

SMITH RIVER

Smith River Womens Club held its final meeting of the club year Friday afternoon at the Community hall with Pres. Eunice Faris in charge, assisted by Sec. Betsy Evans. Singing "God Bless America," opened the meeting, followed by flag salute. Reports of committee chairmen were given. Mildred Owen gave an interesting report of activities of the library during the past year. Others reporting were Ethel Goodlin on baby clinic; Joyce Bolick, arts.

Mrs. Faris gave a report of the district meeting of California Federation convention at Salinas, she had attended. During the program Mrs. Denney introduced Miss Sue Lafiles of Crescent City who played several piano solos. Mrs. Effie Wilkensen introduced Mrs. Helen Tracy who gave a discourse on value of American citizenship. These officers were installed by Mrs. Vance Bolick: President, Eleanor Layman; vice-president, Betsy Evans as proxy for Martha Ulrich; secretary, Grace Hight; treasurer, Frances Westbrook; auditor, Effie Wilkensen, proxy for Alyce Bolick. The club recessed until September. The mantle was decorated with three large bouquets of early summer flowers in pastel shades, decorated by Terry Ulrich. Refreshments were served from lace-covered table centered with bouquets of sweet peas from Mrs. Grace Hight home. Pres. Eleanor Layman and Past Pres. Eunice Faris presided at the tea table. Tea hostesses were Grace Hight, Frances Westbrook and May Crook.

O. M. Rice, pioneer resident of this valley, celebrated his 88th birthday June 1 at his home. During the day friends called to extend greetings. He makes his home with his daughter Miss Elma Rice and is enjoying good health for his age. He received many cards and gifts from his friends.

Plans are complete for the big Flag Day dance, sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary, Saturday evening, June 10 at the Community hall. Good music has been provided with refreshment to be served in the hall most of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Spencer, who have resided at Valley View court since May 1, have moved to the Robert Wilson home. Mr. Spencer is superintendent of the new highway construction.

Edith Johnson of Pine Hill, Eureka, is house guest of Mrs. Ella Plaisted while renewing acquaintances with relatives and friends.

George Jacobson, student at Menlo Park Junior College, arrived home to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Jacobson. He has accepted employment on the new highway construction.

Port Orford

PORT ORFORD—Work clothes will be the attire when members of Sunset Garden club meet at the grade school Friday as the purpose room will be readied for the flower show on Saturday and Sunday, June 10 and 11. Soil in the brick planters at the school will be prepared prior to setting out plants also.

Vacationing for the five-day holiday last week were the Ray Shearers and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rose from Klamath Falls. The Shearers, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Val Townley and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, have enjoyed fishing here many times in the past.

On an extended visit here are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Woolsey of Bakersfield, Calif., living in their trailer at Don and Vera White's Paradise Point ranch. They arrived a week ago, Sunday.

New officers installed at the last meeting of Sixes Home Extension unit, held at Sea-View ranch were Mrs. Erma Wagner, chairman; Mrs. Edna Zumwalt, vice-chairman and Mrs. Edna Peterson, as secretary-treasurer. "Designed Applied to Textile Painting" was demonstrated by Miss Dorothy Newton, HDA, at an all-day meeting, with pot luck luncheon at noon. Mrs. Florence Adolphsen and Mrs. Ena Sheridan were hostesses.

Forrest David, state horticultural inspector, who resides in the Brookings-Harbor area, was here last Friday at the Oregon Coast Berry Co.

"God the preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, June 11.

The Golden Text is "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me." (Ps. 40:11).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee" (Isa. 26:3), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,' by Mary Baker Eddy: "Step by step will those who trust him find that 'God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.'" All carpenters are busy on various jobs, now are working from one, to another as materials are available for them.

We have made two trips to Eureka this week for dry, clear molding, siding, etc.

We have a 6-inch Redwood drop siding in now, at $110.00 per thousand—a good buy.

A truck load of plywood was received today, so our stock is complete in that line.

Have a carload of No. 2 oak flooring to be in right away. This item is slow to get but moves out fast. Get yours.
