Along Azalea Row

By B. Miller

The juxtaposition of National Education Week and Armistice day is wholly suitable, for by education and a knowledge of people of foreign lands as individuals, it is to be hoped that the barriers which separate us will melt away and our youth no longer need to give their lives in what seems often to be wars which settle nothing permanently.

Our local Parent-Teachers Association made a contribution of this kind Thursday evening when it was host to two young women, a German, and an Indian, exchange students at Southern Oregon College of Education, Ashland.

The young ladies discussed the conditions in their respective countries since the war, and so freely answered questions to the best of their ability. Due to the audience and profession of the women, these had for the most part, a pedagogical slant. Miss Ivy Coffey of New Delhi, India, winsome and feminine in a very graceful sari, is very earnest in her desire to aid her country in its awakening toward a higher level of education for the masses.

She gave Frank Laubach high praise for his literacy campaign in India. His method of "each one teach one" is working miracles of literacy, not only in India but in backward regions of the globe. If you would share in this truly wonderful work of aid, send a contribution of anywhere from one to 25 dollars to the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature, Foreign Missions Conference of North America, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, 10, N. Y. You will receive progress reports in letter form as educational work goes round the globe. This is non-sectarian. Local teachers, priests and pastors enthusiastically aid Frank Laubach.

Azalea Garden Club has built a number of programs this year around gardening as a universal vocation. Barriers separating us from women of other lands are speech and often dress. There are bridges which cross to a better understanding. Music is such a bridge. Babies another. Gardening is another, since women of every land labor in and love their gardens.

Arrangements of chrysanthemums, the national flower of Japan, brightened the Grange hall Thursday at the garden club meeting. Mrs. Chester Maris read an account of Japanese flower arrangements in homes of Japanese women. These are now placed in a special niche, called the takanoma, before a scroll hanging on the wall, the kakimono.

Mrs. Charles Grayshel, illustrating Japanese flower arrangement, had made a clever one which told the story of our recent storm and the aftermath. This was placed before a kakimono hung upon the wall.

A trio of Azalea singers, Mrs. Emil Moore, Mrs. Stanley Patterson and Mrs. Curzon MacKenzie, sang "Rose in Bud." Mrs. MacKenzie sang "Hills of Home" and the Azalea Singers with Rev. John Mumbower, gave "Worth Fighting For." Mrs. L. H. Harvey accompanied at the piano.

Guests at the meeting were Rev. and Mrs. Mumbower, Mrs. Myrtle Cole, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Olive Lamb, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. Ida Hall, Mrs. Alice Raush and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crissey.

Azalea Garden club made a contribution to the Blue Star Markers which is to be placed at the state park near Birdseye Creek in the Grants Pass area. This is a memorial marker for veterans of world war 2 being placed at designated state parks crossing the United States.

A handsome centerpiece of pampas grass, autumn fruits and flowers in a driftwood container adorned the tea table. This was made by Mrs. Roy Weideman, assisted by other members of the social committee, Mrs. B. E. Kerns, chairman, and Mrs. Margaret Anderson and by Mrs. Cliff Lindskoug.

Souvenir Programs Are Available To Community

Souvenir programs of the recent Barbershop Parade of Quartets, held up when power outage prevented printing, were put out to the public Thursday of last week, for those who attended the show, and who wish to have one for a remembrance.

Copies will be sent by the local chapter to all participants in the parade as soon as possible.

With The Churches

Christian Scientist

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all the Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 19.

The Golden Text is "The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly." (Ps. 84:11).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (2 Cor 5:1), together with the following correlative passage from the Scriptian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The individuality of man is no less tangible because it is spiritual and because his life is not at the mercy of matter," (page 317).
