By Nancy Moore

The regular meeting of Sixes Grange was held at the Grange hall, last Saturday. It was decided that during summer months the Grange will meet at 9 o'clock daylight savings time. Kenneth Thompson, who heads a committee for planning the rules for Juvenile Grange Summer Camp scholarship contest, reported that one new rule has been added this year. The juveniles will be able to earn points toward the scholarship by raising a garden or by canning at least five different kinds of fruit. The Home Ec chairman announced that the next meeting of the Grange that the next meeting of the home Ec chairman announced Home Ec group will be at Mrs. Docia Sweet's home on May 18. It will be an all-day affair with a pot luck lunch at noon. After the meeting the group gave an interesting Mother's day program.

group greeted Dist. Supt. Rev. W. J. Owens of Santa Rosa.

This new addition has been completed with most of the labor donated, and much of the lumber and other building materials, including the asphalt tile linoleum to cover the floor, donated by Hendricks Furniture at Brookings. The building is completed, without a cent of debt to the church. Dist. Supt. Owens extended his appreciation to all who spent many hours to accomplish this, adding a much-needed pastor's study, Sunday school rooms. The large social room is being used at present for the third grade of the local school, due to overcrowding. At the close of the dinner, Rev. Mr. Owens addressed the group, and the last quarterly conference for the year was held.

Mother's day was observed at the local church, Sunday. Many were present to honor Mother. Rev. E. C. Hicks addressed the group on "The Life I want to Live." Special song "Mother", by the choir. Solo, "My Tack" was sung by Mrs. Ida Hall. Accompanying at piano was Mrs.

Noel Olson. Corsages were given to the oldest mother, Mrs. Eddie Westbrook, who is 85, and one of the pioneers who has helped so much with this church. The youngest mother, Mrs. Noel Olson, and mother having the largest family was Mrs. J. W. Moore, with 11 children.

Special services will be held next Sunday at the church with the men having charge. Rev. Noel Olson, Wm. Denney and I. W. Hall will tell of the recent district meeting of the Methodist church they attended at Ukiah. There will also be special music. All are invited.
