

Port Orford

By Dorothy Asdel

Under direction of Mrs. Evelyn Lyle, the Treble Clef Chorus resumed practice last Tuesday evening at the high school. Any woman in the community who enjoys choral singing is invited to attend regularly. The second soprano section especially needs new members. The group is beginning work on Christmas music. Practices are held each Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:00 p. m. Mrs. Gladys Hoy is accompanist.

Ira Tucker, chairman of the Battle Rock Centennial Association, has announced that the following committee chairmen have been appointed and have accepted appointments: John Masterson will head the finance committee; Elmer Raymo, publicity chairman and Mrs. Hazel Knapp, program.

At the last meeting of that association it was decided to form a permanent organization for a yearly celebration and to elect officers annually. Officers for this year besides the chairman are: Mrs. Docia Sweet, assistant; Mrs. Adaline Niemann, secretary and Art Niemann, treasurer. Members of the steering committee are Tucker, Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Elaine Crose, Wesley Spencer, and Val Townley.

Next meeting will be held on Oct. 13, at 8 p. m. at the high school assembly room. All representatives of local organizations and any others interested in the project are invited to attend.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hinderlie were Mrs. Hinderlie's sister and family from Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Erickson and daughter, Janice.

From Newport over the week-end came Mr. and Mrs. William Crumrine to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Flake. Crumrine is stationed with the coast guard at Newport.

Visitors last Thursday at the Oregon Coast Berry Co., propagators of blueberries, were C. A. Boller, blueberry horticulturist and Dr. R. E. Stephenson, soils specialist from Oregon State College, Corvallis. They were in the area on a cranberry tour. Others on the tour who visited all major cranberry bogs in Coos and Curry counties were R. Ralph Clark, extension horticulturist, Mr. Steenlap, plant pathologist, Dr. Crowley of the Washington state experiment station at Long Beach, Wash., and Jack Wood of the Coos county agent's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tiernan and family were week-end visitors at Salem. They attended homecoming celebration at OSC and saw the OSC team go down fighting a the hands of Stanford.

Here from Astoria for several days as guests of the Pete Raasinas were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haines and family.

Regular meeting of Sunset Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Leta Hoggatt, on Friday at 2 p. m.

Many interesting facts on dry cleaning at home were learned by more than 20 members of the Port Orford home extension unit last Friday afternoon at their first meeting of the year, held in the home of the unit president, Mrs. Evelyn McDonald. Dorothy Newton gave the demonstration part of which had to be omitted because of the stormy weather, making it impossible to dry clean any major item out of doors. Other officers for the coming year are Mrs. Lucille Estabrook, vice-chairman and Mrs. Bee Cooley, secretary-treasurer. A special guest at the meeting was Miss Newton's mother, Mrs. O. L. Newton, of Coquille, who spent the week-end with her daughter.

The first lesson in square dancing last Thursday by Mrs. Jessalee Mellalieu, home extension recreational specialist of Corvallis, was a great success, according to those who attended. There were than eight squares, well crowding the multi-purpose room of the grade school, in spite of the rainy weather. All attending danced and learned the rudiments of this old-time dancing. There will be three more meetings conducted by the instructor. One will be in this month and two in November.

suitable materials.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hale left Sunday afternoon for Hawthorne, Nevada, and they expect to return Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brooks and family were guests of honor at a going-away party held at Sixes Grange hall, last Wednesday. The Brooks are moving to Tule Lake shortly.

At a meeting of the Langlois Girl Scouts, held last Wednesday at the grade school gym, Mrs. Swinney, leader of the Couille Girl Scouts, presented membership pins to the following girls: Judy Jensen, Pat Bruchler, Donna Longanecker, Jeannette Thompson, Delores Bruchler, Velma Ann White, Arlene Kerber, Thelma Tucker, Mildred Robbins, Joan Cox, Jean Sypher and Deanna Churchill. Mrs. Archie Aldropp is resuming the leadership of the girls.

The annual carnival is to be held by the Langlois high school student body on Oct. 13 at the gym. Four princesses: Donna Hofsess, Mary Mermilliod, Shirley Phillips, and Iris Robbins, are busy selling votes: These votes are also chances on a ham. There will be a variety of booths for fun for all.

Little Shirley Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown, celebrated her fourth birthday with a party at her home Sunday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Margaret McClure and Kathleen and Danny; Mrs. Lucille McFarland and Judy; Mrs. S. W. Brown and Nancy; Mrs. Albro and Terry, Floyd and Rosetta; Mrs. Frank Kenworthy; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Britton.

Pvt. Everett Smith, 19, whose brother is Paul Smith, Langlois, has reported to Lackland Air Force Base, the gateway to the airforce for basic training.

Realty Transfers

The Pete J. Lesmeister Agency reports considerable activity in real estate sales for the first week in October. The major transaction was perhaps the sale of the Ben E. Kerns home in Brookings to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Matot of Petaluma, Calif. The Matots with their three children expect to take possession about Oct. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Kern, in turn, purchased an attractive ocean-front homesite from Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Low.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wendorf or Harbor have sold their home to Don C. Yarnell of Underwood, Wash., who recently started his logging operations here. Mr. Wendorf's ill health has necessitated this change.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pruess of Clackamas, Ore., have purchased the Floyd Bolton property, a part of the Kindel tract near the mouth of the Chetco. It is understood the Boltons will move to California to be nearer other relatives.

Lawrence Gault who has taken a position in Roseburg has sold his home off Pioneer road to Mrs. Allie B. Weaver, Grants Pass. Mrs. Weaver will now be next door neighbor to her son, Crawford Weaver, who had previously bought the Cecil Travis home.

LOCAL NEWS

Several Gold Beach Rotarians were in town Tuesday noon to attend the local club luncheon when Gov. Joe Breckel paid his official visit. Gov. Breckel helped the Gold Beach members with a few details, and assured them that a charter was just a matter of clearing up a few details, inadvertently omitted in the application a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Breckel of Vancouver, Wash., arrived here

Monday afternoon to spend that evening and the next morning conferring with the Rotary club members. Joe Breckel, governor for Dist. No. 154, Rotary International, paid his official visit to the local club, and conferred with members of the provisional Gold Beach club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Craig returned home Monday after enjoying several weeks trip which took them to Glacier National Park, Yellowstone, Lake Louise and Banff in Canada, and to Walla Walla where they visited their son Kenneth and his family.

Wart, the Speed Cop By GOLDIZEN AND DARLING

BROOKINGS GARAGE
GUARANTEED AUTOMOTIVE REPAIRING
Free Estimates Phone 134

BEAUTIFY
WITH BOYSEN'S
Paints, Varnishes and Enamels
Wallpapers, Domestic and imported
Venetian Blinds.
Phone 363, Smith River
Roy Wilkinson, Smith River, Calif.

NORINE HARVEY
TEACHER OF
PIANO, VOICE, PIPE-ORGAN
Life Certificate High School Credits For Studio Bldg., Brookings Accredited Pupils

BERT DeMOSS
Box 207 Telephone 344, Brookings
DELCO-REMY AUTO-LITE
PROTO and S. & K. TOOLS
Hein-Werner Hydraulic jacks; Gates Belts and hose. Prestone Anti-freeze. Bert DeMoss
Dimmick Building Brookings, Oregon

Pacific
Engine & Machine Works
CRESCENT CITY, CALIF.
PHONE 2341
LESCHEN WIRE ROPE
ESCO FITTINGS

M. G. BECKER
Real Estate Broker
Hotel Brookings North End
PHONE 594
Office open all day Saturday,
also Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Lot, 80x420 feet in desirable
location for $800.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS? One
acre of beautiful ocean frontage
for $1500.

2 acres mostly cleared, 3 miles
from Brookings, just off Hwy.
101, ocean view. Has partly finished building which could be made liveable with some fixing.
Wonderful spring, myrtlewood
trees, $1500 cash.

Two-room cottage, bath, garage, lovely ocean view, beach frontage. About 1/2-acre, beautiful setting among trees. Ideal for couple. A real buy for $4500.

Good income property available
on easy terms.

I have some excellent business opportunities in Curry County available to cash customers.

Other homes, ocean frontage,
lots and acreage.

I Sell The Earth!

LANGLOIS NEWS
By Nancy Moore

"Dry Cleaning at Home" was the subject of the last meeting of the Langlois Home Extension unit, which was held Thursday, Oct. 5, at the home of Mrs. Pauline Anderson. Elsie Quinn resigned as secretary and Ethelene Thompson was appointed in her place. A business meeting was held in the morning, during which the meeting places for the following year were arranged and committee chairmen were appointed. They are: Membership-hospitality, Pauline Anderson; luncheon, Frances Autrey; publicity, ana Moore; 4-H club, Pauline Anderson; Azalea House, Helen Fain; library, Florence Thorhaven. A sack lunch was enjoyed at noon with dessert and coffee being served by the hostess. Dorothy Newton, county HDA, presented the topic of the meeting during which the members learned spot cleaning, various types of cleaning solutions, safety factors to be considered, and did actual work of cleaning a rayon dress and neckties. The members present were Mesdames Marian Brooks, Jean Strain, Pauline Anderson, Nana Moore, Lorane Zimmerman, Lillian Berg, Frances Autrey, Arlene Thetford, Mary Burgess, Ethelene Thompson, Florence Thorhaven, Elsie Quinn and Eulla Mastropolito. The next meeting will be held at Mary Burgess' in November. The subject of this meeting will be "Holiday Decoration" and members are asked to gather