

Azalea Garden Club Plans Busy Year; Yearbooks Show 'Ambitious Program'

The 1950-1951 year for Azalea Garden Club will be a busy one if the yearbook is taken as criterion. Under presidency of Mrs. B. E. (Clara) Kerns, this club has set out the four projects: 1. To make the home more beautiful; 2. Conserve our wild flowers, native trees and birds; 3. Sponsor a 4-H club Scholarship; 4. Learn the art of flower arrangement. Special attention is being paid to the greatest club achievement, the flower show next year.

Taken from the yearbooks are these meeting topics:

July 13. Report of Flower Show by Mrs. Roy Weideman. Report on art exhibit by Mrs. Bob Perkins. Installation of officers and report on state federation meeting at Klamath Falls by Mrs. B. E. Kerns.

The August meeting, at which Vernon Goldizen was to have spoken on Beach Flora nad Marine Life, was postponed when death hit in the family of the club president.

Sept. 14 will be a pot luck luncheon at Azale State Park, when Mrs. Ruth Bathiany will identify all the tress and shrubs for the club members. Dahlia arrangements and specimens will be discussed by Mrs. Charles H. Grayshel.

At the Oct. 12 meeting a fall flower show will be the attraction, as well as a bulb sale. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Harry Smith, who will show colored slides of her trip to Peurto Rico last year.

November 9 Chrysanthemums will be discussed by Mrs. C. W. Judkins. Storage of bulbs will be the topic for Mrs. Ruth Bathiany and Thanksgiving table arrangements will be discussed.

A dessert luncheon will be the attraction of the Dec. 14 meeting when Mrs. Harry Lockland will conduct an Olde Tyme Xmas party. There will be a gift exchange of home-made or home-grown gifts.

The club will observe its anniversary at the January 11 affair, with the meeting being conducted by the past presidents.

Lloyd Moss will discuss Use Ferns in Your Garden at the February 8, meeting. Commercial Daffodils will be discussed by Mrs. Ray Streubing.

"Adventures in Camellias" by Mrs. Ruth Bathiany, will be the topic of the March 8 meeting. Mrs. Chester Maris will also discuss Chinese Line arrangements.

Mrs. Albert Joy will tell the members "How to Attract Birds to Our Gardens" at the April 12 meeting. Mrs. Frank Pallady has a message on wild flower law to tell, and the Junior gardeners will be exploited by Mrs. E. B. Mathews.

Discussion of Flower Show will take up the time at the May 10 meeting, with program ideas for the coming year to be submitted by members.

"History of Roses" will be the topic to be discussed June 14 by Mrs. Almo Newton. Flower arrangements will be made by members.

The foregoing is not the complete program, merely the topic for each monthly meeting.

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Sixes Grange held its regular social meeting Saturday. Final plans for the Curry County fair were discussed. If people who cannot take their own entries to the fair will leave them with Mrs. Clarence Hines of Port Orford, Henry Adolphson of Sixes Gerald Quinn at Denmark or Walter Slocum at Langlois on Thursday. The entries will be taken to the fair by P. K. Lantz.

Visiting at the W. C. Boice home during the past week were Mrs. Boice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hood of Corvallis; Mrs. Delma Howard and baby daughter of Albany; and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Eigeman and small daughter of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Eigeman, the former Virginia Baird, attended high school here.

Bob Smith of Jennings Lodge visited for a short time Sunday at the Frank Moore home.

Mrs. Norma Storm returned last week from a visit with her parents at Knight's Landing, California. Her two sisters, Imogene and Ardith Hodge, returned with her for a few days.

Roy Walters went to Coos Bay Sunday for an appointment with an optician.

Boys and girls of the area are busy buying their school clothes and preparing for school. Langlois schools will start Tuesday, Sept. 5. Grade school teachers will be D. F. Mitchell and Mesdames Donna Churchill, Eva Donaldson, Elna Rigik, and Ruth Murphy. High school teachers are Fred Pilling, Robert Thetford and one whose name has not been learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson of Sierra Madre, Calif., returned to their home last week after visiting several days with Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks.

Friday will be "Kid's Day" at Curry County fair at Gold Beach—a kid's parade will be held, with many prizes being given for best costumes, and best decorated doll buggies, coaster wagons, tricycles and bicycles. Each boy or girl who enters the parade, whether in costume or not, will receive a chance on a bicycle. Prizes in this contest will be a boys and girls bike. The bikes are being donated by Henry Adolphsen and the Union Oil Company, of Gold Beach.

Mrs. May Hollingsworth of Newberg and Mrs. Florence Brown of McMinnville visited 2 days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore. Mrs. Hollingsworth is Mr. Moore's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keehnell of Los Angeles, who own property in Harbor, which they developed to a certain extent a few years ago, are visiting in the area, with idea of returning here to compete development. They are staying at the Brad Page home while here.

OPHIR NOTES

By Marian Miller

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Voelcker and family have moved into the house vacated by the Earl Ruby family at Arizona Inn. Mr. Voelcker is the new principal at the Ophir schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnston are on a trip to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnston of Schenectady, N. Y., have been visiting at the home of his father, Victor Johnston.

Mrs. Ida Sherman and twins, Carl and Carol, of Coquille, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams.

Mrs. Pete Miller of Myrtle Point is visiting at the home of her sisters, Mrs. Dick Guthrie. She brought her little daughter, Connie Stevens, who has been in Myrtle Point for the past two weeks, back to her home here.

Mrs. Fred Adams had the misfortune of breaking her ankle last Wednesday.

Mrs. Frances Burris, who will teach at Gold Beach this year, has moved into one of the C. M. Gray cabins.

Dave Thompson has returned Dave Thompson has returned from Portland. He announces he will attend Lewis & Clark College, Portland, this year.

Ophir Grange H. E. C. met at the home of Mrs. Orville Phipps at Gold Beach last Tuesday.

Ophir Community is really on the busy side these days. New people are moving in nearly every day and many are looking for living quarters, and not able to find them. The cause—mills and logging. There are now four mills in the immediate area.

Johnny Snyder of Bandon is visiting friends and relatives in Ophir.

J. S. Allen went to Coquille Thursday, and returned Friday.

Ophir high and grade schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 5. We have had a long and lovely vacation but most of us will be glad to go back to school. (Hush, boys—I'm trying to make this sound good).

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Ingram of Orinda, Calif., have purchased the three ocean frontage lots of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Collis of Brookings. The Ingrams have already returned from their trip to their former home in California and are now prepared to start construction of a home on their newly-acquired property.

Another transaction of interest is the sale of two acres and the dwelling of the J. E. Lawrence property near the mouth of the Chetco to Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Duvall of DeMotte, Indiana. The Duvalls formerly owned property near the Winchuck river, sold before departing for Indiana some three years ago. The lure of the west has again beckoned and it is expected the Duvalls will be here to stay when they return to Brookings, about the last of September.

Both transfers were handled by Bob Perkins of the Pete J. Lesmeister agency.

LOCAL NEWS

The Pilot and Typo-print, to be known henceforth as A. & S. Printing Company, will have a complete display of printing, office supplies, typewriters, adding machines, etc at the Curry Co. fair, set for this week-end. This firm has county franchise also for Eagle A fine papers, to be used in all printing when asked.
