

Couple Married At Port Orford, Sat.

PORT ORFORD—An important even of the week-end was the wedding of Miss Lou Ellen Flake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Flake, to William Crumrine, U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Crumrine of Newberg, at St. Christopher's Episcopal chapel, 8:00 p. m., Saturday. The rites were performed by Bishop Jenkins.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin and a fingertip veil held in place with a halo of seed pearls. Matron of honor, Mrs. Evelyn Crumrine, sister-in-law of the groom, wore rose-colored taffeta while the bridesmaids Miss Joan Studley and Miss Shirley Olson, wore aqua taffeta.

Miss Christine Cooley was the flower girl and Miss Rebecca Cooley ring bearer. Ushers were Melvin Crumrine, cousin of groom, and Jerry Studley.

A reception was held at the Parish hall. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hansen of Coos Bay and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Barnet of Coquille.

Following the reception the couple left immediately for their home at Newport, where the groom is stationed.

OTHE PORT ORFORD ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas have been hosts to several guests the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Burkard and grandsons, Danny Killian and Richie Burkard of Portland are visiting this week. Previously, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burkard, parents of Richie, stayed over on their way to San Francisco. The Thomas' daughter and husband, the John Macys, and their friend, Gordon Kunke, of Dallas, stopped briefly before continuing on to Southern California and Arizona. They plan to return shortly for a longer stay.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson on Elk River road are Mrs. Williamson's sisters, Mrs. F. S. Dickinson and son, Nat, of Seattle, and Mrs. Joseph Hungegate and son and daughter of Oberlin, Ohio.

Masonic and Eastern Star of Port Orford and Gold Beach enjoyed their annual summer picnic last Saturday at Humbug State Park. Many from here attended and enjoyed the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garwood and Wes Albers, both of Burbank, Calif., were guests of the John O'Haras last week.

Many friends welcomed the Jerry DeRosiers, former residents, when they were vacationing here at the Bert Wheeling home. Mr. DeRosier is Mrs. Bert Wheeling's brother. They have been living at Pasadena for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McKenzie have sold their home on the Hwy north of here to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sickles of Coquille, who have already installed their myrtlewood machinery in the store building adjacent. Mr. Sickles has done myrtlewood work for a number of years.

Returning this week from Vancouver, Wash., where they spent nearly three weeks visiting Mrs. Pratt's mother, Mrs. William Fich, were Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Pratt and their three children.

Mrs. Ethel Montgomery will be hostess to the Sunset Garden club at its regular meeting this Friday, Aug. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale King have moved to Brookings where Mr. King who has assisted on the highway engineering here, will be working to improve the highway south of Brookings to the state line. They came here from Medford a few months ago.

Moving into their spacious new home on the airport road last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall. Mr. Hall did much of the construction work on the house himself and it was in the building stage for some time, making the Hall family more than enthusiastic that it is now ready for occupancy.

Jack Ringheimer, whose family are former residents of the Hamlet, is spending the remaining summer vacation visiting his sister, Mrs. Bud Brown and family of Floras Lake road. Jack, whose eye was seriously injured by a flying of wood this spring, sees perfectly now after a long siege in the hospital at Portland under specialist's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Corbin of Gold Beach were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. Corbin's parents, the Tracy Corbins, and Mrs. Corbin's parents, the Robert Thoms. While here, they attended the Flake-Crumrine wedding and the McKenzie-VanLoo wedding.
