

Charlotte Royer Weds At Culver City, California

In a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Royer, former residents of the Gilmore Ranch, up the Winchuck, now of Culver City, the Pilot was favored with the following account of the wedding of their daughter:

At a formal evening ceremony in St. Augustine-B y-T h e-S e a Episcopal church, Saturday, Miss Charlotte Lucille Royer became the bride of Donald A. Thomas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Royer, 4153 Jasmine Ave., Culver City, and Mr. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas, 4057 Rosabelle Ave., Venice.

The lovely old church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and larkspur with trailing variegated ivy. Bouquets of white flowers filled the altar vases and sprays of asparagus fern were fastened in wall brackets along the nave of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father with Rev. Wallace N. Pierson officiating. She wore a princess style gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline and stand-up collar, duchess sleeves and full flaring skirt with chapel train.

Seed pearl embroidery outlined the neck and collar of her gown and was repeated around the edge of her Juliet cap of chantilly lace. Her fingertip length veil was of nylon net and she carried a shower of white gladioli and stephanotis centered with a detachable corsage of white orchids.

Miss Peggy Cornwall was maid of honor in a frock of pale green organdy over taffeta with wide taffeta sash and bow. It was fashioned with high round neckline, cap sleeves and circular skirt. She wore a heart-shaped halo of pink antherium and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of the same flowers backed with green satin edged with matching net.

The bridesmaids wore yellow organdy over taffeta with high neckline, cap sleeves and full-gathered skirts with wide sashes and bows. They wore bandeaux of yellow roses and carried Italian baskets in pale lavender with bouquets of long-stemmed yellow roses. Miss Byrna Schultz, Beverly Shonkwiler and Joan Nichols were bridesmaids.

Misses Deborah Trempe and Janice Thomas, nieces of bridegroom, were flower girls in Kate Greenway frocks of pale green organdy over taffeta with matching taffeta gloves and sweetheart bonnets of organdy. They carried tiny yellow baskets outlined with yellow rosebuds and filled with yellow rose petals.

Clarence Thomas was best man for his brother and another brother, William Thomas, ushered with Messrs Gerald Burright and William Cox.

More than 250 guests were received later at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother appeared in an afternoon gown of old rose crepe with navy blue accessories and corsage of pale orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore black crepe with sequin trim and deep purple orchid.

Floral decorations for the reception carried out the white white flowers mixed with variegated ivy theme used in the church. A bank of flowers backed the buffet table which was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake. The bride's aunt, Miss Vera Roper, presided over the punch bowl.

The couple left by automobile for a honeymoon at Carmel. The bride was in a dressmaker suit of navy blue wool gabardine, with navy trimmed white hat and navy accessories. She wore the orchids from her wedding bouquet.

Both young people were graduated from Venice High School. While at Venice the bride was a Junior Delphian, Letter Girl, G. A. A., Venetian Lady, Chatelaine, Girl of the Semester and speaker for her graduating class. She later attended Los Angeles City College. Mr. Thomas is in the carpentry business with his brother. The will be at home at 3991 Marcaseal Ave., Mar Vista, following the honeymoon.

The bride once attended the Harbor school while living on the Gilmore ranch, up the Winchuck river.

Buys New Truck

Bert DeMoss and Ray Olsen took delivery Monday of a LF212 International truck through the Davis Truck and Tractor. The owners have leased the equipment to Task Freight Lines, Inc. to haul lumber from the area.

Davis Truck and Tractor is a new concern to the community, but already has gained considerable prestige among the truckers through the service the concern is able to give.
