

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

A power outage Friday night, that incapacitated the milking machines, caused a good many sore muscles Saturday morning. The Youth Dance was held Friday night at the Grange hall, was started with music provided by a hand-powered phonograph and light provided by kerosene lamps. Just as everyone was beginning to enjoy the semi-darkness, the electricity came on.

Hugh Shields of Gold Beach was in Langlois on Business Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim White are building a house on their Floras Lake property. It is now near completion.

Mrs. Jean Hale went to Coos Bay several times during the past week.

A meeting is to be held Tuesday at the high school to discuss the pros and cons of sending the high school students to Bandon next year. The election to decide the matter will be held on Thursday, June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Alger were Coos Bay visitors, Friday.

Miss Marjorie LeClair of Ophir visited for a short time Friday evening with Nancy Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrill and son returned from a business trip to Portland, Thursday.

Mrs. Ruth Mprphy is attending summer school at Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Mary Langlois was surprised last week when she was visited by a friend with whom she went to school, when both were six years old.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gray of Ophir visited at the Frank Moore home Thursday.

Sixes Grange will hold its regular social meeting at the hall Saturday, June 24 at 8 p. m.

Miss Dorothy Newton, HDA, was in Langlois Saturday on home extension business. She was on her way to 4-H summer school at Corvallis.

Mrs. Eva Donaldson is leaving some time this week to attend Summer school at Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland, in preparation for teaching the first grade next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, son Charles, and Dick Everest, returned home Saturday evening after attending state Grange at Ontario.

A meeting was held Wednesday evening at the Grange hall for purpose of organizing Grange dramatics club. Only a few people attended and it is hoped that anyone else who is interested in dramatics will attend the next meeting June 21 at Gerald Quinn's. Plans were made to give a skit while the group is waiting for more material.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Betti Goldizen, student at Ventura Junior College, arrived home Friday afternoon for two weeks visit at the home of her parents before returning to Ventura to enroll in summer school. Betti hopes to complete the entire course in three semesters instead of the customary four.

Rev. Nick Neufeld, who moved to Stayton a couple weeks ago, was in town Monday to move his furniture to his new home. While here, he cast his ballot at the school election, his last opportunity to take part in the local affairs.

Mrs. William Ward was made happy by receiving a wire recording from her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Welty Wolfe, of Ferndale, Wash. This recording was made last month at the 40th wedding anniversary of her parents, at which time more than 50 friends were present, with a number of musical selections. "It is almost like being present in person, Mrs. Ward told the Pilot, "the only thing I missed was seeing them open the gifts."

Mrs. H. M. Schoppe and her nephew, Larry Capri, of Portland, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Elmer Parker and family at Parker's Anchorage. They will be here for a couple of weeks.

Anyone who has copies of magazines to give away are asked to contact Mrs. William Ward, as she needs pictures for Sunday school work.

Tuesday afternoon Jack Jagers brought the Pilot the first Croft lily blooms of the year. They were fully developed, but according to Jack were the only two out that day. He predicts that warm weather will bring the blossoms out in time for the lily parade.

Brookings Chapter, SPEBSQSA, furnished much of the intermission entertainment last Saturday evening at Crescent VFW dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush left Monday via Greyhound for a 10-day trip to Vancouver, Victoria B. C., and return by way of Port Angeles, Wash., on the Olympic peninsula.

The front of the Pine Cone theatre has just had a new coat of paint, applied by Fay Clemmer and A. F. Pierce, adding much to the appearance of Main St.

Dorcas Society Sends Relief To Flood Victims

Dorcas Society of the Seventh-Day Adventist church last week packed 266 garments and 26 pairs of shoes to send to the flood-stricken people of British Columbia. Spokesman for the society asked the Pilot to extend thanks to all those who contributed, and asked others who may have items at home to give, since the society is still making up packages.

Those having possible contributions may call either Leo VanDolson, Mrs. Carl Bolin of Harbor, or Mrs. George Funk of Brookings.

June "Hi-Lines" Will Be In Mails Shortly

June issue of "Hi-Lines," publication of Coos-Curry Electric Co-operative, is off the press and will be in the mails by end of this week.

As usual, this issue is full of information concerning affairs of the co-operative.

Send the Pilot to relatives—it'll save letter-writing. Use these columns—it pays!
