

More Floats Are Needed For 1950 "Blossom Parade"

According to Archie Hendricks, float chairman, there will be seven classifications for floats in the 1950 parade: Commercial, Organizations, Individuals, Children, Horesmen, Indians and a Comic, possibly monopolized by Bill Wridge and a few of his cohorts.

Prizes offered are:

- Sweepstakes, Gold Ribbon.
- First Prize$5.00
- Second Prize$3.00
- Third prize$2.00

Judging will be done in the vicinity of the old mess hall at which point the parade will be started.

Entrants are asked to have the floats in that vicinity between 12:30 and 1:30 for judging. No float arriving after 1:30 will be considered by the judges.

OBITUARY

Marion Rose, 80, who died on Saturday, June 17, was born at Jamestown, Minnesota. In 1892 he was married to Louise Viola Buell.

A resident of this area for the past 25 years, he was a retired railroad conductor. He was member of the Christian Science Society, which conducted funeral services Tuesday, June 20, from the Baptist Community church.

Besides his widow he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Aggie Trask of International Falls, Minn., two nephews, L. D. Rose of Portland and Bud Rose of Seattle.

During the late war Mr. Rose broke the record for number of hours service in home defense. He served 24 hours a day keeping watch at lookouts along coast. In addition to providing transportation for others he was in charge of servicing these watch stations, in the dark and out of the way places, regardless of the weather. He was classed a true soldier of home defense.

Marion Rose now rests in Wm. Ward Memorial Park, near the home that he loved so well. His memory, however, will linger in this area for many years.
