

LOCAL NEWS Festival Brings In Funds For Library

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stoller are enjoying a two-weeks vacation, at Salem and Chehalis, Washington, where they are visiting relatives. Their two daughters are in charge of the Nook Cafe during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alexander of Hoquiam, Wash., spent a couple of days the first of the week visiting Mrs. Alexander's sister, Mrs. Jeri Funari. Bob, a printer on the "Washingtonian" at Hoquiam, helped a couple days at the Pilot while here.

The Armistice day dance at Smith River was a success, if the capacity crowd is indicative. A number of local Legionnaires of this area were among those represented. Music was by Chetco Rhythmblers.

"Brookings Best Spot," Frazers Say On Return

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Frazer, who left here in January 1948, for Corpus Christi, Texas, returned late last week with the vow that "go where you will, you can't begin to match this country for a desirable place to live."

Mrs. Frazer, known as 'Deb,' by all her friends, and her husband, hope to open up a curio and gift shop in this area, for they claim traveling people seek souvenirs of places they have been. Travel on Hwy 101 is such, they believe, to justify the effort of investing time and money.

The benefit festival at Chetco Grange hall last Friday night, for the Community library, was an event which will be remembered for a long time. Games and sale of different articles netted a tidy sum for the library.

Supper, in ample proportions was served. Dancing made up a part of the evening's diversion.

The Fish Pond, run by Mrs. Bertha Moore; Auction Table, by Mrs. Roy Hendry; White Elephant by Mrs. Judkins and Mrs. Earl Simpson; Bingo by Mrs. Irma Rice; Parcel Post by Mrs. Emma Waldien; fortune telling by Mrs. Maude Sandbo and Mrs. Lillian Weideman, grossed about $200, which sum will be augmented by many who were unable to attend.

Scouts Book Dance For Building Funds

Still trying to raise sufficient funds to build that proposed Scout Shack, members of Troop 32, Boy Scouts, will hold a Turkey Trot Dance, Thursday night, Nov. 23, at Chetco Grange hall.

The building committee, headed by Rev. Fr. Don Denman, is composed of Blain Gribble as building chairman, Ed Hoar and George Murry.

Advance tickets will be sold, according to Mike Page, secretary of the scout committee.
