Sure! Star Filing Shop is open again. Hand Saws only. Every too a cutter. Studio Building, Brookings.

Hallowe'en pranksters became over-zealous Tuesday night, by not being satisfied with just the soaping of school house windows—several were broken. Police are investigating the matter.

The institute of teachers, set for Eugene this week-end, has been postponed, possibly cancelled, due to high water and damaged roads on the different approaches to that city. Most all the local teachers had planned to attend, and it was first announced that school would be closed from Wednesday noon.

Work was completed on the Curry County teachers directory which will be mailed to all the county school authorities within a few days. This book contains a complete list of all county districts, their faculties, directors, etc. with salary paid to each instructor. A directory of teachers fills the last three pages.

For lack of telephone service Tuesday between here and Gold Beach, Lynn Hampton was required to drive the distance in order to learn the status of the teachers institute, set for this week-end. School will be conducted as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaal returned from Klamath Falls recently after a week spent there. They were accompanied by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Howie. She was joined here by Mr. Howie, Thursday, and they both returned home the first of this week.

Pauline Hendricks, confined to Seaside hospital from the auto accident, Friday afternoon, was reported, as this paper goes to press has having taken a definite turn for the better, and had shaken off the stupor of shock which had kept her more or less inert since arrival at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Smith returned to their home at Medford Tuesday after coming here to fish a couple of weeks ago, and being detained here by the high water longer than they intended to stay.

The Penny Supper, an annual event of the Parent-Teachers association, which was postponed last Friday when power failed in the area, has had no new date set, as far as the Pilot is able to learn. Mrs. Ross Horn, president, could not be reached in time for a statement. The new date will be announced in a later issue.

Mrs. N. V. Strommen was able to return home last week after undergoing major surgery at the hospital.

The Harbor Community club met Friday afternoon with Mae Simpson presiding in absence of the president, Jessie Becker. The plans for the carnival to be given on Nov. 10, were completed. At the Grange hall, this affair is being staged to raise funds for conduct of the library. Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Missouri Tolman and Emma Waldien.

Patsy Schultz suffered a fall at school last week, hitting the concrete sidewalk with her mouth so hard that one tooth was pushed upward into the jaw, and had to be dug out, and another broken off. She is eight.

One of the homes which suffered most from the storm was that of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Kemp which had most of the roof torn off during the high wind. Several thousands of dollars of damage was done to the furnishings and interior by water. The roof fell on their car, sitting on driveway and badly dented the top. The Kemp home is one of the most attractive on the ocean drive, south of Harbor.

A party, in honor of Pete Harmon and Gilman Duffy, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronel Bolen on the Winchuck Tuesday evening. Many relatives and friends were present for the occasion. The lads will leave next week for their army physical examinations.

Roy Stephenson resumed his duties at Haggerty Twinservice the first of the week after being on a motor trip which took him to Kansas City to visit his parents and to Detroit where he visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haggerty.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by coroner's jury at the inquest held Tuesday at Gold Beach in the case of Jerry Wenzler, who died in an accident Friday on Red Hill, north of Brookings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley were callers in the north end of the county Tuesday on business.

Among those receiving notices to take their physical examinations at Eugene, Nov. 10, are Gilman Duffy, Pete Harmon and Beverly Wilson. Wallace Whinnery, driver for Williamson's, took his physical through the Grants Pass board recently, as did the Kimmitt boys.

Hosts to First Annual Parade of Quartets Saturday Evening

Brookings Barbershop chorus, which played host to first annual parade of quartets here last week-end. Floods and storms prevented the Sunday matinee from being put on.

Re-elect CONGRESSMAN HARRIS ELLSWORTH

FOURTH DISTRICT—LINN, LANE, DOUGLAS, JACKSON, JOSEPHINE, COOS, AND CURRY COUNTIES

EXPERIENCED...a loyal American who believes in OREGON!

Read what OREGON'S NEWSPAPERS say about REPRESENTATIVE ELLSWORTH

"We think Republicans owe Ellsworth a large vote of confidence... We respect his integrity, the careful study upon which he bases his conclusions."

—EUGENE REGISTER-GUARD

"Harris Ellsworth has filed for re-election to Congress, Fourth District; this is welcome news throughout the state to all who have come in contact with his effectiveness in Washington."

—OREGON VOTER

"The fourth district Representative, Harris Ellsworth, is one of the most effective Republican members of Congress, skilled in agriculture, forestry, mining, fisheries and other problems in his district and state. His influence has increased steadily since his first election in 1942. He has the ability to develop all the facts and to carry the fight for Oregon's interests to success in committee and on the floor."

—PORTLAND OREGONIAN

"Congressman Ellsworth has the reputation of being one of the most astute and level-headed members of congress, and it is paying off for the state by getting him senior appointments to important committees... We can't think of a better man to send to Washington than Congressman Ellsworth."

—COQUILLE VALLEY SENTINEL
