Sara Westbrook Weds Palo Alto Man, Sun. P. M.

SMITH RIVER—Wedding vows between Miss Sara May Westbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook, and Leon Twigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Twigg, of Palo Alto, were solemnized at the local Methodist church Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, with Rev. E. C. Hicks officiating at an impressive ceremony.

The church was beautiful with baskets of white gladiolus and baby breath around the altar with white stock and baby breath arrangements on piano and altar, Shasta daisies in pastel shades, and matching ribbon streamers at each pew and along the aisle.

To the soft strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, with Miss Constance Luick, organist, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a white marquisette gown with train and bodice and long sleeves of lace, and finger-tip length veil. She carried a bouquet of Stephanotis, centered with an orchid, and tied with a white satin bow. Mrs. Patsy Westbrook, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in lemon yellow dotted Swiss over yellow taffeta. She carried salmon pink begonias.

Mrs. Mary Westbrook Ostrom, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing aqua blue dotted Swiss over blue taffeta. She carried lemon yellow begonias, each tied with matching ribbon.

The groom was attended by his brother, Earl. Ushers were Taylor Westbrook, brother of the bride, and Robert Melodling, close friend of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where friends gathered to extend best wishes to the newlyweds. The Westbrook home was beautiful with white flower arrangements about the rooms.

The white linen-covered table, centered with the three-tier wedding cake, was beautifully frosted with icing of roses, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the newlyweds. Cake and punch were served to guests. Mrs. Katherine Woods was in charge of the guest book.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a brown suit with matching accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Following a two-weeks honeymoon in the north, Mr. and Mrs. Twigg will reside at Palo Alto, where Mrs. Twigg is employed at the school for cerebral-palsied children at Redwood City. Mr. Twigg has another year of study at San Jose State College.

Other Smith River Notes

Mrs. Viola Allyn of Fresno, accompanied by Mrs. Ford Wood of Bakesfield, arrived Monday to visit the latter's sisters, Mrs. Mary Anthony and Mrs. Ella Plaisted, and brother, Will McIndoe.

Lester Crook, student at San Jose State College, arrived at his home the first of the week to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Crook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom are attending summer school at Palo Alto. Mrs. Ostrom arrived by Southwest Airways Saturday to attend the wedding of her cousin, Sara May Westbrook. She returned to Palo Alto Monday.

The farmers of the valley are busy cutting hay. Many fields have been cut and the warm sunshine will be of great benefit for drying so that it may be stored in the barns soon.

"Service" Makes For Better Living

"Service, when it comes from the unselfish person," said Rev Bob Lessing, president-elect of Coquille Rotary Club, Tuesday noon at the club luncheon, makes for happier living. It brings about a different understanding, it makes people like you, it also gives you the full joy of living with your fellow-man.

"I grant you that the four objects of Rotary are words, and may be just that if the Rotarians do not strive to practice the four objects. Paul Harris, founder of Rotary, was a man of principle. He founded with that principle and it is understandable why the Principles of Rotary have spread to almost every country in the world.

"With service in mind, Rotarians enjoy their meetings for the fellowship they have. They enjoy the projects the club may get behind. They enjoy being of the most service. This being of service is 'giving,' and that brings the most joy—first that of love of mankind.

"It is a joy for me to visit other Rotary clubs. I see men of principle sitting down to a meal together, exchanging ideas, teasing one another, pulling kid pranks, if you may, all because of the infectious principles.

"Rotary, through its fourth object, has brought about a better understanding between the different nations of earth, of the peoples of different tongues, although they may not understand the language. However, they do understand the principles," he said in closing.

Mrs. Kathryn Reekman returned home Friday after attending State Grange Session at Ontario, Ore. She will report to Grange shortly.
