

Boy Designers Win $20,000 in Scholarships

UNIVERSITY BOUND—Eight youthful craftsmen were awarded university scholarships valued at $20,000 at the annual banquet of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild in Detroit's Book-Cadillac Hotel. Ranging in value from $1,000 to $4,000 each, the awards were given for proficiency in design and construction of miniature model automobiles entered in the 20th annual

Visitors at the W. W. Smith home for the past week have been Mrs. H. E. Harris of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pautz of Portland. They were neighbors of Mr. Smith while he resided in Portland.

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

A good many sunburns are now being enjoyed by the large number of northern Curry people who attended the Curry Co. fair at Gold Beach.

Courtney Merrillod and daughter, Mary, went to Southern California last week and returned Saturday. Two other daughters, Patty and Beverly, who had been in California for the summer, returned with them.

Word has been received by Frank Moore that his sister-in-law, Mrs. O. L. Moore, was killed instantly near Tigard, Aug. 31, when the car she and her husband were riding in was hit broadside by a truck. Mr. Moore was seriously injured and is in a Portland hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Moore lived in Langlois last winter and spring while Mr. Moore was working on Dinty's new building.

The Langlois Cheesemakers have an exhibition booth at the State Fair, which is being held in Salem this week. Mr. Weldon, sales manager at the factory, and Sixes Grange will hold its regular meeting Saturday, Sept. 9, at the hall.

Alma Elizabeth Britton

Alma Elizabeth Britton died Monday, August 28, at Mast hospital, Myrtle Point after a long illness.

She was born June 2, 1890, at Lake Crystal, Minn., and spent her early life in that state. She moved to Langlois in 1922, where she taught at both the Langlois schools. She was married to Albert Britton in 1929, at Langlois, and lived there, later moving to Denmark.

She is survived by her widower, Albert, two daughters, Albertine Jeanne, Denmark, and Mrs. Alma Enslinger, Eugene; a son, Albert Jr., Denmark; one granddaughter, four step-daughters, Mrs. Marshall Griffin, Crescent City, Calif.; Mrs. Don Burk of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Chas. Rau, Ankara, Turkey; and Mrs. Keith Mintonye, Coquille; two brothers, Charles and Bert Carlson of Minnesota; four sisters, Mrs. Anna Schilling, Miss Sara Carlson, and Miss Effie Carlson, all of Portland; and Mrs. W. P. Laws of Coquille.

Funeral services were held on Friday, Sept. 1, at Langlois gymnasium. The Rev. W. W. Winquist of Bandon Baptist church officiated. Interment was at the Denmark cemetery.
