

Port Orford News

By Dorothy Asdel

With school days looming so close on the horizon, the teaching staff for both grade and high schools has been made known by Joseph Kampa, superintendent. A fuller program of musical instruction has been added to the curriculum also.

Mrs. Frances Kirtland, grade school principal, will teach first grade. Mrs. Alice Johnson, Mrs. Esther Absten, Mrs. Mildred Russell and a new teacher, Miss Minnie Malloy, complete the group. Miss Mallory has taken the place of Mrs. Cherry Rohner, who resigned recently so she might devote more time to operating the Castaway Lodge.

Making up the high school faculty will be Mrs. Vernice Masterson, Preston Rohner and Kampa, plus three new members, Andrew McCornack, Robert Tierman and a young woman whose name has not yet been announced at this moment.

Because of the popularity of once-a-week band instruction last year under direction of Chas. Jensen, many requests came for a more complete musical program. Jensen has been engaged to teach three one-hour classes, five mornings a week. These include beginner's band, advanced band and accompanying group singing in classes.

Sept. 5, opening day, will be a short morning session with no lunch being served in the cafeteria. However, hot lunches will be served from Wednesday on, according to present plans with Mrs. Laura Miller in charge of the lunch room, assisted by Mrs. Mary Lee Anderson and Mrs. Fern Townley.

Bus drivers will be the same as last year. George Asdel will have the Highway-Cape Blanco run; Chet Kirtland the Elk River, Garrison Lake and Coast Guard routes and Val Townley the Sixes River run.

A new coat of paint is being given the high school gym on the outside from the roof to the foundation. The boys' showers are being remodeled for better heating.

Ariel MacDonald, grade school custodian, had been painting the window sashes. New custodian of the high school will be Howard Faught, who graduated from there in May.

Preparing his horses to enter in the Coos and Curry county fairs is Harold Knapp. He is training, exercising and grooming Hapenny and the palomino, Goldie, and polishing and shining their saddles and bridles. He will enter them in the parade and races. These horses, with Neil, his younger brother, and Harold, have taken prizes at previous fairs.

From far and near localities are returning home to settle after vacations and summer schooling: Miss Sunny Leonard is home after attending summer school at Vanport College. She is making plans to attend University of Oregon, Eugene, this fall.

Driving from Seattle with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calder and son Jimmy, was Mrs. J. A. Absten. Mrs. Absten took courses at University of Washington this summer. The Calders are spending the vacation here with the Abstens and Mrs. Calder's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Leak.

Mrs. Frances Kirtland is home from summer school at Portland and brought her grandson, Lester, for a short visit.

Mrs. Mildred Russell attended classes in Kansas and visited her relatives and friends while away.

Staying at the home of Mrs. Mary Lee Anderson are her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. O'Grady, and sons, Timmy and Tommy, of Altadena, Calif., and her brother, Thurman Wilkins of New York City. Mrs. Anderson returned home with her sister after vacationing for two months in Altadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson of Salem are on an extended visit here, staying at the Knapp ranch. They plan to leave soon for Santa Rosa, Calif.

The only representative of this area attending the annual 4-H picnic at Jerry's Flat on Rogue River were Neil Knapp and his mother, Mrs. Orris Knapp. Neil is a member of the 4-H cattle club here.

Members and friends of the Community church surprised the minister, Jack Barker, and his wife, by a house-warming Tuesday evening. The Barkers and baby boy will live here permanently at the parsonage to the rear of the church. Many items to help furnish the home and fill the cupboards were received. For nearly two years the Barkers drove here to preach, each week-end, from Eugene, where he was attending the Northwest Christian College.

Again last week the volunteer firemen were called to quell a chimney fire at the Studley residence on the highway. Many have been the calls of this nature recently, but fortunately, no serious fires have resulted.

Word has been received from Klamath Falls that the Louis Strids have a new baby daughter, Anna Marie. Strid taught at the high school last year.

Miss Estaline Stevens of Sixes River road recently bought a riding horse from Mrs. Bryant of Rock Creek. It is a gelding, called Rocket.

Fair enthusiasts, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adolphson attended the Del Norte county fair and last week the Coos county fair at Myrtle Point. Accompanying them to the Coos fair were Mrs. Martha O'Hara, Mrs. Mary Lee Anderson, Mrs. Mary Woodworth and niece, Crista Lee McKenzie.

Until the next quarter at the University of Washington begins Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heavy and small daughter, Sandra, of Seattle are living here. Mrs. Heavy is the daughter of J. A. Absten. Mr. Heavy will attend the university for the coming year.

Neil Knapp, son of Orris Knapp, and Brooks Wagner, son of Paul Wagner, spent part of last week at Myrtle Point at the fair where Neil entered the Knapp horses.

Word has been received that Lt. Bruce Zumwalt, U. A. army, has arrived at Tokyo, having flown there. When Lt. Zumwalt was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Zumwalt recently, he hadn't expected to leave for his tour of duty in Japan until the end of this month.

Diane Masters Was Wed In California

From Glendale, Calif., came the news of the marriage of Miss Diane Masters, former student of Brookings High. The wedding is described in the following clipping, taken from the Glendale newspaper:

In candlelit Ivy Chapel of No. Glendale Methodist church, Miss Hazel Diane Masters, daughter of the W. H. Masters, of 121 So. Kenwood, exchanged wedding vows with Don Gein Weber, son of Mrs. E. R. Weber and the late Mr. Weber of Sherman Oaks. The double-ring ceremony was solemnized Saturday afternoon with Rev. William H. Merwin officiating.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, William James Masters, the bride was gowned in white satin. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bridal arrangement of gardenias, orange blossoms, orchids and delphinium.

For sentiment, the bride wore an heirloom ring which had originally belonged to her great-grandmother and has been passed down through the daughters of the family as they became brides. Her pearls were the gift of her parents and she carried a lace handkerchief borrowed from the bridegroom's mother.

Mrs. S. A. Clenard, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Her pink organza gown was fashioned with bouffant skirt and she carried lavender gladioli, white carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. Weber chose his brother, Jack, as best man. James Weber, another brother, seated guests with a background of traditional wedding selections, which included "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed the ceremony in the church lounge. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Masters chose rose bieve satin with matching hat and black accents. Her corsage was orchids. Mrs. Weber wore black velvet, with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. Assisting the hostesses was another sister of the bride, Mrs. H. E. Hudock, who had charge of the guest book.

After a n extended wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Reno and Carson City, the couple will be at home in Sherman Oaks. The bride departed in an aquamarine suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Weber was a 1949 graduate of Glendale High, was active with the World Fellowship Group, Philharmonic and Commerce clubs. Her husband is a graduate of Van Nuys high and attended Los Angeles City College. Both are native Californians * * *

In her sophomore year, the bride attended Brookings high. While here she had a wide circle of friends, who will be glad to learn of her wedding.

LOCAL NEWS

Word from Mrs. Mildred Bryne written at Chicago, said she and daughter Joan had left their car at Denver, had taken the train to Chicago, and from there were going on to New York where the two expected to attend at least one session of the United Nations organizations. Joan will be a sophomore at Oregon State this fall.

R. D. Rowley, who suffered a painful eye injury last week as emery dust hit the eyeball, went to Medford Monday to consult a specialist. He is an employe at Swan's planer. His family accompanied him to Medford.

REMOVAL SALE

We are moving to our new location about September

5. Men, women and children apparel will be sold at

DRASTIC REDUCTIONS —the following is a partial list. There are too many to list in this space:

- LADIES BLOUSES, each $1.99
- LADIES GIRDLES, each $1.49
- LADIES BRASSIERES, each , 75c
- LADIES BRASSIERES, each $1.25
- LADIES KRINKLE CREPE GOWNS, each $2.50
- LADIES LARGE SLIPS, each $2.50
- GIRLS DRESSES, each $1.95
- GIRLS PANTIES, each 25c
- MENS T-SHIRTS, each 50c
- MENS BRIEFS, each 50c
- BOYS FLANNEL SHIRTS, each 98c
- BOYS COAT SWEATERS, each 98c
- BOYS WOOL PANTS, each $2.50
- BOYS SLIP-OVER SWEATERS, each 98c
- BOYS TAN JEANS, each 98c

These items must go to make room for our new stock. It will be your gain to be there early!!

The Town Shop

Crissey Building

Brookings, Oregon

STANDARD INSURANCE'S
"GOLDEN YEARS' PLAN"
 IS THE BEST SAVINGS METHOD
 EVER DEvised . . . SEE
EVA LEA LONG
 For Details, at P. J. Lesmeister's office