Flowers Are Assets Of Community!

There seems to exist in this community a misunderstanding over what constitutes a flower show and a flower display, and this big misunderstanding gives rise to dissention among some people.

When the Azalea Garden Club announced it was going to stage its big "Fower Show" in July as member felt that at that time the club could better meet the requirements of the national federations of garden clubs, that was their privilege.

However, some fail to remember that a flower show, or shall we call it a flower display, is as much a part of the Azalea Festival as a thumb is of the hand to which it is attached! Therefore, All-Year Events Association has made plan, not to compete with the Garden club show on July 4, but to make the May 20 affair, a display of flowers, for which this community is noted.

Since there will be no competitive displays, since there will be little or no classification, a bit of supplementing was felt necessary by All-Year Events Association, so:

Smith River Indians have been asked to display their wares of basket-weaving and such artists have been asked to give showings of their works at this time. This was not done in spiteful way, but as a friendly way to see that visitors at Azalea Festival may see those things which make this community as well known as it is.

In a land of flowers, certainly the Pilot can see that there may be room for as many as three flower shows, displays, or what you wish to call them, possible here each year. When that attitude is finally reach, then this community will gain even more rapidly that ever before. Just try it and see what happens!

Your District Attorney Important!

On Friday, May 19, voters of Curry County will go to the polls at the primaries. At this time there appears to be two axes of concern to voters of Curry county—that of a U. S. Senator and of a district attorney. Both are important offices.

The Pilot feels strongly on these two positions. It will even go out on a limb, so to speak, to say that it has a recommendation. First, there is Ed F. Ackley, of Brookings, for District Attorney. The Pilot has observed him, and believes he is a capable lawyer—ethical, forthright, prompt, sincere in his practice of law. He has, in all his dealings with the Pilot, been prompt, in the interests of right, and appears to be fair, as well as generous.

Ackley has been accused of being vindictive. Such is not true, regardless of statements to the contrary. He often times appears blunt and gruff, but once anyone knows him, they will find this certainly is not true.

For a nurse, one might choose a gentle soul, full of compassion, tenderness, and pity. In case of district attorney, when rights of the people are concerned, one must look for a person who has beneath his exterior a little brass, a little grit.

Curry county, like any other county, must have a district attorney. Since one is needed, Curry county should look carefully at the qualifications.

A person choosing a lawyer would ask himself, which kind will I wish to defend me—what must be expected? Likely, the answer will be: an aggressive lawyer, one not afraid. Ackley is such a man. The Pilot recommends Ed F. Ackley for district attorney.

Save America, the American Way!

Voting, to Americans, is a privilege and right which few people over the world enjoy; yet Americans as a majority do not exercise this right in a manner which will keep for them the liberties which they have enjoyed for more than a century and a half. Into America has crept too many "isms" which has sapped from the Americans those attributes which have made United States the nation to which the world points as an example. Please go to the Polls on May 19—vote; then again in November. Save American heritage in the American way.

IT SEEMS TO ME:

By Dewey

Mrs. W. L. Crissey brought me a scrapbook of clippings she had saved over a number of years, on the History of Brookings, of the Azalea Festival of the past, and of the rise of this community in the past decade.

The thing that struck me as being out of the ordinary, was the number of column-inches of publicity and advertising this vicinity has obtained, through no effort of its own and at no cost. Set in type the size of this column, I am safe in saying that these clippings would make up at least thirty pages the size of the Pilot.

Understand, these clippings included only those which interested Mrs. Crissey, those which she felt were out of the ordinary. She said that this area, in spite of itself, was the most widely known of any along the entire Oregon coast, and she was not excluding any other area.

The clippings on the azaleas on the Azalea Festival, and on the creation of the Azalea State Park, make up several pages. Pictures of the first Festival in this area were used extensively in Oregon advertising in the national magazines. This area did not pay a cent for this, yet it has enjoyed the fruits of this all the past decade.

...Here this community has almost everything anyone would seek in locating a new home—and does not exploit its granddeurs. It would do your heart good to take a look at this book of clippings—just like it did for me, and I have had only a short time to read it.

Jeri's new dress shop will open up Friday. Together with the Young's 5 and 10 Store, two new businesses have shown faith in the community, have cast their lot with us, to help us grow that much more. It is strange how little we think of newcomers in the idea of doing us some good. To specialize in strictly feminine apparel, Jeri Funari believes she will bring this area the answer to a need for the past several years. Her experience with J. C. Penney Co. is likely to aid her in choosing the apparel women need and want.

ANSWERS TO EVERYDAY INSURANCE PROBLEMS* BY PETE LESMEISTER

Question. A business friend of mine tells me that he has a fire insurance policy which will pay him for loss of earnings if his business property is so damaged by fire that he can't keep operating. My fire insurance policy doesn't have any provision of that kind and I'd like to know what it is called and how to get it. Answer. That form of protection is called "Use and Occupancy" insurance and it can be added to almost any standard fire insurance policy. An additional premium is required.

If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there'll be no charge or obligation of any kind.
