

They Shoulda Thrown It Back In!

Caught on atomic strike bait, this 51½-lb. salmon was taken by Lamel and Carl Johns and Bun Hand of Bakersfield, Calif., after an hour and ten-minute struggle, on 18-lb. test line, at Hiouchi Bridge. This fish was taken to Cedar Lane Cannery, to be weighed by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hayes when caught by the photographer. This party was guided by Harry Williams.

Flood Maroons 3 Horses In Checo

The palimino mare belonging to Rev. John L. Mumbower and the two horses belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Page, Friday, were caught on the sandbar of the Chetco, just below the Page home, by the flash flood, and were marooned for the night.

A group of members of Chetco Wranglers made an effort to reach the animals that evening, but were unsuccessful.

Up at day-break, Rev. Mumbower and others managed to entice, with grain, the horses' attempt to swim the channel.

This spot is the old river bed, which is covered only in high water. During the recent flood the island on which the horses spent the night, was covered by almost two feet of water.
