

SMITH RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Pfc Jean Elva Brown, who has completed 14 weeks of intensive study at Chanute Field, Ill., air base. She completed the weather school with an average of 95. She has a 15-day furlough to spend on the Pacific coast, after which she will report at the weather station in Louisiana for duty.

The steady down-pour of rain during the week-end brought the small streams and Smith River running over the highway in the low places. At Tryon corner water was over the highway. Traffic continued to travel and no damage resulted from the water.

Wednesday evening of each week a group of Smith River folks enjoy themselves learning to square dance. The dancing begins at 8 and is held at the community hall. The affair is open to the public and all interested are invited to come. A small admission is charged to pay for the hall. Smith River Post, American Legion, is sponsoring a stag feed to be held Saturday evening at the community hall. The time is set for 7:30. Harry Brown and Bruno Braido are co-chairmen, assisted by other Legion members.

Mrs. Mabel Browne, clerk at Westbrook Market, has been confined to her home with illness, but is recovering, and soon will return to her duties.

Mrs. Emma Cooper, who has been with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper, underwent medical care by her physician and has return to her home, much improved in health.

LANGLOIS

The Floras-Willow Women's club held its annual bazaar last Saturday at the Kane building. Home-cooked foods and needlework were sold. Chances were sold on a doll with a complete wardrobe. This will continue at Dinty's. The Langlois Sportsmen's club will meet Tuesday, Dec. 13, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. J. I. Everest and daughter, Frances, spent Saturday at Coos Bay, shopping.

Mrs. O. E. Baker and son, Patric, returned to their home at Medford Sunday after spending a week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore.

Curry County P. M. A. held its election of committeemen for '51 last week. The county committee election was held Nov. 30, at Gold Beach. County committeemen are: Charles E. Fox, of Langlois, chairman; C. P. Watts of Brookings, vice-chairman; regular member — Raymond Capps, Sixes; first alternate — Virginia Fendrick, Gold Beach; second alternate—Otis Bowman of Gold Beach. The northern committeemen are: chairman — Joe Nilsen; vice-chairman — Ray Zumwalt; regular member—Bill Edwards; first alternate — Roy Kamph; second alternate—Chas. Caughell.

Langlois sportsmen will hold a turkey shoot, Dec. 10.

Bandon and Langlois high and grade schools played basketball at the local gym Saturday. The Langlois teams won both games. Score of the high school game was: Langlois 61, Bandon 38.

Rex and Fay Hayes, of Cedar Lane Cannery had a quantity of labels printed for cans containing crab meat and smoked crab legs, a new product for that new business in this area which already has gained quite a reputation over the country.
