where they will give a concert.

Realty Transfers

There has been added activity in the sale of home sites in the new Coast View Subdivision owned by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kretzmeier, of Portland. In addition to the four lots purchased by August Johnson, builder, as announced last week, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hart have purchased lots and plan construction of new homes some time this year. The lots transactions were handled thru the Pete J. Lesmeister Agency.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Powell of Mountain View, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Powell's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Goldizen. Mr. Powell, a building contractor, is helping the Goldizens complete the interior of their home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beem, taking advantage of the spring vacation, left early Monday for a trip to Coos Bay, and later to Klamath Falls to visit their son-in-law and daughter. They will return by the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stanz and children of Boise are visiting at home of his sister, Mrs. Dewey Akers, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Parker were guests, Monday night at the Crescent City Chamber of Commerce dinner.

The Boy Scouts met Monday night at the Baptist church, with 18 present. More boys are expected to join. The boys did a great job of selling tickets to the benefit dance for Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell.

John Hogan, salesman for the "Battleship" roofing, has been making many sales in this area. He told the Pilot. He expects to make another trip to Portland. His last trip was made two weeks ago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Prince of Gold Beach were business visitors here Wednesday afternoon. W. W. Smith left Tuesday for Pacific Palisades, Calif., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Detweiler and family. He will be gone ten days.

Mrs. Floyd Bolton left here Friday evening for points in California, on a business and pleasure trip. A visit will be made with her brother at Yuba City, the E. C. Brownlee family, who are frequent visitors in this area. Mrs. Bolton expects to be away three weeks.

Brookings High baseball team has been taking advantage of the warm days to keep fit for the forthcoming season, soon to start, by turning out each afternoon. Coach Guthrie is glad for the break in weather for he has had little chance to give the team the practice he would like.

Mrs. E. Jacqueline Wood and her mother, Mrs. Effie Edholm of Sacramento, are visiting at the home of Pastor and Mrs. Leo VanDolson this week. Mrs. Wood is mother of Mrs. VanDolson. Also expected this week are Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanDolson Sr. and Fred, parents and twin brother of Leo.
