

Gold Beach Lady Weds Wash. Man

GOLD BEACH — Mrs. Ruth Briggs became the bride of Ted Kenworthy, of Chehalis, Wash., Sunday, Oct. 8, at her home at Gold Beach. The bride wore a blue suit with an orchid corsage and was attended by her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Marsh, who wore a dark green suit with a corsage of red rosebuds. The groom was attended by his son, Ray Kenworthy.

The guests attended the weddings were Mrs. E. Walsh, aunt of the bride, of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Marsh and son of Eugene; Ray and Donna Kenworthy, son and daughter of the groom, of Chehalis; Doris McNeil of Chehalis; Charles Briggs, son of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Buzz Messinger; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phipps and two children of Gold Beach.

A buffet dinner was served after the ceremony and the couple left immediately for a short trip to Bremerton, Puyallup and Chehalis. They expect to return soon and make their home here.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Dana of Portland were visitors at their summer home here over the week-end. Mr. Dana, editor of Portland Journal editorial page, is a great booster of this area, and visits as frequently as he possibly can.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jones of San Francisco, former residents of this area, spent the past week-end here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Powell of the Bay area, and daughter and granddaughter, were visitors for several days at the C. N. Goldizen home. Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Goldizen are sisters. Mr. Powell is in the building business, but has been in ill health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan left Monday for Cloverdale, Calif., for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, former residents of this area. Mr. Hogan, agent for Battleship Roofing, is expecting to make the trip at least profitable en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley were callers in the north end of the county last Friday on business.

A going-away party was held at the Baptist church, following services, Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Bill West, who soon will move to Portland where Bill will enter Bible school. The Wests were given some luggage by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Asdel of Port Orford, were business visitors in this area Friday, to call on prospects for blueberry plantings. Mr. and Mrs. Asdel founded Oregon Coast Berry Co., propagators of blueberries.

Quite a number of local business houses have been "taken" by an out-of-town salesman who claimed he was selling spaces on blotters, to be placed in all hotel and cabins of the area. He collected his money, and immediately left town without delivering the blotters he had made promises to the businesses.
