

Brookings-Harbor Pilot

Nowhere A Finer Climate - Nowhere a Finer Community

VOLUME FIVE, NUMBER XXXIV

BROOKINGS, CURRY COUNTY, OREGON

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1950

O. C. A. Plans For Confab, Coos Bay

Annual conference of Oregon Coast Association will be held November 12, 13 and 14, at Coos Bay, and OCA officials announced this week that extensive preparations are being made for reception and entertainment of hundreds of leaders and guests from throughout the eight-county area served by the association in Oregon and Del Norte County, Calif.

During this three-day conclave operation and production plans for the second fiscal year will be blue-printed, stock taken of results accomplished, plans will be adopted for attainment of new projects.

Travel promotion during 1951 will be especially significant because of defense developments, in the opinion of Verne Tinnerstet of Tillamook, manager of the association.

Interesting luncheon and dinner functions will feature noted speakers well acquainted with the tourist and resort business, recreational facilities and highways. Coos county hosts plan special entertainment.

The convention will be presided over by Wm. R. Manion, of Seaside, president of the association.

Locals Attended Eugene "Parade"

Attending the Eugene Parade of Quartets Saturday night from this area were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grayshel and Bob Perkins. Gene Gould, student at University of Oregon, joined them. The group report that it was a great show and that the audience of 1800 literally "ate it up." One of the outstanding quartets was the Oswego Lake Four, who were called back for five encores. This foursome will appear on the local show, Oct. 28 and 29. About 20 people at Eugene told Bob Perkins and Grayshel that they were looking forward to their trip to Brookings.

Last Rites Held For County Pioneer

GOLD BEACH—Funeral services were held at Bandon, Oct. 11 for Rena Averill Mavity, who had died the previous Friday.

She is survived by her widower, Will Mavity, of Bandon, and a son, Loren Gilbert of Reedsport, besides her step-mother, Mrs. W. H. Averill of Corvallis; two sisters, Mina Fruitt and Lucina Averill, and brothers, Ed, Moss, Henry, William, Lynn, Warren Averill and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Ralph Nilsson, Mrs. Oleta Walker and Mrs. Vernon Jarrett, all of Gold Beach, went to Bandon for the services, for their aunt.

The ladies missionary society of the Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Stevenson. A report on the Baptist convention held at Roseburg, was heard.

Rexall 1c Sale Billed Thursday To Monday

The annual Rexall 1c sale is booked at the Chetco Drug, reports T. W. Zenier, beginning today and running through next Monday. This sale has become world famous for its savings. Another article is given for 1 cent more than the purchase price of the article.

Fish Catches Are Reported Heavy

To obtain a list of people who, in the past week, have made salmon catch would be like you were trying to count the hair on your head. Few, who have tried, have come home empty-handed.

Mrs. Faye Hayes, at Cedar Lane Cannery, told the Pilot on Tuesday that 250 fish had been brought to that place for canning, Sunday. More than 50 of these were from the Chetco.

For his first experience, Rev. John Mumbower has been rewarded with a big one, and he had friends in for a "fish bake."

Mrs. Vivian Hudson Married, Oct. 9

Announcements have been received by friends telling of the marriage of Mrs. Vivian Hudson, sister of Mrs. Missouri Tolman, and former Harbor resident, to Bastiaan Begeer, of Santa Rosa, Oct. 9 at the Congregational church.

The couple will make their home at Santa Rosa until the middle of December when they will be at home at Calistoga.

Mrs. Tolman returned from Santa Rosa Monday after attending the wedding, and visiting relatives for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Begeer is father of Bill Begeer, who is well known by old timers of the Chetco area.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Graham left last week for San Diego to spend the winter as is their custom.

They Out-Mills Mills Brothers

Lake Oswego Four: reading left to right: John VanLewen, tenor; Lou Lavacheck, lead; C. F. Corbett, baritone; and Mark Beach, bass, who make this quartet one of the most popular singing groups in the west. They have been smash hits on hundreds of shows, including radio hook-ups. Their style is somewhat like that of the Mills Bros. with comedy thrown in. This group will be one of the hits of the Parade of Barbershop Quartets here Oct. 28 and 29, at the Pine Cone Theatre.

Chicken Dinner Set For Masons, Saturday Eve

GOLD BEACH—All Master Masons of Curry county are invited to attend a chicken dinner and program provided by Cape Sebastian chapter, No. 57, R. A. M., at the Masonic hall, here next Saturday evening at 7:30. There will be no charges, the spokesman for the chapter said.

C. Of C. Business Meet Booked At Grange Hall

October meeting of Brookings Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday evening at the Grange hall, at eight. This is a business meeting, with no dinner being served.

Everyone in the area is urged to be present as many important matters will come up for discussion.

Fishing Sought By Barbershoppers

Many requests for boat accommodations have been received from men who will appear on the Parade of Quartets, Oct. 28 and 29. Among these is John Houston, director of the Klamath Fall chorus. Last year he didn't allow himself enough time

If you have rooms you can rent to barbershop singers, on Oct. 28, please register them with Ray Guerrettaz, phone 578.

in Brookings to spend a day on the Chetco but this year, according to him: "Things will be different."

Al Pearce, angling enthusiast of many years, says: "I hope the salmon are biting, I hope, I hope, I hope." Al accepted the master of ceremonies chores here in order that he might try his luck on the Chetco.

Dr. Adams, president of the Klamath Falls chapter, took home his limit of salmon last year and expects to do a repeat performance.

101 Travel Over That of Last Year

Traffic flow at the California-Oregon line on Highway 101 jumped 20 per cent in September this year over September a year ago, according to the Oregon Coast Association.

Summer travel on the Oregon Coast Highway, 101, was heaviest in the history of this highway with a 12 per cent increase over last year's travel.

Increased travel on the Oregon coast is attributed to vigorous publicizing by the Oregon Coast Association of all scenic, vacation and recreational attractions of the eight-county area served by the association.

Earl Pallady of Los Angeles is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ida Hubbell for a few weeks

Two Couple Wed At Port Orford

PORT ORFORD—Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Logan, became the bride of Myron Livermore, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Livermore, at a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Jack Barker at the Community church last Saturday at 7:00 p. m. Only members of the immediate families and a few friends were present.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a grey-blue satin and lace afternoon frock, and carried a bouquet of red rose buds and stephanotis. Mrs. D. L. Sigrud, groom's sister, was her only attendant, and wore navy blue and carried a nosegay of rubrum lilies and red roses. Best man was Wayland Livermore, brother of the groom. Usher was Raymond McCloud. Mrs. Frances Price played several appropriate selections at the piano as well as the wedding march.

A reception was held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Livermore, following which the newly-weds left on a wedding trip. The bride's going away suit was tan tweed with brown accessories. The couple will be at home next week at the Windmaiser apartments.

Both bride and groom attended Port Orford high school and were prominent in student activities. The bride was recently northern Curry's candidate for queen at the Curry county fair.

A pre-nuptial affair, honoring the bride-to-be, was a shower given at the home of Mrs. Miles Hartwell last Thursday evening. The honored guest received many practical and lovely gifts.

PORT ORFORD—In a quiet ceremony at the Community church last Wednesday evening at 8:00 Miss Laurel Carter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Carter of Brookings and Clarence Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Corbin were united in marriage. Rev. Jack Barker read the vows.

The bride wore a soft yellow suit and corsage of pale pink carnations. Her sister, Joyce, was her only attendant. Allan Corbin of Gold Beach, brother of the groom, was best man. Only members of the families and a few close friends were present.

The newlyweds are at home in Port Orford where the groom is employed while awaiting his call to the U. S. Army, which he expects any day.

Rain Halts Road Work South Of Harbor, Mon.

The rain, Monday, halted all highway work south of Harbor, when mud became too much for men and machinery to manage. Work will be resumed after the rain halts sufficiently long to dry out the new fills and cuts.

The lay-off affected quite a number of men.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. John Kinney that they are now settled near Estacada, Oregon, where they are employed.

House Bros. Popular With Locals

Pictured here are the House Brothers, who have endeared themselves to thousands of Barbershop Harmony fans who have heard their silk-smooth arrangements on dozens of quartet parades and over national radio hook-ups. They are but one of the top-notch foursomes slated to sing here on the Parade of Quartets, Oct. 28 and 29. This affair is sponsored by the local S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A.