

SMITH RIVER

A family re-union which brought together the sisters and one brother of the Haight family, their children and grandchildren, all descendants of the late Daniel and Fanny Haight, pioneer settlers in this valley, was held Sunday at the community hall. Many of the relatives attended the morning church services at the local church with the message delivered by Rev. P. C. Knudsen. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Haight were among the founders of the church, dedicated in 1880.

Following the services at the church, relatives met at the hall where a ham and turkey dinner was served at noon. Relatives in the Smith River area were hosts for the affair. Everett Hursh was master of ceremonies.

The white linen-covered tables were centered with bowls of pom-pom dahlias, and covers were laid for 76 who were seated at the long tables. Following dinner the group spent the afternoon socially, renewing acquaintances. In the evening a buffet lunch was served. Among the daughters present were Eddie Westbrook, Ada Hursh, Henrietta Woodriff, of Smith River, Letsy Becksted of Carpenteria, Calif. and their brother Fred Haight. Three sisters were unable to be present due to illness were Mrs. Sophronia Hursh of Oregon City, Mrs. Lydia Packard of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Laura Cassidy of Portland.

The oldest one present was Eddie Westbrook, 86, and her great-granddaughter, Deborah Frances, 8 months, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Westbrook, was the youngest.

Plans were laid for the 1951 re-union, to be held near Portland.

Girl Scouts of this area who spent the week at Lake of the Woods Scout camp, returned to their homes Sunday. The girls say that they had a grand time. Motoring over Sunday to bring them home were Mr. and Mrs. James Curley and James Rooney.

The well-baby conference will again open on Aug. 16 at the community hall, from 9 to 12. All parents should make appointment with Mrs. Ethel Goodlin. This meeting will be open to all preschool children who may receive a check-up before entering school in September. Immunization shots and vaccinations are given to children at these conferences.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Goodlin are enjoying a visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Goodlin, of Honolulu, who are on a vacation. The Goodlins arrived at Oakland by airliner, to take a plane east where they purchased a '50 Buick. They then made a tour of the country, arriving here to visit relatives and friends before returning to the islands.

Community Club Seats Officers

July meeting of Harbor Community club was held at Grange hall July 28, with installation of officers for the coming year. Mabel McVay, assisted by the first president of the club, Bertha Moore, conducted the simple installation ceremonies for:

President—Jessie Becker.
Vice-president—Clara Hyland.
Secretary-treasurer—Margaret Rapraeger.

Out-going officers were Bertha Moore, president; Irma Rice, vice-president and Mae Simpson, secretary-treasurer.

An interesting talk was given by Bennie Fennell, stationed at the quarantine station at the state line. Visitors for the day included Jean Boardman, Bertha Wood, Mrs. S. A. Morrill, Vivian Hudson and Mrs. Hyland's sister. Refreshments were served by Myrtle Schaal, Ruth Bathiany and Eunice Wollam, assisted by Vi Hudson.
