

Chetco Grange To Seat New Officers

First November meeting of the Chetco Grange was held Friday evening with good attendance. The lecturer, Lillian Zumpfe, announced that the next meeting would be Harvest Festival and Booster night program, at which the Grangers are hosts to their friends, and all attending are asked to wear cotton dresses or overalls, in spirit with the entertainment. Home Economics chairman, Ellen Jagers, reported that she has sent for the supplies to make the United Nation's flag over two weeks ago, but these haven't arrived.

Election for 1951 officers resulted in these names:

OPHIR NOTES

By Marian Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Barrington are parents of a baby boy, born at Gold Beach hospital, Oct. 25. He has been named Thomas Earl. Amon Dishner left by bus on Sunday, for Savannah, Mo., to receive medical treatment.

A stork shower was given at the home of Elta Moore for Mrs. Dale Moore, last Saturday. The hostesses were Gloria Stevens and Eudora Moore. The guest of honor received many lovely and useful gifts. Refreshments of coffee, cake, cream puffs and jello were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan of Klamath Falls have recently returned to the Ophir community.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Chenoweth and infant son have recently moved into one of the Shepherd cabins.

Mary Pugh, Clifford Voelker and Jerry Crone left Wednesday to attend the high school regional conference at Springfield. After the conference they went to Portland for the week-end.

Mrs. Freda Stiger, Mrs. Frances Burris and Mrs. Edith Miller attended elementary school conference at Coquille Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Clifford Voelker and her daughters visited relatives at Coquille several days last week.

Local men who went elk hunting were John Nowlin, Ed Bieshe, Sam Reynolds, Herman Koblenzar and George Koblenzar.

Vacationing in and near San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dishner and family of Myrtle Point were week-end visitors at the homes of his brother, Amon and Calvin Dishner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moore and J. W. Moore drove to Coos Bay Friday.

Mrs. Sterling Mecca and infant daughter, Susie, arrived by bus from Stockton, Calif., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wade have moved into the apartment above the old Grange hall.

Local school children held their traditional Hallowe'en party on Tuesday afternoon. Both rooms played Hallowe'en games, followed by the usual eats. Mrs. Pugh's freshman math class crashed the affair—trick or treat—and were rewarded with treat.

What happened? Hallowe'en pranksters must have been storm bound in this district—no vandalism—?

As a result of the storm Cedar Fork road was almost impassable for several days last week. However, it has been re-opened.

Mrs. Sam Reynolds went to Coos Bay to visit her daughter, Mrs. Gary Everson, and was stranded several days by the flooded Coquille river.

Dean Collins has started to work at the Double O Lumber Company.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Hattie Mackey underwent an operation at Gold Beach hospital Saturday and had her leg amputated at the knee as infection below the knee and in the foot made this necessary. It is reported she is resting as well as can be hoped.

Don Jaklewicz is at the U. S. naval training center at San Diego, where he is taking his boot training after enlisting in the navy last week. Don was a senior in high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barton and two children of Klamath Falls spent the week-end in this area visiting relatives. Bill graduates from Oregon Tech this week, where he has spent the last two years taking body and fender course.

Mrs. Almo Newton is confined to the hospital this week for observation and treatment.

Souvenir programs of the Parade of Quartets may be picked up ball who attended the show, Saturday, at Gould Shoe Store.

Pomona Grange Met Here Saturday

Curry County Pomona Grange met Saturday at Chetco Grange with about 70 Grangers present for the roast chicken dinner and business meeting. Five visitors from Del Norte County Pomona Grange were present, with their master, Leo Kloske and his wife among them.

The business session was presided over by Master Henry Adolphsen. The lecturer, Bea Phipps, reported that Curry Co. was the only county in the state which has a 100% turn in of lecturer's reports for 1950, and hopes that the year will be completed with a perfect record.

Nine candidates were given Pomona degree by a team of Chetco officers. A discussion of the county fair was held, with the holding of exhibits on Sunday afternoon until 4 p. m. favored, as was also the judging of community booths.

Walter Slocum presented Pomona Grange with a myrtlewood gavel, to be given to the Grange that has the largest attendance at Pomona Meetings. Any Grange holding it for three times in a row becomes permanent owner.

Before close of the meeting a minute's silence was held in the memory of National Grange Master Goss, who died recently.

The next Pomona Grange has been set for January 1, with the Sixes Grange.
