

With The Churches Christian Scientist

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m. at the new Christian Science church.

"Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 22.

The Golden Text is "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him" (James 1:12).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me" (Ps. 24:3), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Death will be found at length to be a mortal dream, which comes in darkness and disappears with the light" (p. 42).

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

A surprise birthday party was given for Jean Sypher at home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Doane, Oct. 5. Guests were Patricia Mermilliod, Arlene Kerber, Alma Wise, Judy Jensen, Delores and Patsy Bruchler, Jeannette Thompson, Velma Ann White, Orma Bierman, Marilyn Neff, Joan Cox and Rosalie Turner. Game, and refreshments of cake, ice cream, candy and punch were enjoyed.

Langlois Girl Scouts, led by Mrs. Archie Aldropp, met at the grade school last Wednesday. The girls are now working for their second class pins. After the meeting they sang songs, enjoyed games and refreshments.

hunting trip. During her husband's absence, Mrs. Aldropp is visiting her mother, Mrs. Basil Goodrich, in Dallas, and a sister at Oakridge.

A full schedule is ahead for Mrs. Pauline Anderson who, in addition to her many other activities, has enrolled in high school. She will carry a full course of subjects. Mrs. Anderson, the mother of three sons, and grandmother of a two-year-old girl, is an active member of local organizations and is member of the Home Extension County Council.

Patty Mermilliod celebrated her 12th birthday with a party at her home Oct. 11. Cake, ice cream, punch, and candy were served and games were played after the opening of gifts. Attending the party were Arlene Kerber, Jean Sypher, Joan Cox, Alma Wise, Joan Cheatham, Judy Jensen, Doris and Barbara Brinkman, Delores and Patsy Bruchler, Mrs. Mary Burgess and the guest of honor's two sisters, Beverly and Mary, and father, Courtney Mermilliod.

Con. Harris Ellsworth was a guest at Sixes Grange Saturday night. He spoke on his experiences in congress when he was trying to obtain funds for the extension of power lines in Oregon, and then held a short open forum.

Iris Robbins, freshman, was crowned queen of Langlois high school carnival Friday night by Morrene Bruchler, 1949 queen. Crown bearer was five-year-old Bruce Robbins and the princesses were Mary Mermilliod and Shirley Phillips. A large crowd was present at the coronation, having spent the first part of the evening trying their skill at the various carnival booths.

The next youth's dance will be Friday, Oct. 20, at the Sixes Grange hall. Pot luck refreshments will be served and everyone is asked to bring their share.

Will Head High School Play

Casting of Langlois high school fall play, "Here Come the Brides," was completed last week with Dick Everest, a junior, being chosen to play the male lead, according to Robert Thetford, director of dramatics at the high school.

"Here Come the Brides," farce in three acts, is expected to be one of the most amusing productions to be given here in several years. The play, to be presented at the gym, the latter part of November, deals with the amusing and confusing antics that arise when Jimmy Took, (Dick Everest) needs a bride in a hurry. The hilarious situations that spring up through the farce are expected to keep the audience in a continuous state of laughter.

Others in the cast who are expected to turn in fine performances are Patty Mermilliod, Charles Clarke, Joe Edwards, Glenda Holycross, Pat Boice, Donna Hofess, Morrene Bruchler, and LeElla Kamph. The student director is Shirley Phillips.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany recently was a guest for a week at the famous Strube Lodge at Illaha on Rogue River above Agness. She was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Devol of Associated, Calif., who occupy the lodge a month each year.

There was a double-page article in Sunday's Journal garden section on the harvesting of lily bulbs in Oregon. While the article was taken from operations in central Oregon, it covers the way things are done in this area. Of special note was the mention of awards given by the North American Lily Society, and listing the prizes won by Oregon lily growers, with Leslie Woodriff receiving the first prize of Class 18L, Henryi and its hybrids. Competition for these was held recently at Buffalo, N. Y., and covers the entire country.

State School Support has REDUCED PROPERTY TAX

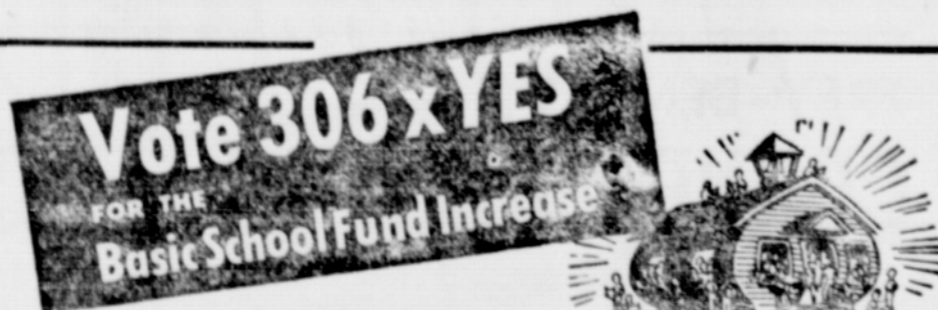

Oregon state school support has brought outstanding benefits to Oregon's schools and Oregon property taxpayers. State support has played a vital part in providing needed equipment and supplying necessary teachers for Oregon's surging school population.

It has saved CURRY county property taxpayers $444,368 in the past 7 years

To educate Curry county boys and girls for the past 7 years required local property taxes of $1,001,039. In addition, state school support from income tax sources supplied more than $444,368. In other words, for every $2.00 raised by local school district property taxes, another $1.00 has come from state sources.

School population will double in 10 years

More state aid is needed to relieve rapidly increasing local district property taxes.
