Hollanders Visit Grootendorst Home

Recent visitors at the Grootendorst ranch were Mr. and Mrs. DeBoer of The Netherlands. Mr. DeBoer, one of the directors of the leading Dutch Meat Canners and Ham Processors, Gevat, is on his way to Chicago to make initial plans in the Chicago show at the World's Fair, where Mr. and Mrs. Grootendorst and Mary will join him to introduce Gevato hams and Holland delicatessen. Incidentally, Gevato is an abbreviation of Brothers Van Toorn, also brothers of Mrs.

Grootendorst, whose family has been connected with the meat business for generations. These products which were lately introduced in the western markets are already finding heavy demand.

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeBlock Jr. have purchased the A. B. Thomas home on the heights just northeast of Brookings and have already taken possession.

Wm. Hoff has sold his town house and three lots to Mr. and Mrs. Al Hopper who will take possession at the end of this week. Both transactions were handled through the Pete Lesmeister Agency.

Hale Adams, bother of Mrs. Lloyd Moss, left by air Tuesday for San Francisco.
