

Young Couple Wed At Smith River

SMITH RIVER—The Methodist church was the scene of the wedding of Helen Louise Waterman and Richard Brown, held Monday evening, Oct. 30, at 9. The wedding was postponed from Sunday evening due to rain and high water. Rev. E. C. Hicks officiated at a double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. P. C. Knudson.

Vows were exchanged by the young couple, who stood under an arch of ferns and white daisies, with baskets of white gladiolus and white candles in tall candleabra on each side of the arch and candles in each window. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Jerry Brown of Brookings sang "My Wonderful One," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Slater, who also played the wedding march.

The bridal party approached the altar, with the bride being given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in a white slipper sartin gown with long train, tight-fitting basque, nylon yoke and long sleeves, finger-tip veil which fell from a tara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with bouvardia, an orchid with satin streamers.

Little Kathleen Waterman, a niece of the bride, carried the train. Mrs. Doreen Waterman, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing pink satin gown, with nylon lobe, and off shoulder bertha edged with matching lace. She carried a nosegay bouquet of pink and white mums. The groom was attended by Claude Blagdon as best man. Ushers were Homer Waterman and John Bareggi.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds received congratulations from their hosts or friends in the social room of the church where a reception was held. The lace-covered table was centered with the three-tier bride's cake, topped with bride and groom.

The cake was cut by the bride and groom and served with punch.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Waterman wore a black suit, dusty rose hat and accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Brown, wore a blue suit with black accessories. Each mother wore gardenia corsage.

For going away costume, the bride wore a navy blue Jersey frock with tweed coat and orchid corsage. After their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside at Harbor where the groom is employed in the logging operations of the area.

Shaw Books Talk At Wedderburn

GOLD BEACH—David Shaw, Democratic candidate for Congressman for Fourth District, booked a meeting at Del Rogue Club, Wedderburn, Wednesday evening, to talk and to answer any questions which the crowd wished to asked.

Shaw, a lawyer, is opposing Harris Ellsworth, Republican, in the general election. Ellsworth has served since the formation of the district in 1941.

Medford Mail, a powerful publication came out definitely in favor of Shaw Sunday, in what the editor of that publication accuses Ellsworth of calling Shaw a Communist by inference.
