BRING OUR STATE UP-TO-DATE!

VOTE BALANCED PLAN 314 X YES!

Where would Oregon and the less populous Western states be today had not the U.S. Constitution wisely provided a national BALANCED PLAN, giving each state two senators and apportioning the House by population? The Oregon Balanced Plan follows the same time-tested American principle.

TAKE APPORTIONMENT OUT OF POLITICS

Don't be misled by special interests who hope to control the legislature for their own selfish ends. The Balanced Plan is endorsed by . . . Oregon Journal, Oregon Voter, Oregon Farm Bureau Federation, Young Republicans, League of Oregon Counties, Pomona Granges, Oregon Wheat Growers and forward-looking members of both major political parties.

in surrounding places. Some trees blew down here and power was off much of the time over the long week-end, telephones were out intermittently and rivers rose. Saturday evening, about 30 people were lined up at Sixes bridge, kibitzing while efforts were being made to pull a pick-up truck and car owned by Jim Nodine from that portion of the river road that was under water onto a dry spot.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald of Swift Brookfield cheese factory at Sixes reported that workers hurried to complete the cheesemaking process Saturday and finished just before the river came into the building. The MacDonalds home next door had water several inches deep on the floor for a short period, which left a heavy mud deposit. However, they reported little damage as furniture had been taken up off the floor.

Braving howling winds Thursday, three members of northern Curry home extension units went to Gold Beach for program planning day. Lucille Estabrook represented the Port Orford unit, Leta Hoggatt substituted for Lucille McKenzie, representing the Sixes unit and Mrs. Ollie Burgess went from Langlois. At the December meetings of their respective clubs, these women will present the program possibilities for the 1951-52 meetings to the members.

Carnival night at the grade school was postponed late Friday because of uncertain electric power.

Many men and women took a part in the second square dancing instruction night at the local grade school last Wednesday. They came from Langlois, Sixes and here, well filling the multipurpose room. The evening was conducted by Jessalee Mellalieu, home extension recreation specialist. Two more sessions will be held during this month.

Project leaders for the home extension meetings on Holiday Decorations went from each of the three local units, to Gold Beach Tuesday, to take lessons from HDA Dorothy Newton, on wreath making, etc. Mrs. Erma Wagner and Mrs. Pook came from Sixes, Mrs. Grace McKenzie and Mrs. Lillian Tiernan of the recently-formed Port Orford homemakers unit, and Mrs. Dorothy Raymo and Mrs. Echol Nutt from the other local group.

Mrs. Nutt and Mrs. Raymo will demonstrate the skills they learned Friday, Nov. 3, at the Community church hall, starting at 10:30 a. m. Anyone interested in learning how to make these holiday decorations is invited and those who come should bring a sack lunch, according to chairman, Evelyn MacDonald. Homemakers Unit will meet at the high school Thursday evening, Nov. 9 at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McKenzie recently were hunting in eastern Oregon and were reported to have returned with a buck.

John Vale returned early this week by plane from Denver after attending the funeral of his aged mother.

Clarence Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Corbin, was called into the army Oct. 24. It was believed he has been sent to Fort Ord, Calif, near Monterey. He was recently married to Laurel Carter of Brookings.

A 6 lb. 7½ oz. boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munson at Mast Hospital, Myrtle Point, Sunday, Oct. 22. He has been named Peter Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williamson are his maternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Childers became parents of a son born at Gold Beach hospital, Saturday, Oct. 21. He has been named George Robert Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McKenzie for a recent week-end were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey VanLoo of Myrtle Creek.

Wednesday Bridge Club was entertained by Mary Dobbema last week. High score was won by Catherine Marsh, second by Mrs. Dobbema and low, Margaret Corbin.

Ladies of the Altar Society will hold a bazaar and food sale on Nov. 18. Place will be announced later. adv.

To Democratic and Republican Voters of Curry Co.:

In the Primary Election last May, there was no one running for Coroner for Curry County. A campaign for write-in was started, which I never knew until the day before. The result was that I was overwhelmingly nominated as Republican candidate for that office, and lacked but two votes of getting the Democratic nomination also.

Since I have the nomination I would appreciate it if you voters would carry on through, November 7th, electing me as your Coroner.

I will fill the duties of that office as best I can, as I have always done in my practice the last 40 years.

Sincerely,

A. O. SCHMITT, M. D.
