VOLUME FIVE, NUMBER XI.

BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1950

P.-T. A. Installed Officers, Thurs.

Mrs. W. R. Glass, regional vice-president of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, was installing officer Thursday evening when the 1950-51 officers of P.-T. A. were installed: President—Mrs. Ross Horn. Vice-President—Mrs. John Ginther. Secretary—Mrs. Joe Zumpfe. Treasurer—Mrs. Clifford Bushnell.

Corsages were given the officers following installation.

Advantages of forming a coast area district council were discussed and Mrs. Ross Horn and Mrs. John Ginther volunteered to attend the meeting at Coos Bay May 12 to form such council.

Mother singers have had several new members since last appearance. The group now includes: Miss Ruth Woodward, Mesdames Bernadine Steeie, Edwin Matson, Beryl Bollinger, Alice Beem, Marie Hoar, Mary Putnam, Alice Rausch, Jean Panzer, Cleo Craig, Doris Ackley, Bob Stanhurst and Dewey Akers. This group sang four numbers.

Corsages, made by Mr. and Mrs. Al Panzer, were presented Mrs. Lloyd Morris and Mrs. Stanley Patterson, director and accompanist for the singers. A gift was presented Mrs. Morris for her work throughout the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Alley of Klamath Falls are visiting at the home of Mrs. Eva Long and enjoying fishing here and on the Rogue. Mr. Alley is with the Southern Pacific Co. at Klamath Falls.

Local Artist Will Have Local Scenes At Azalea Festival Flower Show Display

An Oregonian by birth, and Harbor resident by choice, Mrs. Pernot S. Duff, who is known better everywhere than here, will be another artist to show paintings at the Azalea Festival art exhibit May 20 and 21, and many of these scenes will be those of the Oregon coast which she loves so well.

An active member of "The American Federation of Arts," her paintings have hung in many halls to be viewed by thousands of art critics. Her easel has been set all along the coast, on the Mohave desert, Palm Springs, everywhere that he fancy called her.

Graduate of Oregon State College, she long ago won the right to exhibit at such places as: Horner Art Museum at Oregon State College; Portland Art Museum; J. K. Gills with the professional groups; Meier & Frank Art Gallery; Egan Art Gallery, Los Angeles; Orton Art Collection at Washington State College (purchased picture for permanent exhibition); C. V. Phillips Studio Gallery, LaCrescenta, Calif.

Among the pictures will be water colors of: Clam Diggers at Myers Creek; Going Home (at old dock beach); White Cottage By the Sea (home of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Miller); Driftwood; Eucalyptus Grove; Old Timer (an old local building); Smith River Gorge in Autumn; Salmon Fishing on the Chetco; Cottage in the Pines (a home at Depoe Bay).

In oils will be: Moonlight on Chetco Cove; Wild Azaleas; Let there Be Light, (at Coos Bay).

Mrs. Duff (called Duffy by her intimates) studied with Miss A. Fegner of Pratt Institute, New York; Majored in Art at Oregon State College; Portland Art School at Art Museum; C. V. Phillips Studio, LaCrescenta, Calif.; Student of Whistler the year he accepted pupils; Grayson Saver, Los Angeles; Criticisms by Aaron Kilpatrick, studio Morro Bay, Calif.; Portrait under Mr. Franquet studio, Tujunga, Calif.

No attempt is being made to give a biography, merely to tell visitors at the forthcoming Azalea Festival that they are going to see local scenes as a local artist can portray them.

1951 Model Kaiser On Display In Brookings

The 1951 Kaiser models are now on display at Haggerty Twin-service, Kaiser-Fraser dealers for Curry county, according to information given the Pilot by Homer Haggerty, Monday.

"Be sure to have something on the front page," Mr. Haggerty pleaded of the Pilot.

Jeri's Opening Set For Friday Morning

Jeri's, Brookings' new dress shop, will officially open Friday morning at 10, according to an announcement elsewhere in this issue, in the Kruger building, next door to Redfield's Grocery.

Once a salesgirl and later a buyer for her department at the Aberdeen, Wash., J. C. Penney Co. store, Mrs. Funari, has gained considerable experience in the handling of ladies' wear, especially the lines she expects to carry in her store.

C. of C. Bills Dinner Meeting, May 18

Report on progress being made on the airport for this area, will be made at the May meeting of Brookings Chamber of Commerce, according to Elmer Parker, president, who announced May meeting for Thursday, May 18, at the Grange hall.

Members expecting to partake of the dinner should make reservations at either Grayshel's Coffee Mill Cafe, or at Pete J. Lesmeister's office.

John B. Ebinger Is Club Speaker

It is with a great deal of enthusiasm that Azalea Garden Club announces its guest speaker for Thursday, May 11, in the person of John B. Ebinger.

Attorney, statesman and sociologist, he has, through 30 years of study and devotion, become the state's most prominent authority and advocate of conservation.

Most widely acclaimed for his now famous "Separate Report," made concurrently with that of the Interim Committee as a result of studies made of Oregon's Wildlife Resources, Mr. Ebinger is the proponent of a recent resolution to establish a chair of human ecology in Oregon's institutions of higher learning and a bill to establish a National Resources Board for the state of Oregon.

On his recent trip east he had, in his words, "a most interesting visit with the National Legislative Chairman of Garden Clubs, in Providence, R. I." His report on this meeting, together with the benefit of his extensive knowledge and experience, will, in the opinion of the club program chairman, bring one of the highlights of the year.

Faces Red When River Guides Err

GOLD BEACH—This place was noted for its red faces last week during the days when river fishing was poor.

Object bobbing up and down on the water some distance offshore at the mouth of the Rogue were "taken" as seal by a number of river guides, preventing the chinook from entering. They armed themselves with any firearms available, and set themselves out to slay the intruders.

Later, someone had the bright idea of getting a telescope to see what effect the artillery was having—result: they were floats for crap pots—not seals.

Walt Fischer, he with the $180 telescopic sight on his rifle, was not seen among the guides on "the rifle range".

Fishing was poor the earlier part of the week, but Saturday, Sunday and Monday things were on the up-grade, and many were caught.

Jim Button, veteran guide on the river, at Lucky Lodge, has been reported doing all right by his parties.

Mrs. Perry Jones of Livermore, Calif., accompanied by a few of her girl friends, are here at Mack Motel, and are being guided by Don Kroegel. It's too early to see what luck they will have.

Give Concert, Fri.

Mrs. Lloyd Morris, music instructor of the local schools, announced, Monday, that the high school girls chorus will present its spring concert, Friday evening, May 12, at 8, at the Baptist Community church.

Piano solos, vocal solos will be given as well as numbers by the chorus. There will be no admission charge.

District No. 17 Will Hold Special School Election Wednesday Evening, May 31

Brookings School District, No. 17 will hold its election to exceed the 6% limitation, Thursday, May 31, at the high school gymnasium—time is 7:30 to 8:30 (standard time) or 8:30 to 9:30 Daylight savings time.

Reasons for increasing the levy above the 6% limitation, as given by the local school board is:

"To obtain the additional sum necessary to maintain the schools in view of the fact that the Rurula School Board did not provide funds above the 6% limitation."

A bulletin just released from the Curry County school superintendent's office advises the district:

"The Rural School District board levied within the 6% limitation, so it will not be necessary to vote to exceed the 6% limitation on a county-wide basis. However, it will be necessary in almost every district in the county to have an election to exceed the 6% limitation to levy the additional amount necessary to maintain the schools."

The local budget committee, composed of the school board and Earl Carson, Virgil Goldsberry and Homer Kessler, prepared a budget of $110,141.00 of which $96,046 was for the general fund. Of this amount, the Curry County Rural School District board allocated Dist. No. 17, $68,979.30 as the district's amount to be raised on a county-wide basis.

Therefore, in order to have available the general fund budget which the budget committee prepared, it is necessary to vote the difference or $27,066.70 above the limitation in the local district.

For the 1949-50 school year, the rural school district board allowed general fund expenditures for district in Curry county in the amount of $372,685.81 and placed $257,476.72 on the tax roll of Curry county, requiring a tax of 41.5 mills. Of this $257,476.72, $133,297.65 was within the 6% limitation, and $14,179.27 was voted in Curry county in excess of the limitation.

For the 1950-51 school year, the rural school board is allowing general fund expenditures for the districts of Curry county in the amount of $299,719.73, which offset by receipts will require a

Second Teen-Age Party A Success

The second teen-age party of Chetco Rod and Gun Club proved a success, the children reported. Lunch was served, consisting of sandwiches, salad and sodas.

Parents of the teen-agers are cordially invited to accompany their children, if they like, to any of these parties. One rule is enforced: after entering the hall none are permitted to leave until the party is concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elston were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kerns, Mrs. Cliff Brimm, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bickner and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, who aided in teaching square dances and other folk dances. The next is to be a formal party, at the closing of the school year.

county-wide levy of $140,387.72, which is under the amount allowed $212,370.00—as a basis for computation a county wide levy of 22.6 mills would be required, by the Curry County rural school district.

The present school year it was necessary to levy 7.3 mills above the 6% limitation for operation of the schools, together with an additional levy of 12.4 mills for bond interest and serial levy, or a total of 19.7 mills in the district. This levy, together with the rural school district levy of 41.5 mills requires an over-all levy of 61.2 mills in the local district.

For the coming year, as has been stated, the Rural School district levy should approximate 22.6 mills. Dist. No. 17 bond interest and serial levy would require 10.6 mills and the additional amount over the 6% limitation 20.6 mills or an over-all total of 53.8 mills in the local district.

Thus, even if the present evaluation of the county and local district should remain the same the millage levy could drop 7.4 mills. However, Dist. No. 17 valuation has increased an average of $91,332.50 per year for the past two years. Thus Dist. No. 17 is one of the "almost every district" in Curry county which the County school superintendent states "will need be necessary to have an election to exceed the 6% limitation to levy the additional amount necessary to maintain the schools."

Service Above Self Was Rotary Topic

Rev. Coyne Gifford, Presbyterian minister of Ukiah, and president-elect of the Ukiah Rotary Club, was principal speaker at Tuesday luncheon of Brookings Club, telling of the "Indispensable Man."

"Service Above Self," long has been the motto of Rotary, the speaker said in preface, and it always bears out that those who do most for their community for their families, for their schools, for their lodges, reaches the goal they little thought of. Mankind when it functions unselfishly, is always happier. Mankind which is unselfish is also the healthier, and happier.

He praised the local club on its friendliness, as this was the second time he had visited locally. He said that he was glad of the opportunity to come here as speaker, and wished to come again, even as a visitor.
