

Port Orford News

By Dorothy Asdel

Vacationing season is in full swing with many localities entertaining out-of-town and out-of state guests either travelling through or making this locality their destination.

One of the guests, a 17-year-old girl, having never seen a cow up close before was allowing a young calf to nuzzle her hand with the security of a fence in between. The calf was attracted to her pretty silk head-scarf and when he kept sniffing at it she removed it so he could smell it up closer. He nipped the corner of it and several inches of it disappeared, at which time she shrieked to the others in the group, which scared the calf off from the fence where he calmly munched the scarf, swallowing it bit by bit, and the shrieks and screams of its owner to no avail. Apparently his digestive processes did not know the difference as no ill effects were noticeable.

House guests entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Nick Marsh during the last week have included Mrs. Marsh's aunt and niece, Mrs. W. E. Patterson and Mrs. E. Beetham and four children from San Mateo, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Clato Dunn and daughter from Dickson, Calif., and Mrs. Pat Starr and daughter of Seattle.

Lt. Bruce Zumwalt, U. S. Inf., and his wife, Shirley, are visiting Bruce's parents, the H. W. Zumwalts until next week when they leave for Seattle where Lt. Zumwalt will embark for Japan about the middle of next month. His wife had planned to accompany him for his tour of duty there but will be unable to go because of the Korean war. The young Mrs. Zumwalt says that one of the highlights of her visit here is picking wild blackberries for pies and ganning and visiting a farm in Sixes to pick cherries as she has always lived in the city (Claremont, Calif.) where such treats are not to be had.

From Redwood City came Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Williams and daughter, Sally, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cooley, who recently moved from their home on the highway to one on Agate Beach road. Mrs. Williams is Mr. Cooley's sisiter.

An informal tea in honor of their house guests, Miss Frances Davis of Oakland, Calif., was given by Mrs. Charles Hensen last Wednesday. Among those on hand were Bishop and Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Robert LaBar. Miss Davis is Mr. Hensen's aunt and has recently retired from a long and successful career of teaching school.

Mrs. Henson and son, Robbie, are now visiting Mrs. Henson's mother, Mrs. George Bennett at Springfield and plan to be gone some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stone and four children of North Hollywood were vacationing here for a few days last week on their way home from a stay with friends at Bend.

One stranger in this area was looking for the house of a friend and noticed all of the yellow boxes in front of so many houses. Just as she was arriving in the vicinity of her friend's home she thought to look at the boxes a bit more closely for names of the residents and exclaimed: "There is one where the Oregonian's live, maybe the next box will be the one we want, and suddenly she realized that they were not mail boxes at all.

Staying with the Art Niemanns all week were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson of San Diego, who were on a combined business and pleasure trip. The Johnsons formerly lived on Hubbard Creek, south of town. They have been entertained constantly during their visit by their many friends, at dinners, luncheons and picnics.

In his new five-passenger plane Ed Kaakinen, who is owner of the Port Orford Fish Cannery, flew down from Westport for a short stay. Returning with him to Westport when he took off, were Mrs. Maizie Fournier and Mrs. Della Kane.

Miss Shirley McKenzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McKenzie, has set the date of her wedding to Aubrey VanLoo for Aug. 6, at the Presbyterian church at Bandon.

Mrs. Ivar Fristrom has just returned from an extended visit to Portland where she stayed with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Steel.

Other Portland visitors this week were Mr. and Mrs. Bernal Forty, Mr. Forty going for a medical checkup.

Owner and operator of the saw mill at Silver Springs, Ken Peterson and Mrs. Peterson, have just moved from their cottage at Zumwalt's Silver Springs motel into a home on the highway north of town where they will have more room for their household furnishings. The mill has been running steadily for several weeks now and added a night shift two weeks ago. Mr. Peterson says there are two or three jobs open on that shift.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mastropolitto who are staying with their son and daughter-in-law, the Jim Mastropolitto in Langlois, have been entertained by their many Port Orford friends, also and plan to leave shortly for their home at Los Angeles.

With The Churches Christian Scientist

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m. at the I. O. O. F. Hall. The public is invited.

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 30.

The Golden Text is "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God." (1 John 4:7).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "We love him, because he first loved us" (1 John 4:19), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is Love. More than this we cannot ask, higher we cannot look, farther we cannot go" (page 6)
