

Port Orford News

By Dorothy Asdel

Last Tuesday evening, Treble Clef chorus which usually practices at the high school, enjoyed as a special treat the hospitality of Docia Sweet for its weekly sing. The group is preparing for the annual Music week concert to be given at the gym next Tuesday evening. Others participating in the concert will be the school band with Charlie Jensen directing, including one or two specialty numbers, and a few dance numbers by students of Hazel Knapp Dance Studio.

Mrs. Gracie McKenzie entertained the Wednesday bridge club last week. Mrs. Echol Nutt won first and Mrs. Mary Dobbema second. Mrs. Gertrude Williamson will be the next hostess.

Surprised at 2 a. m. the other morning was Mrs. Ralph Angell. Her two sons, Ralph of Portland and John of Neskowin, sang "happy birthday," upon arrival at that hour, coming to help her celebrate. Ralph remained a week while John continued on a business trip. Both then returned north together.

With the slogan "What Port Orford Makes, Makes Port Orford," Mrs. Noma Thomas has announced that this year's big Achievement day, May 23, will include displays of work made by local hobbyists, both men and women, as well as heirlooms, myrtlewood work and special collections. All 4-H groups will exhibit their work in competition for ribbons to be awarded by the judges. All residents of the community are invited to enter their work for displays.

It is promised to be a gala day with the Home Extension silver tea in the afternoon and a dinner by the grade school teachers in the evening. Proceeds of the dinner will be donated to the band as the instrument fund is still inadequate.

Mrs. Frances Kirtland, principal, has announced that the grade school children will entertain the diners during the dinner hour with skits, rhythm band numbers, jumping rope demonstration and folk dances.

Robbie Henson, 6, and Douglas Pratt, 7, celebrated their birthdays at a joint party last Friday afternoon at Robbie's home. Several young friends enjoyed the fun and party refreshments, including Eugene Hayden, George Ransdell, Robert Asdel, Peter Raasina, and Edith Pratt. The children were overjoyed to hear Robbie's and Douglas' names read on Uncle Bill's program over KIEM late in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baird have taken over "Katie's", popular restaurant in town. They plan to operate it on a permanent basis. Opening last week was Collin's Grill, newly-rebuilt and re-furnished. It has not been in operation since the fire last summer, which destroyed all but the bare outside shell. Mrs. Christine Green and Mrs. Jennie Coughran, formerly of Roseburg, are leasing and operating it for the season.
