

Sunday School Play Staged Sunday Eve

"Christmas Under the Stars," staged by the high school class of Baptist Community church Sunday evening, drew much applause from the packed house.

The plot dealt with the people on a bus en route to homes to spend Christmas, who were waylaid when the bus broke down on the Arizona desert. Delayed for a night, the group carried out a "Nativity" scene when it was discovered that a young Japanese-American woman and her infant were aboard the bus. A traveling salesman provided his cloth samples for costumes, and under direction of a dramatics student, Christmas was well spent in convincing an orphaned Jewish refugee boy that he was believing wrong about Christmas.

The cast of characters, under direction of Mrs. J. L. Mumbower, included.

- Dave, the dramatics student—Howard Morris.
- Bus Driver—Ronald Akers.
- Kitty, a girl hurrying home to be wed—Fay Raush.
- Salesman—Fred Panzer.
- Jo, the Jewish refugee boy — Tommy Jones.
- Mrs. Murata—Kay DeMartin.
- Missionary—Shirley Kerr.
- Navajo shepherd — Jo Anne poor.
