Locals Met With Pomona Grange

Curry County Pomona Grange met with Sixes Grange Saturday, July 1, with Worthy Master Henry Adolphsen in the chair. Wm. G. Howse, state Grange Overseer, and State Grange Deputy, and his wife were present for the meeting.

The master gave his report of the state Grange session at Ontario, in June, explaining the action taken by the State Grange delegates on several things that came up during the meeting. He also told of the trip through the White Satin Sugar Company's plant at Nyssa as guests of the company for the trip and the box supper which followed.

The legislative committee reported that Coos County was coming in with Curry County on the REA telephone project to reach the outlying homes with telephone and good service.

It was decided to not have a meeting in September as the regular meeting date falls on the same time as Curry county fair, so the next meeting will be on November 4 at Harbor, with the Chetco Grange as hosts.
