

"JUNE-IN-DECEMBER" SEEN HERE

All over the nation, with snow-storms, blizzards, and sub-temperatures reported almost everywhere, except here, this area basks in the balmy weather which forces daffodils to break forth in the summer time splendor.

Earl Monday, George Titus came to the Pilot office almost breathless to tell about having two "Magnificent" daffodils in full bloom in his yard that morning. He expects more, too.

If this area has the advertising funds behind it that Los Angeles spends every year, every national magazine might have a full-page, color advertisement heralding the fact.

P. O. Hours Set For "Mail Rush"

To expedite mail handling in the Christmas rush, that everyone in the community might get packages as soon as they arrive, Goldie V. Smith, Brookings postmaster, announces these hours:

Saturday, Dec. 16 and again on Dec. 23, the windows will be open in the afternoons.

Mail will arrive on Sundays, Dec. 17, and 24, and will be dispatched. The window will not be open Dec. 17, but will be open Dec. 24, from 3:00 p. m. until all mail is distributed.

Builders Point To New Smith Home

With completion of the new seaside home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith, near the W. L. Crissey home, the builders of the home wish to point with pride to their accomplishment, as is set out in a congratulatory advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Blaine Gribble had charge of the carpenter work, Harold Jochens the plumbing, Brookings Electric and Radio Co., the wiring, Robert E. Lee, and Fay Clemmer, plastering and interior finishing. E. E. Hanscam & Sons furnished much of the appliances for the home's convenience.

GOLD BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sidle of Warroad, Minn., have arrived here to spend the winter with his brother, Bill Sidle, of Wedderburn. Mr. and Mrs. Sidle will be remembered as former Wedderburn residents and owners of the
