

GOLD BEACH

Rebekahs Initiate

Gold Beach Rebekahs held initiation Wednesday evening with Jennie Turner, Lea Colvin and A. N. McLennan being taken into the order. The drill team put on its floor work which is always impressive. Refreshments were served after lodge to a good-sized crowd.

Christmas Program

A small but appreciative audience turned out Thursday night, despite weather conditions, to hear the program of Christmas music at the high school gym. Junior and Senior choir each sang several numbers and then the high school took over. Gold Beach is certainly fortunate in having a man of Mr. Humphrey's talents on the staff.

Other Gold Beach Items

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baxter and son, Warren, left Thursday night for El Centro, Calif., on the first lap of their trip to Abilene, Tex. They will be joined by their other son, Duane, who is attending school, and the family will spend Christmas at Del Rio, Tex., their old home. The return to Gold Beach will be had by the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christensen of Brookings called on Oleta Walker at Myers Creek, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goodale of Portland spent last week-end in Gold Beach, calling on friends. Mr. Goodale was formerly associated with the Buffington law office.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor made a business trip north on Tuesday, returning Wednesday evening. Dorothy Douthit had charge of the Grocery during their absence.

Georgia Fromm, county superintendent, spent last Tuesday in Brookings, visiting schools.

Gordon (Swede) Asher Jr., left Dec. 12, to enter military service.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Sweet of Sixes spent Sunday working on the Ophir Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barzee left Monday for Southern California to spend the holidays. They plan to drive on into Mexico in their new Bel Air Chevrolet while on the trip. Their daughter, Darla, will stay with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Ferguson, until they return.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCain drove to Coos Bay, Saturday, to meet their daughter, Doris, who is a junior at Willamette University. Doris will spend the holidays with her parents in Wedderburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Adams left the first of the week for Corvallis where they will be joined by Joyce, and on to Portland where they will pick up Eileen and the family will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. James Lynn and sons at Oak Grove. Before returning home, Mr. and Mrs. Adams will go to Tacoma to help Mrs. Adams' mother, Mrs. S. J. Cooper celebrate her 89th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Curry are parents of a baby girl, born Dec. 15. Mother and babe are doing well.

Judge Guy Forsyth left Friday morning for Medford where he will attend a district meeting of five Oregon counties. He will return home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Raymond of Raymond's Lodge will spend the holidays with their son at Santa Rosa.

John (Corky) Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Brewer, and Lee (Pinky) Nowlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nowlin, recently completed boot training in San Diego naval base, and are now in advanced training. Bruce Burns—the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Burns—who enlisted at the same time has been transferred to Key Port, Wash.

lost 49 to 30 and the heavyweights by a 56 to 41 score.

The chorus presented a Christmas cantata Tuesday evening at the high school.

School will be close from Fri-Dec. 22 to January 2, for the holidays.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all the kind friends who assisted us during our time of sorrow. It was so helpful. Roy Kinion and family.
