Home Extension Unit met last Friday with 13 present. Subject was vegetable cookery. A pot-luck lunch was served at noon, including vegetables prepared in the demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and two children spent Thanksgiving holidays at Redding, California, visiting relatives of Mrs. Miller.

Of special interest this week was the pre-nuptial shower for Miss Naomi Cushman, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 29, at the Lyle's home. Over 440 friends attended, and others sent gifts. Mrs. Lyle and Mrs. Kampa were hostesses, and Mrs. Ruth Wahl and Crystal Hensen assisted in opening the gifts.

Fournier Bros. are remodeling the fish warehouse on the hill above the dock, and expect to begin canning operations about Jan. 10. Mr. Fournier, in charge, says they will pack fish and crab, and do custom canning of fruits and vegetables in season. Jack Fournier, a partner in the enterprise, is scout for the Cubs baseball club.

The Collins Grill will be closed for the next two months while its operators, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Woosley are in California. One of the rooms above the cafe has been rented to the Bonneville regional office.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hoggatt have leased their home to Bonneville official and plan a year's vacation, travelling through the southern states. They have no immediate plans, other than to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hoggatt's mother at Saugus, Calif.

There will be no general meeting of Port Orford Centennial committee in December. Attractive stationery has been printed and will be sold to help in the fund-raising.

Mr. and Mrs. George Asdel and sons have gone to southern California for six weeks, to visit relatives. Mr. Asdel has not seen his parents for some time. The boys will be coached by Mrs. Asdel in their school work while away. Charles Hensen is driving the school bus in Mr. Asdel's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Elic Dubell have moved back to Port Orford from Brookings, where Mr. Dubell was with the engineering department of the state highway.

Thanksgiving guests at the Clyde Wagner home on Elk River included Mrs. Jessie Fromm, of Port Orford, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sears of Portland. Mr. Sears was recently released from duty in Korea.

Regular meeting of P.-T. A. was held Nov. 28 at the grade school. December is a busy time with practice for the community Christmas program, to be held Dec. 20, at the gym. Miss Ritteman and Mr. McCornack have charge of the pageant, and the P.-T. A. will furnish the treats.

The public is invited to the grade school Monday evening, Dec. 18 for a pot luck supper. The multipurpose room will be decorated for Christmas and the children will sing Christmas carols.

A contribution was voted as the P.-T. A.'s support in the Centennial celebration. It was decided to have no December P.-T. A. meeting as the regular date falls in Christmas vacation. Both high and grade schools will be dismissed the Thursday noon before Christmas, and resume on January 2.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Chapman of the Hamlet made a trip to Chino, Calif., over Thanksgiving to see their son, Jimmy, who is a patient in the Crippled Children's home. Jimmy, 10, was a victim of infantile paralysis soon after he went to California to attend school. Mrs. Cushman reports him in good spirits, despite the fact that the doctors pronounced his one of the most severe cases. The children in the home, ranging in ages up to 16 years, find time passes slowly. Jimmy's friends in school are sending old Christmas cards to the home for scrapbooks. Perhaps others would like to join in helping to fill the long hours between exercises and schooling. Scrapbooks, story books, puzzles and toys are acceptable. The address is: Cascelina Crippled Children's home, Chino, Calif. Jimmy is almost helpless. Curtis House, who contracted polio at the same time, has sufficiently recovered to be able to return with the Chapmans to visit relatives and friends in Port Orford.

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Luella Higgins of Myrtle Point and Edward Sypher, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sypher of this place, were married Sunday, November 26, at Church of Christ, Coquille, with Rev. Nelson officiating. Mary Mermilliod and Dick Hildebrand were their only attendants. Only members of the immediate families were present. Those from Langlois were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sypher and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hildebrand and Bill, and Mr and Mrs Edwin Bement and Ronald. Reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The couple left for a few days at Visalia, Calif., and will live at the Silver Springs Cottages at Port Orford upon their return.

The Brownie Scouts met last Thursday afternoon at the grade school gym under direction of Mrs. Dick Tucker and Mrs. Sted-dom, their new assistant leader. The girls started making baskets from cigar boxes. These will be used at the community Christmas program. The girls wish to thank local merchants for the boxes.

Langlois Girl scouts met Wednesday under direction of Mrs. Archie Aldropp and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher. The girls discussed plans for their Christmas party and Jeannette Thompson and Arlene Kerber were appointed to make wreaths for the party. After the meeting members played games.
